Stewardship

January 15, 2023 – Stewardship Gifts

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." ISAIAH 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, Stewards have to do what God is calling them to do and I also have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

From the Desk of Kevin Quinn - Parish Administrator

Dear Parishioner,

As we are all probably still working on fulfilling the New Year's Resolution that we made to ourselves a few weeks ago it is fitting that today we heard about a call to action. We often become complacent and tend to think that tomorrow we can change; tomorrow we can get our lives in order; tomorrow we can look for something, or even become something new. There is always an opportunity to examine who and what we are throughout the year. In other words, we have an opportunity at any time to listen to God's call and take action.

In most years, a New Year's Resolution so often crashes and burns before they ever really get started. After the hardships that we all have endured on some level this past year, give yourself a break! After these past few rough years recognize that you are much more prepared to focus on what really matters in 2023! If you have not set a goal...set one. If you have set a resolution and it is failing...set a new one. Perhaps, set a goal by first asking what God's plan might be.

What is the best way to set and accomplish our goals? At any time you can go on the internet and download any number of "resolutions" or "goal setting" ideas to keep you focused on a goal in the year ahead. We have all done it...I have certainly done it. But, ask yourself, is that your goal or the goal of someone else? I have realized that my difficulty in setting goals had to do with how I actually defined my goals, not just whether I could stick to them. Very rarely did I stay true to my goal after a just few months.

In the past few years I have found that when I allowed God to infuse my goal-planning with His purpose and direction I had real hope, and better success, in accomplishing those goals. It is true, by seeking His direction, we can marvel at the possibilities of using our time and talents in the way that they were intended. Even the best planned and most well intended resolutions cannot come to fruition if they are not based on God's plan for us...whatever they may be.

I have many roles in life. However, I believe my most important role to be that of husband and father. I have to admit, I realized rather quickly that in order to be successful in that role I was going to need help to be my best. My own conceit and immaturity were certainly going to get in the way. I began to seek this help through prayer and slowly began to understand that I could not forge ahead in pride without consulting with God for direction. I am so thankful that He stepped in and helped me re-align my goals and wants with a focus of becoming the best version of myself...well, most of the time!

I can assure you that God's plans promise to be better than our own. But without seeking the Lord's plans, we face inevitable frustration and disappointment. In order to see the best plans for our lives, we must hold our dreams, goals, and aspirations in the light of God's will.

What are you looking for this year? I encourage you to ask for His help, regardless.

Happy New Year!

Kevin

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

I will make you a light to the nations. To the ends of the earth.

- The first reading from Isaiah is one of a set of songs which portray a “servant of the Lord,” who was commissioned by God to bring salvation and whose suffering would redeem God’s people.
- In today’s passage the servant is called from the womb and commissioned to bring salvation to the nations.
- The Evangelists of the New Testament use the figure of the servant to explain the mission of Jesus.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Grace and peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- The second reading begins Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians, which will be read for the next several weeks.
- Paul describes himself as an Apostle, that is, “one who is sent.”
- Together Paul and the Corinthians form a people “called,” or ecclesia, which we translate as Church.

Gospel : John 1:29-34

Now I have seen for myself.

- The Gospel reading is part of a series of testimonies about the identity of Jesus.
- In today’s reading, John the Baptist identifies Jesus as the Lamb of God and as the Son of God, God’s chosen one.
- The image of the lamb is rooted in the Passover, the deliverance from Egyptian slavery by God’s saving power, during which the Jews sacrificed a lamb and put the blood on the door to commemorate the blood that saved their firstborn from the tenth plague.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Choose your family’s favorite stories about Jesus and read them to the children as bedtime stories.
- Who is Jesus for you? Talk with family members about what each person believes about Jesus and what it means to follow him.
- Gather together and ask each family member to think of one name or title for Jesus. Write the names and titles on a sheet of paper. Discuss what signs in your home indicate that Jesus is the center of your household.
- To focus on Jesus’ identity, spend an evening or a Saturday helping the members of your family put on a play or put together a puppet show about Jesus. Later, invite relatives or friends to watch the show.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

INFANT OF PRAGUE - JANUARY 14: FEAST DAY

For years Alice Callahan, quietly, lovingly, and faithfully looked after the beautiful statue of the Infant of Prague in His respected place to the right of St Joseph altar in the Church of the Assumption. Any one knowing the history and devotion to the infant knows of the reverent custom of clothing Him with a special liturgical wardrobe that changes all the time. This was Alice’s special project which she undertook with great reverence and devotion. Through the years circumstances and reluctant relocations for Alice changed much, -not only for Alice - but for the Infant too.... but...God always acts “In His time.”.

Through their thoughtfulness for Alice and for the Infant, their creativity, talent, tender loving care, and extreme carefulness of accurate research , one of our “ 50 + year honeymoon couples”, Carolyn and George Miller have given the Infant of Prague a complete outward make over, and for us, hopefully, a spiritual reawakening of the Infant’s presence in our church by a renewed personal devotion to Him.

Both George and Carolyn researched the Infant’s history, devotional evolution, and wardrobe garb. George’s painting expertise, talent, and patience refreshed the statue’s physical appearance. Through Carolyn’s energies, sewing skills, and mere inner joy, she made Him a full Liturgical wardrobe held together by stitches of prayers, sacrifice, and conversations with the Lord .

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

“Y ahora dice el Señor, que desde el seno materno me formó para que fuera yo su siervo...” ISAÍAS 49:5

Dios nos da diferentes dones a cada uno de nosotros. Para que el plan de Dios funcione, usted tiene que hacer lo que Dios lo llamó a hacer y yo tengo que hacer lo que Dios me llamó a hacer a mí. ¿Y adivina qué? ¡Dios tiene un plan diferente para cada uno de nosotros! Así que deje de compararse con los demás. No deje que la envidia y los celos entren en su vida. De gracias por los dones que Dios le ha dado y transformese en el santo que Dios lo está llamando a ser.

Nuestra Señora de Juquila, ruega por nosotros para que este año sea uno de paz y salud!
