Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Dear Parishioners,

PARISH MISSION
January 25 - January 26

This weekend we will be having our parish mission. The theme will be "Christ calls on families to share His faith: All are welcomed to where Jesus dwells". Our mission facilitator will be Donna Ottaviano-Britt, Diocesan Director of the Office of Discipleship and Leadership. Please see the inner part of the bulletin for scheduling and other details.

The purpose of a parish mission, at least in the more current perspective, is to build up the church community itself through instruction and awareness, events and celebration, prayer and piety. There is always a need for a parish to continue the mission of Christ at the local level. To do so, a community must be ready to accept both leadership and participation in various forms.

The balance and structure of the Church in the New Testament tell us we must be sent through apostleship and follow by discipleship. Let us then live by the Spirit of God "walking in the footsteps of Christ", leading ourselves and others to Him. May we hear this weekend the words of Jesus "Come, follow me".

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS' WEEK
January 26 - February 1

Catholic Schools' Week is a national annual celebration and opportunity to recognize the importance, the value, and the contributions of Catholic education to the Church and the world.

There are more than 6,000 Catholic schools nationwide which serve elementary, middle, and high school students. They are located across all regions, giving many families the opportunity for accessible Catholic education.

The current theme for Catholic Schools' Week 2020 is Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed. Catholic schools across the nation, including our own Cape Trinity Catholic School (pre-K thru 8th) and Wildwood Catholic High School, commemorate Catholic Schools' Week with Holy Mass, Catholic school awareness and appreciation, open houses, and service and activities for students, staff and volunteers, families, parishioners and community members.

On Sunday, January 26th at the 10:30am Mass, the Parish Mission and Catholic Schools' Week combine in a special manner to promote and foster our parish and schools. We look forward to this encounter to further among us a concerted and renewed sense of Catholic education, faith, and way of life.

-Fr. Steve

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Feb. 17, 2020

at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Discuss these questions: How does Jesus call you? How do you follow?
- With the family, discuss problems that are present in the community (vandalism, drug abuse, disrespect, racism, discrimination). Find ways that you as a Christian family can address these problems. Choose one and discuss what you can do to bring about a change with that problem. Spend time in prayer concerning your choice.
- Discuss with your child the divisions among people in his or her school. What are the reasons for the divisions? How can your family help?

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: What is the role of a Deacon?

Answer: Have you ever noticed another guy on the altar who dresses in vestments, but not priest vestments and does some of the things a priest normally would do, like read the Gospel? This guy is known as a deacon. A deacon is an ordained clergy member whose function is to assist the priest at Mass and in the parish. He may be noticed at Mass by wearing a stole over his left shoulder or by a dalmatic (the colored vestment resembles that of a priest except it has sleeves).

Deacons are the men who are at service of the Church. There are two types: transitional deacons, those who will be ordained priests and permanent deacons, those who will remain deacons. Deacons may witness marriages, perform baptisms, perform sick calls, and preside over funerals. They may also help in the parish with marriage prep, CCD programs, and the sort.

The title deacon comes from the Greek word "diakonos" meaning servant or minister. During the Mass, the deacon serves at the altar with the priest and helps him by preaching the Gospel. Deacons are permitted to give homilies as well. During the Liturgy of the Eucharist, he also helps distribute Holy Communion.
