Stewardship

January 21, 2024

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Good Stewardship

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - MARK 1:17

Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good Stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule, but that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Donnamarie Sexton, Parish Catechetical Leader

Dear Friends,

In this week's gospel, we hear how Jesus began to choose his apostles. These men would become his closest friends over the next three years. The group that Jesus chose was a motley group indeed with a variety of personalities! Just to name a few... Peter, the outspoken one; James and John, short on patience and nicknamed the “sons of thunder,”. There was Matthew, the former tax collector, considered a traitor to the Jews since tax collectors worked for the Romans. There was Simon the Zealot who was a rebel at heart. And, we cannot forget Judas, who would eventually betray him. Even though Jesus was God in the flesh, he was like us in all things except sin. It must have hurt Jesus terribly when Peter denied him, his apostles abandoned him and Judas betrayed him. Just like he hurts when we do these things.

All through the Gospels, these 12 were not stellar followers. They were slow to grasp Jesus' message; they were impatient with Jesus; they had their own agendas; they argued among themselves. We can only imagine how frustrating it must have been for Jesus to put up with some of their antics. Yet these were the ones he picked. And, in the end, these men would become heroes. In time, they would realize they could do nothing but open themselves up to the resurrection and the power of the Spirit at Pentecost.

Learning about the apostles brings me great joy because I realize they started no better than you or me. If you would like to learn more about the apostles and the life of Jesus watch “The Chosen”. It is a historical drama based on the life of Jesus and those who knew him. They were ordinary men who became extraordinary disciples of Jesus. Which means if we put our minds to it, we could do the same. Becoming an extraordinary disciple of Jesus is not a difficult task. God puts choices and opportunities in front of us daily. We just need to take the next right step.

Our parish is offering two such opportunities for Lent. There is no better time to enhance your faith than the Season of Lent. For the second year in a row, we will have a 40-hour Devotion to the Eucharist beginning Sunday, February 11. Please consider signing up for a quiet hour with the Lord, you will not regret it. Stay tuned for more information coming soon. We are also doing a biblical walk through the last hours of Jesus' life. Filmed on location in the Holy Land, No Greater Love is a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ's life. You will walk step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary. Experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for you—grow closer to Jesus than you ever have before. See the bulletin for more information on each.

I will hold two sessions for No Greater Love. Both will begin with an information session. This will be Tuesday evening 2/13/24 in Kelly Hall at 6:30 pm or Wednesday at 11:00 am. Please let me know ASAP if you want a book. You may join us even if you do not want to purchase a book. I will be ordering books for both sessions on 1/31/24 to ensure they are here in time. I look forward to seeing you at one of these sessions.

God Bless,
Donnamarie Sexton

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

They believed in God and proclaimed a fast.

- The story told in the Book of Jonah illustrates the power of God's mercy and the possibility of conversion for all people.
- Jonah had trouble believing that God wanted him to preach to the people of Nineveh because they were Gentiles.
- After Jonah is rescued from the belly of a great fish, he preaches God's message of repentance to the people of Nineveh and they respond fully.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

The time is short.

- Early in his ministry, Paul expected the second coming of Jesus at any moment.
- Paul points out in today's reading that happiness and security can not be found in material things.
- All other things are subordinate to life in Jesus.

Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Come, follow me.

- Mark's Gospel reveals Jesus to be the fulfillment of the promised Messiah.
- Jesus is the Good News.
- In today's passage, the first disciples respond immediately to Jesus call to have faith in the good news

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- What can your family do this week to show others that you believe in the Good News?
- As a family, read stories of saints who showed their belief in the Good News. Discuss: How were the lives of others affected by this person's faith in Jesus?
- Jesus calls us to be fishers of people. If you were going to catch people for Jesus, what kind of bait would you need?
- As a family, make a list of ways each individual's life and your family life is influenced by your faith in Jesus. After brainstorming the list, talk about a few of the items. Finally, decide on one thing your family will do this week to put into practice the faith you share.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

St Ann: Members of the Parish

Assumption: Members of the Parish

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be February 19th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

GROUP MEETINGS

Mary, Refuge of Sinners Prayer Group Wednesday after the 8:30 AM in St Joseph's Room at Assumption.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

Contact Chuck Mirarchi at 215-284-2942 or cpmvp1@gmail.com

NDDLM has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues we as Catholic men are confronted with. We try to know better what is the Eucharist, why we love Mary, why we confess our sins and who are the apostles and who are the Saints?

"Men please join us, as we begin 2024 with dynamic, enriching and mind blowing discussions this January. We will have a discussion presented by Father Mazzarella on the Holy Spirit. Later in the month we are going to dive deep into purgatory and watch a video and a discussion led by Joe Flood Junior. Stay tuned and keep reading the bulletin as we add to our following months discussions.

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and law enforcement. For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 1-800-964-6588

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends

Pope John Paul II said "I place much of my hope for the future of marriage in Worldwide Marriage Encounter. Worldwide Marriage Encounter is being supported by Bishop Sullivan for support of Catholic married couples. Please put this in your church bulletin on Sunday:

WHEN ALL THE HUSTLE-BUSTLE OF THE HOLIDAYS ARE OVER..... Don't you and your spouse deserve a beautiful, romantic weekend away together? If you agree then you'll want to attend a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend.

The next weekend date is Mar 15-17, 2024.
