Stewardship

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time
Stewardship Life

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” - 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God’s plan? How are you helping to build God’s kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don’t do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the Stewardship life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Dear Friends in Christ,

“Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace.” These words were spoken by Jesus when He healed a woman who was considered “unclean” by the Jewish Community. According to the Gospel, she had spent a great deal of time and money trying to be cured and all she had to do was touch Jesus and she was immediately set free.

Though I have known that story for years, I was completely overwhelmed watching that scene in The Chosen. In that moment, when Jesus called her “Daughter,” I realized I was His daughter! I cannot adequately describe how I felt. At that moment, my heart was full in the knowledge that He loves me unconditionally and He would never abandon me. As I had indicated previously, I had a difficult childhood and because of that, I felt no one, no one, no matter who it was, could love me enough. As a child, when you are traumatized, it is life-altering. In my mind, I have always known He loves me unconditionally, but I do not think I ever really felt it in my heart until that moment. I realized that despite my many sins and weaknesses, He has always loved me and has always been with me. All I needed to do was invite Him in, give Him control and love Him as He loves me, make Him the center of my life and have faith in Him.

When I first converted to Catholicism, I was filled with such peace, love and joy. However, eventually I allowed life to get in the way. I recently told a friend I wanted to feel that way again and, though, it’s a journey and, like most of us, I want instant gratification; I am learning I need to be patient. I need to trust that God is in control and when he speaks to me, it is in His time. I need to have faith in His love for me and know that He forgives me. I need to know that when I fall, He’ll pick me up. All I need to do is ask. Whenever I feel alone, disappointed in myself, life events, or another person, I try to remember how much He loves me. I ask Him to wrap His loving arms around me and guide me. He is my Father and when I spend time with Him, my heart is full, and my life is complete. What else do I need?

The world we live in can be challenging and at times frightening. I feel safe when I put my faith in His wisdom and trust that I am not in control. What a joy it is to know that we are all His children. We are loved unconditionally. There are no strings attached. We are sinners and He forgives us every time and He will never abandon us. I know I want to have the same faith as the “unclean woman.” After suffering for years, she had faith and just simply touched His clothing and was healed, in His time.

May God Bless You!

Sharon Mattia

A BIG THANK YOU to all of the Men, Women, WCA Students, and our Knights that helped take down the Christmas Decorations at St. Ann Church and Assumption Church after mass and during the week. It is a large undertaking and we couldn't do it with out you.

Thank you to Jon and Donnamarie as well those that helped organize at each church for their leadership.

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Isaiah 62:1-5

God rejoices over you.

- The first reading from Isaiah compares the renewed city of Jerusalem to a radiant bride of the Lord.
- The image of marriage was often used to describe God's covenant relationship with the people.
- In today's passage, this image was designed to hearten the discouraged Jewish people as they attempted to rebuild their city.

Reading II : 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

One Spirit gives different gifts to each.

- In the second reading Paul reminds the Corinthians that they should use their spiritual gifts with order and reverence.
- The gifts are from one Spirit and will build the Christian community into one body.
- The presence and the generous sharing of these gifts are signs of the messianic age, the glorious wedding feast of God's kingdom.

Gospel : John 2:1-11

Jesus' first miracle at a wedding in Cana.

- Today's reading is the first miracle story in the Gospel of John.
- Throughout John's Gospel, Jesus' "hour" referred to the combined moments of his passion, death, resurrection and ascension.
- At the wedding in Cana, Jesus responds to his mother's request by performing a miracle to symbolize that hour.

Saint of the Week:

Anthony the Abbot (of Egypt), Ascetic (251-356)

Anthony lived in an out-of-the-way place, a desert in Egypt, where he spent his time in prayer and meditation on the mysteries of God. When people came to him for wisdom, he reminded them that faith is not something to be proved but it is a gift which comes to us from God. His life of fasting and prayer was an example for many. "If you think me wise," he once said, "become what I am, for we ought to imitate the good... become what I am, for I am a Christian." Anthony reminds us to pay attention to what God wants in our lives. He followed the inner promptings of the Holy Spirit into the monastery. Like him, we must also listen carefully and follow God's will.

Feast Day: January 17

Prayer: Saint Anthony, you heroically embraced the unique vocation you were given by God. You entered into silence and solitude so as to enter more deeply into communion with the Triune God. Please pray for me, that I will learn from your life of prayer and always spend time seeking God in the solitude of prayer each and every day. Saint Anthony, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
