Letter from Father Wallace

Dear Parishioner,

Christmas blessings to you all! This is the second most important day in the Church year, second only to Easter itself.

It is the feast of the Incarnation, the feast of God becoming flesh (the Latin "in carne" means "enfleshment"). It is one of the central distinguishing teachings of Christianity that separates us from all other world religions. We believe that the Divine chose to become a human being, share our nature in every way. Cloaked in mystery is our belief that the all-powerful and eternal became time bound and subject to weakness. In theological terms in the birth of Christ, God is both Transcendent (beyond our existence) and wholly Immanent (completely present), God with us!

Every time we gather around the table of the Lord to celebrate the Eucharist is like a mini-Christmas, where the bread and wine are transformed into His flesh, His Body and Blood, and, in a sense, He is born anew on the altar.

The priests, sisters and parish staff wish all of you a most Blessed Christmas! May the joy of this season fill your hearts with happiness, peace and good will. Having received the gift of Christ, we naturally want to pass that gift along to others. I am thankful for all your gifts and how you all so generously give of yourselves in numerous ways to building up of God's Kingdom here in the Wildwoods! You and all your intentions will be remembered at all our Christmas Masses.

Merry Christmas,
Fr. Wallace
