Message from Deacon Nick Danze, Pastoral Associate

Dear Parishioner,

In a recent episode of the comic strip For Better or For Worse 13-year-old Michael complains to his mom...

"Mom, there's nothing to wear!"

"Michael," his mother counters, "you won't go shopping with me, and the last time I gave you money to buy your own clothes, you didn't buy anything!!"

A few minutes later, Michael is staring out the window. "There's nothing to do," the teenager whines. His mother reminds him, "Brian asked you to go swimming, your dad asked you if you'd go downtown with him — and you turned them both down."

Mom next encounters Michael plopped in front of the television, the sound turned down. "There's nothing to watch," Michael gripes.

Mom says pointedly, "There are plenty of channels to choose from and you have video games to play."

In the next-to-last panel, Dad comes home from his errands to find Michael just sitting in a chair, a forlorn expression on his face. "What's with Michael?" Dad asks.

Mom deadpans, "There's nothing to complain about."

My friends, today's Gospel is about attitude and perspective. Jesus asks us to consider not just our failings and sins — the acts themselves — but the self-centeredness at the heart of our actions. You see, to embrace happiness is a choice we make; we decide whether or not to engage the world with a perspective of hope and possibility. Michael's pessimism is his own making, and his wise mom calls him on it.

On a much deeper and more serious level, Jesus challenges us to confront the anger, the bigotry, the self-righteousness that we use to justify our selfish behavior: the attitudes that tear families and communities apart that destroy our own sense of self-respect as well as diminishing the basic human dignity of others.

Truth be told, to follow Jesus is to see the possibilities we have for doing good things and to accept God's grace to make such good a reality.

In HIS Peace,
Deacon Nick

Stewardship

February 16, 2020

True Stewardship

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." MATTHEW 5:20

The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear – true Stewardship is about the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of a modern-day Pharisee.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Parish Information

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Feb. 17, 2020
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Weekly Readings Reflections

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Discuss what radical obedience might mean. What does obedience require? How can one be radical in practicing obedience? Then have each person relate how he/she might specifically practice obedience in a radical manner.
- Sirach lived in a culture that did not support his religious values. Do your family members feel supported in religious values by today's culture? How or how not? What is the solution? How can values be upheld when the culture opposes them? How does the domestic Church, or family, support its members? Make a plan for supporting each other in times of opposition to the culture.

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: Why is music such an important part of Mass?

Answer: One of God's greatest gifts to us, his creation, was the gift of song. In words and music, our ancestors in faith—Moses, David, Deborah, Paul, St. Gregory—have taught us how to revel in God's infinite love, proclaim his glory, give thanks for his abounding generosity, and plead for mercy and forgiveness.

Many churches have organs. Many of our Masses, especially on Sundays, have choirs – groups of people who lead the singing. It is important, like all celebrations, for the celebration of the Mass to have music. The congregation sings as another way of praying to God. St. Augustine said: “Singing is praying twice”. This is a wonderful way to give thanks and praise to God.

Many churches have music books in the pews containing the songs that are approved by the bishops that are used during Mass. Sometimes several instruments are used and sometimes just individual instruments are used. The instruments include: piano, guitar, flute, violin, trumpet, assorted horns, drums and assorted percussion. The music matches the solemn nature of the Mass and the liturgical seasons and feasts.
