Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Message from Fr. Steve Pinzon, Parochial Vicar

THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AND THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The month of August on the Catholic calendar is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to the Blessed Sacrament.

St. John Bosco (1815-1888) had a prophetic vision of two things that are necessary in the times of trial for the Church: Devotion to Mary and frequent reception of Holy Communion.

The "Heart of Mary" hearkens back to the Scriptures when Mary pondered and kept in her heart the great mysteries of the Nativity and the Presentation in the Temple. Devotion and consecration to her heart has been promoted by various saints, popes, religious orders, and many others throughout the centuries.

The "Blessed Sacrament" refers to the Holy Eucharist which is the most august of all the sacraments and said by the Church to be the source and summit of the Christian life. It is to be adored and consumed with the understanding that it is the real Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, who is the Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation.

Song to the Blessed Sacrament

Tantum ergo sacramentum	Therefore, the great Sacrament
Venerémur cernui:	let us reverence, prostrate:
Et antiquum documentum	and let the old Covenant
Novo cedat ritui:	give way to a new rite.
Præstet fides supplementum	Let faith stand forth as substitute
Sensuum defectui.	for defect of the senses.

Poem to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

I fain would sing a sweet new song
Thy loving Heart to greet,
I fain would cull the flowers fair,
And lay them at thy feet.

And of the precious virgin-gold
And shining jewels rare,
Would form a royal diadem,
To grace thy forehead fair.

But ah! the heart-strings seem un-strung
And faint the music now,
I cannot place a golden crown
Upon thy queenly brow.

The first flowers fade too soon —
What shall the offerings be
From this poor exiled child of earth
O purest Heart, to thee?

I'll offer all the burning love
Of Jesus' Heart for thine,
And in that golden censer place
The little spark of mine.

And these, O Heart Immaculate,
Shall be my gifts to thee ;
Oh I pray thy sweetest Son to grant
His love and thine to me.

- Fr. Steve

Stewardship

August 4, 2019 ~ Stewardship Values

Stewardship
a way of life

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous life of Stewardship becoming more “other-centered” and less “self-centered.”

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

Please consider contributing to this Capital Campaign if you have not yet done so. It is truly for the sustained future of our parish!

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Create a “Household Values” statement. Discuss the family’s priorities and values. Identify values that are most important to the household and write them down. Are the family members’ priorities in line with God’s teaching or do they need some adjusting
- Reflect on how you can use your possessions, money and gifts in the service of God and neighbor. What organizations in your community are helping those in need? Get involved with this group!
- Plan a family fun time together—a whole day if possible. Go fishing, bowling, or skating; go out for pizza. Talk about what each family member has learned lately or accomplished lately or done lately.
- Together with your children sort through your cupboards. Make a commitment in advance that you and your children will donate to a food bank things from the cupboard which would be appropriate. Discuss with your children that this is part of what Jesus meant when he said, “Share your gifts with others.”

General Information

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Please consider signing up to spend thirty minutes or more before the Blessed Sacrament in Kelly Hall at Assumption Church on Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to noon. Sign up books for are at the back of each church and in Msgr. Kelly Hall. If you cannot commit to a specific time for a month or two, please consider signing up to be a sub. AND please remember to sign in when you get to adoration. Thank you so much. God will truly bless you in a special way.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Aug. 19, 2019
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Vigil of the Feast of the Assumption and the Wedding of the Sea—August 14th at 4:30

This annual event on August 14th is quickly approaching. A few volunteers are needed to help decorate the church and our patroness, Mary. We will meet in St. Ann Church at 9am on the 14th. Volunteers are also needed to carry banners during the Feast of the Assumption Vigil Mass on August 14th. Banner carriers will carry a banner, showing a mystery of the rosary, into the church during the processional, carry the banner down to the beach for the Wedding of the Sea and rerun it to church after Bishop Sullivan blesses our ocean. 28 volunteers are needed for this task! We will meet in St Ann Church at noon for a quick rehearsal and then again at 3:45 in the back of church. If interested please contact Jude Kelly at 609-972-9051. Thank you.

ASSUMPTION
of the Blessed Mother

Each year, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Camden, serves 34,000 individuals throughout the six southern counties of South Jersey. The agency offers hope and help to the most vulnerable of our brothers and sisters, regardless of their faith, by meeting their basic needs while also guiding them towards paths of self-sufficiency. This includes finding stable and affordable housing for those who are facing homelessness and assisting those who suffering from mental illness, addiction, or facing other crises. Catholic Charities provides counseling and case management, hosts employment fairs, educational workshops, and other events for those in need. Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: Is there a difference between Hallelujah and Alleluia? If not why are they spelled differently?

Answer: Both words are the same. Hallelujah is a Hebrew word (Hallal, Praise) + (Yah, The Lord). Hence, Hallelujah means "Praise the Lord". But the exact way that Hebrew letters are transliterated into English and other languages has varied a bit over time. Perhaps most influential is the fact that the Greek New Testament rendered the Hebrew word Hallelujah as allelouia. And since Greek is generally more influential in English spellings than Hebrew, many English translations render the word as Alleluia.

However, not an insubstantial number of English translators have preferred over the centuries, especially when translating the Old Testament Hebrew to render the term Hallelujah. Some translators will use Hallelujah for the Old Testament and Alleluia for the New Testament. Music has also influenced the decision over which spelling to use since some of the famous compositions from the Baroque period such as Messiah used the spelling Hallelujah that was more common in earlier English translations.

At the end of the day, it is the same word, just with different spellings.
