Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Message from Deacon Nick Danze, Pastoral Associate

Dear parishioners,

We make comparisons all the time, don't we? --- Especially at this time of the year. We declare our favorite books and music. Some even rank the people who have had the greatest impact (positive or negative) on the world over the previous twelve months. Some of us even rate the presents we get for Christmas. (THAT was the BEST GIFT EVER.)

For whatever reason, we seem to like making these sorts of judgments, and comparisons, and lists. Many of us have a BEST friend, a FAVORITE restaurant, a FAVORITE beer or wine. And of course, some of us have been fortunate enough to find that special person. And when that happens --- there is no comparison. It's not just that he or she is a little better than all others, but rather is in a whole different category. There is our SPECIAL PERSON and then there is everyone else. And there is a wide gap in-between.

Of course, nowhere does this apply more completely than when we stop and consider our relationship to God. Simply put --- reality is made up of really only two things --- God and everything else.

You see, the "gap" between God and us certainly may seem to be just too great. The fact is, God is God and we are not. Indeed, life with, in, and for God (in this life and the next) is all that matters. And because of Jesus, we no longer ever need feel that God is far away. Or that God doesn't care. Or that God has turned his back on us. Or that God demands perfection from us OR ELSE.

No --- our loving and merciful God has given us the greatest treasure in the person of Jesus --- in his words, in his deeds, in his example, in his laying down of his life for our sake and the sake of the whole world. And it doesn't matter how "successful" (or lack thereof) we appear from the outside.

It doesn't really matter how others perceive us, or whether others think we are special.

All that matters is whether or not God is alive and well within us, helping us be a little more like him, made possible because he became like us. Imagine that.

My friends, our challenge this Advent is to keep vigilant, keep preparing well these last ten days to allow God to born in us once again --- in new ways and for new purposes.

And come Christmas morning, let's be ready to say (and mean it) --- Best gift ever!

In His Peace!

Deacon Nick

Stewardship

December 15, 2019

3rd Sunday of Advent

Stewardship Prayer

"You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand."

JAMES 5:8

Patience is another one of those things many of us struggle with. We want things to go according to our plan and our schedule. Any change brings anxiety and fear. Through Stewardship prayer, we better align ourselves with God's will and His plan, which is far better than anything we can come up with on our own.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. GIVING TREES

Once again Notre Dame de la Mer is partnering with The Lynch who Stole Christmas from the Grinch program. Over the years this wonderful organization has made Christmas memorable to over 6000 children. All gifts are given to needy children in our local community. The trees will be up from the first Sunday of Advent, December 1, through the third Sunday of Advent, December 15. Take an angel or two off the tree for a child between the ages of 6-17. Please purchase toys, games, crafts or sports equipment (no clothing), attach the tag and place the unwrapped gift under the tree by December 15. You may also bring gifts to the parish concert on December 15 at St. Ann (6PM). Thank you in advance for your generosity. Any questions, contact the parish office.

Last year our Parish really helped the program reach new levels!!

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

3rd Sunday in Advent

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Discuss with your family what it means to live as a follower of Jesus in the world today. Using the newspaper, discuss for each major story how a Christian would respond. What would Jesus do in each situation?
- Prepare for Christmas by talking together about family members who have been influential in your lives. Go through the family album and point out pictures of people who are good role models of Christian living. Tell their stories to your family. Discuss which of them has brought the light of Christ into your lives this year.
- Take an amaryllis bulb to a homebound person or a nursing home resident. Visit the person often during the Advent season, and together watch the plant grow and bloom for Christmas. You and the flower will both be signs of God's reign of love in our midst.

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: What are 4 Things Mary Taught Us During the First Advent (each week of Advent will contain a new teaching)

Answer: Advent is a time when we prepare our hearts to welcome Jesus. Although we observe this holy season every year, the question remains baffling: How can we adequately prepare for our Messiah, for the Word made Flesh who came into the world to save us? It's a tall order, and we know that even the best preparation is only a pittance compared to what Jesus has done and continues to do for us.

The good news is that God can do amazing things with our pittance. When we approach Advent with faith, hope, and repentance, we can work toward making straight the path of the Lord (John 1:23). Plus, God has given us a wonderful model of the Blessed Virgin Mary to prepare for Jesus. During that first Advent before the birth of Jesus, Mary prepared with unmatched faith, grace, and love. Here are four things we can learn from her actions during the first Advent.

Teaching 3: Glorify God in all you do.

Mary also taught us a great lesson about humility that first Advent. It would no doubt be tempting to puff yourself up a bit if you have just been given the news that you are to become the Mother of God. But Mary did just the opposite. She recognized that it was God who was working in her. Her understanding and sentiments are clear in the beautiful prayer of the Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55), when she said, "My soul magnifies the Lord" (Luke 1:46), and went on to proclaim, "For the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name" (Luke 1:49), and to praise all his works.

INCLEMENT WEATHER INFORMATION for NDDLM Daily Mass and Business Office

Keeping you safe is our main concern! Please do not take chances that are not necessary. In order to accomplish this we ask that you please follow the procedure below when weather is not favorable in the morning to attend Mass or come into the Business Office

Please refer to radio, television, or social media to see if Cape Trinity Catholic School or Wildwood Catholic High School is closed - if the schools are closed due to weather there will be no daily morning mass.....also the Parish Office would probably be closed.

In the event of inclement weather on the week-ends, masses will be determined at that time.
