Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Message from Mary Vey, Administrative Assistant

Dear Parishioner,

This week we celebrate All Saints and All Souls Day. They are related but two separate celebrations. All Saints Day is a holy day of obligation dedicated to all those who have entered heaven including the saints of the Church. On this day there is a renewed call for us to live as saints.

November 2, All Souls Day, is not a holy day of obligation. On All Souls Day we speak of all souls and ask God's mercy for them. Prayers are offered for those who are waiting to get into heaven. This feast presumes that some who die are not cleansed of their sin, therefore are barred from immediate access to heaven. As Catholics we believe that purgatory is a temporary place and the length of time spent there is dependent on the seriousness of one's sins.

It is on this day that the Book of the Dead is opened to allow parishioners to write the names of relatives to be remembered. To remember the departed many cultures prepare meals for the souls of the dead, light candles or leave flowers on relatives' graves and some anoint tombstones with holy water.

In Latin American countries & communities, All Souls Day celebrations are often tied to Dia de Muertos or "the Day of the Dead." Celebrations are elaborate and joyful with those participating in costume parades and visits to cemeteries. Some families create altars inside their homes to remember their departed relatives.

The Book of the Dead will be displayed in both churches so that you may enter loved ones who have died this past year. The book will remain in the Church for the entire month of November.

On Sunday, November 3 at the 10:30am mass at St Ann Church, the parish will have its All Souls Remembrance Mass. You are invited to bring a picture of a deceased loved one and place it on the steps of the altar before Mass begins.

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.
Amen

Blessings and Peace to All,

Mary Vey

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT: Notre Dame de la Mer Parish is excited to announce the start of rehearsals for this year's Christmas Pageant! The pageant will be held on Sunday December 15th at 6:00pm, as the finale to "A Prelude to Christmas" concert. All children from kindergarten through eighth grades are invited to take part in bringing the Holy Nativity to life. Rehearsals will begin on Thursday, November 7th at 4:00pm in Saint Ann Church. Permission slips can be found at the welcome centers in both churches and in the parish office. If you are interested in sharing your time and talents in any way, including but not limited to: sewing costumes, gathering props, set design or organization please see/call Cassandra Wallach at 609-827-3360 or email at cassandrawallach@gmail.com.

Stewardship

November 3, 2019
31st Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewardship Sharing

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" LUKE 19:8

We are all called in Stewardship to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Nov. 18, 2019

*(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall*

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Sit down as a household and talk about those people whom you consider least welcome in your house. Are they people against whom you have a prejudice? Neighbors whom you don't like? Family members against whom you hold a grudge? Of others? Choose one name from this list and plan how to reconcile.
- Invite family members to make special "welcome" placements for a simple supper you make. Invite people whom you know but haven't seen in a while to come to supper and share with them.
- Read the newspaper together to see who in your community is rejected and hated, including prisoners, immigrants, and others. Become more aware of these people and if possible, help them feel welcome.

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: Who are the main patriarchs in the bible?

Answer: In the Old Testament narratives, there are three primary figures who are involved over and over again. These figures are known as the "patriarchs" of both Judaism and Christianity, and were among the first to obediently follow God's will.

- The first patriarch is Abraham, whose faith in God is exalted throughout the Bible. God said to him, "No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations" (Genesis 17:5).
- The second patriarch is Isaac, the son of Abraham. Isaac freely accepted his fate as a sacrifice to God and carried the wood that would have fueled the fire beneath him. Yet, God spared him because of Abraham's faithful obedience and blessed him with children.
- The third patriarch is Jacob (Israel), the son of Isaac. He was blessed by his father over his twin Esau, and would go on to become the father of 12 tribes, eventually forming the nation of Israel.

When God revealed himself to Moses, he invoked these patriarchs to help identify who he was. And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. (Exodus 3:6) Jesus repeatedly invoked the patriarchs, as did early Christians. Both tried to assure the Jewish people that Jesus was the same God as the God of the patriarchs.

The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. (Acts 3:13) The stories of the patriarchs are important to know, and recall the rich patrimony of the Christian faith that extends thousands of years into the past.

ATTENTION ALL PREP FAMILIES Notre Dame de la Mer Parish will hold its Fall Family Fest on Sunday, Nov.10 and Monday Nov.11 at EEC (former St. Ann School) 530-7:30 p.m. Dinner will be followed by a brief lesson and closing prayer service. Please indicate which night you will attend and the number of adults and children coming. Seating each night is limited, so please respond by November 7th. 609-522-2709 ext 218

BUILDING the KINGDOM of GOD TOGETHER

What's My Name?

The #WHATSMYNAME Movement asks everyone to simply ask drivers "What's my name?" before entering their vehicle to make sure it is the car they are supposed to enter.
