Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Message from Mary Vey, Administrative Assistant

Dear Friends,

In today's gospel by St Luke, the disciples ask Jesus to teach them to pray as John the Baptist had taught his disciples. He taught them the Our Father, which is the most popular prayer in all of Christianity, as a model of how to pray. We pray the longer version found in Matthew 6:9-13. Reciting the Our Father becomes second nature to most of us. It is an integral part of sacramental liturgies (Baptism, Confirmation & Anointing of the Sick) and the celebration of Mass. The Our Father is the quintessential prayer of the Church. (ccc2776) Have you thought about the actual prayer and what Jesus is teaching us? Pope Benedict XVI wrote "the meaning of the Our Father goes much further than the mere provision of a prayer text. It aims to form our being, to train us in the inner attitude of Jesus". We should pause and reflect on these words.

I'm sure many of you remember the Baltimore Catechism. It was the official national Catholic school text from 1885 until the late 1960's. My elementary teachers (mostly religious) used the question and answer formatted book to teach us the commandments, sacraments and prayers. For example:

492. Why do we address God as "Our Father who art in heaven"?

We address God as "Our Father who art in heaven" because we belong to Him, our loving Father, who created us and watches over us, who adopts us through sanctifying grace as His children, and who destines us to live forever with Him in heaven, our true home.

In my Father's house, there are many mansions. (John 14:2)

Each question and answer were supported by scripture. In 2004 US Catholic Catechism for Adults replaced the Baltimore Catechism. There are many publications available to help you understand the Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be & Act of Contrition to name a few. You will feel the difference between praying and reciting a prayer.

Have you been reading the "Liturgy Corner" in the bulletin? Do you have a liturgical question you would like answered? Are you curious why the Church does certain things during mass? Send us an email or short note with your question.

Have a Blessed Week,

Mary

Stewardship

July 28, 2019

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Good Stewardship

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." LUKE 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good Steward only asks God for what he needs.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- In the Gospel reading for Sunday, we learn the prayer that Jesus taught us, the Lord's Prayer. Sometime during this week, use the Lord's Prayer as part of your before-meal prayer. Join hands around the table when you pray it.
- Pray the Lord's Prayer slowly and meditatively. Talk about what each petition means to you. Remind family members that this is the prayer Jesus himself taught us to pray. Express to your children the value of praying together as a family, as a community of believers, and as individuals.
- Make a prayer list for your refrigerator door. Ask everyone to add their requests to the list. Include these intentions in your family prayer.
- Talk about what members of your family pray for.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Aug. 19, 2019
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Vigil of the Feast of the Assumption and the Wedding of the Sea—August 14th

This annual event on August 14th is quickly approaching. A few volunteers are needed to help decorate the church and our patroness, Mary. We will meet in St. Ann Church at 9am on the 14th. Volunteers are also needed to carry banners during the Feast of the Assumption Vigil Mass on August 14th. Banner carriers will carry a banner, showing a mystery of the rosary, into the church during the processional, carry the banner down to the beach for the Wedding of the Sea and rerun it to church after Bishop Sullivan blesses our ocean. 28 volunteers are needed for this task! We will meet in St Ann Church at noon for a quick rehearsal and then again at 3:45 in the back of church. If interested please contact Jude Kelly at 609-972-9051. Thank you.

OUR HOUSE OF CHARITY PRAYER:

Lord, You have given us the gift of life and have woven the story of Your Love into our hearts and minds and every part of our beings.

You have showed us how to live in Your Love, and You taught us that whatever we do for the least of your sisters and brothers, we do unto You.

We ask that the work that we do in service to your least ones be our prayer. May it show our gratitude for all your gifts and express our love for You in return.

Help us to love you ardently, share in Your sufferings joyfully, and serve You wholeheartedly in our sisters and brothers, especially those most in need who are helped through the House of Charity.
Amen

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: When Holy Communion is distributed why do we say “The Body of Christ” and not “The Body and Blood of Christ” or just “This is Jesus”?

Answer:

We use the word “body” for several reasons. First of all, Jesus himself used the word “body” (soma in Greek) when giving the Eucharist for the first time: “Take and eat this is my Body (soma)”. Hence we, in conformity to Christ, use this way of speaking of the Eucharist.

Secondly, both the English word body and the Greek word Soma can refer strictly to the physical dimension of a person, or more broadly to the whole person. In English, we can say, “My arm is part of my body”. In this case we are referring to the physical dimension. However, it may also be said, “I am somebody”, which refers not only to one’s physicality but to one’s whole self. We can do this in the plural such as when we speak of the “body of believers”, or the body-politic. Here we do not refer to a physical body, but rather to the sum total, or the majority of some group.

Hence we do not exclude any dimension of Christ by referring to his “Body”, as if we were only referring to his flesh. Rather “Body” here refers to the whole Christ. Surely it pertains to a living human body (and Jesus is quite alive) to have not only flesh, but also blood and soul together. We also receive with his body his divine nature since it is united to him hypostatically.

While we do speak of what is in the Chalice more specifically as the “Blood of Christ”, this is only to distinguish its species (what we perceive) from the host. But once again, Jesus is alive and glorified and his body, blood, soul and divinity are together. Hence, even in the smallest drop of Precious Blood, the whole Christ is received.
