Letter From Sister Rosaline Walters

Dear Friends,

Following Vatican II, the Sunday Gospels were revised into a three year cycle: year A - Matthew; year B - Mark and year C - Luke; and the Gospel of John is read on certain Sundays throughout the three years. Luke highlights the Christ of mercy who reaches out to the poor, the outcasts, foreigners and women - much as we have heard and read from Pope Francis.

Our Old Testament reading for today is Ezra's explanation of God's covenant and Law to the Israelites. The people heard the word of God, revered it and went home to celebrate it. In our gospel, today, Jesus; like Ezra, picks up the scroll and reads the word of God. And, St. Paul reminds us that through Jesus we have been made one with God. Today, the Liturgy of the Word consists of a reading (from the Old Testament), a Psalm (the prayer), and another two readings. The 1st reading uses the term Law which referred to all of God's revelations to the Jews. It not only included rules and regulations; but also the wonderful stories of God's revelation to the Jews through scripture.

Today, the words of God and Francis, our Pope, challenge us not to compare ourselves with others. Rather to recognize that God has given each of us different gifts. Therefore, we should be concerned about trying to be faithful to the grace God gives us each day.

Our Gospel, today, leads us to the basic fact that we, as Christians have a distinct obligation to practice social justice - have we ignored this message? We are to help the poor, the imprisoned, the captive and the physically impaired. These are the things Jesus wants us to do, if we are followers of him. Think about your New Year's resolutions (if we are able to remember what they were). And, if not, resolve, right now, to follow the Lord's command to help others - to make "social justice" a reality in the Wildwoods. So, that one day, we might experience Jesus saying to us: "Come to me, all who labor and find life a heavy burden... You will find rest for your souls." And again, the various gospel stories such as the Good Shepherd, seeking the lost sheep and carrying it to safety; the cry of the good thief: "Lord, remember me". And, of course Jesus' reply to the murderer crucified beside him on Calvary: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." Thus we find a gentle, patient, forgiving, understanding and sympathetic Jesus.

Are we, a people, who doesn't understand what Christianity is all about? Are we of the mind that Christianity is all about sin and judgment, heaven and hell; and that God is a heavenly policeman watching our movements, writing down all our sins, and waiting to condemn us to hell. Please adjust your thinking and see our God as loving and merciful and without punishment and do all we are able to do to practice and promote social justice by "bringing good news to the poor, proclaiming release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the prisoners go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. Reach out to all in need! We should be concerned, not only with saving another's soul, but also their, bodies, their health, their housing and their jobs. Begin by helping others in our parish, especially at Lazarus House Ministry, which was suggested by Father Wallace in last week's letter.

Prayerfully,

Sister Ro

Stewardship

Grateful Stewards

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and Myrrh. ."
Matthew 2:11B

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow all year long. In gratitude for all that we have been given, Christian Stewards are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be the most generous with that one thing that means the most to us.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, January 21, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Christmas Remembrance

We are in the process of replacing many of our old and outdated Christmas decorations. We are asking our parishioners to memorialize the following. We are in need of new artificial Christmas trees and garland for the churches. It is a nice way to remember your loved ones as you look upon the symbols that speak of our joy at the miracle of the Incarnation. Please call the parish office 609-522-2709 x 210, if you are interested in this memorial opportunity!

We are also in need of rose colored vestments, which would be used during the Advent and Lenten Seasons on Gaudete and Laetare Sundays.

Thank you for your consideration and support!
Fr. Wallace

The Wildwood Civic Club is sponsoring a "Dress a Girl Around the World" community work day on January 14, 2017 at noon at the Crescent Court Motel, 26th & Ocean Avenue. In parts of the world where human trafficking is rampant, girls who appear unkempt are especially targeted. We will make a simple dress to be given to a little girl that can change her destiny. The dress shows that she is loved and helps protect her from traffickers. We need donations of fabric and help with cutting and sewing. Any help would be appreciated so we can make as many dresses as possible. Please contact Pat at 729-7073.

Symbolon:

What is it? A program from the Augustinian Institute that explains the Catholic Faith in a stunning video series. The beauty of Catholicism is presented by nationally-known teachers who clearly present the beauty and brilliance of the faith.

Who is it for? Adult Catholics and non-Catholics and those in the RCIA process as well. Symbolon will enhance the knowledge of those who have been long-time Catholic. The programs will explain the faith to those that are not Catholic and it will assist along the walk of oneness in the faith for those who are in the process of becoming Catholic.

How will the program work? A segment of the program will be watched at the start of each session. A group discussion of the segment with starter questions will follow. The segments range from as short as 20 minutes to as long as 44 minutes. The discussion time after the watching of the segment will depend on the topic and the interest of the group attending.
