Stewardship

January 22, 2023 – Stewardship Gifts
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him.” MATTHEW 4:22

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of his Stewards to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. In gratitude to God, we should give our first and best of everything to Him: our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

JESUS BEGINS HIS MINISTRY

MT 4:12-23

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In Matthew's Gospel we learn that John the Baptist has been arrested by Herod Antipas for calling out the King's illicit marriage to his niece. John's arrest effectively ends his mission of preparing the way of the Lord and prompts Jesus to begin his own ministry - God's plan, since the beginning of time, for the salvation of humankind. Ironically, the immortal Son of God knows that the time he has to bring to fulfillment our unmerited redemption is very short, indeed. And so, Jesus, our Lord and savior, becomes a man of action:

*He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea,
in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,
that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet
might be fulfilled:*

*Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,
the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light,
on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death
light has arisen.*

*From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say,
"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."*

As His disciples, my sisters and brothers, WE must follow Jesus' example and participate in His radical plan for our good (that is, the Beatitudes). WE must be people of action in our faith journey, not merely spectators to God's merciful designs. Let us take inventory of our God-given gifts and pay them forward. The Corporal Works of Mercy are always a good place to start if we are wondering how we can exercise our spiritual muscle.

I have long pondered a bumper sticker I once read when I was stuck in traffic: "If they arrested you for being a Christian and dragged you into court, would they have enough evidence to convict you?" By God's grace our prayer should be to say "Guilty as charged! Amen!"

Peace & blessings,

Deacon Rich Roenbeck

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 8:23-9:3

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

- In the first reading, Isaiah preaches to people who are discouraged by war and oppression.
- Among the first regions taken in the war were three sections of the northern Kingdom.
- The prophet promises that God will again restore the land.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

Let there be no factions among you.

- In today's second reading Paul gives his reaction to the divisions among the Corinthians.
- The factions in the Corinthian church were dividing Christ's Body.
- Paul insists that through Baptism all become members of one body, the Body of Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

Come with me.

- Because a majority of Matthew's audience seems to have been Jewish Christians, the passage from Isaiah is used in today's Gospel to explain the fact that Jesus' ministry began in Galilee, not Jerusalem.
- The substance of Jesus' preaching is summarized, "Repent, for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand."
- Jesus' preaching calls for a radical change, the old way of living must be abandoned and a new way embraced.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Take time as a family to look through the Gospels and list the names of followers of Jesus on a sheet of paper. Discuss how these figures inspire you to follow Jesus today.
- Discuss these questions: How does Jesus call you? How do you follow?
- With the family, discuss problems that are present in the community (vandalism, drug abuse, disrespect, racism, discrimination). Find ways that you as a Christian family can address these problems. Choose one and discuss what you can do to bring about a change with that problem. Spend time in prayer concerning your choice.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Angela Merici, Religious and Virgin, 1470-1540

Angela Merici was orphaned at the age of ten and, together with an older sister and a younger brother, was raised by an uncle. As a teenager, Angela became a member of the Third Order of St. Francis and lived a life of great austerity. She gave up all her possessions and lived almost entirely on bread and water.

When Angela was twenty-two, her uncle died and she returned to her home town of Desenzano, in Lombardy (Italy). Appalled at the ignorance among poorer children, she recognized a greater calling than the quiet contemplative life. With other members of the Third Order, she began bringing the little girls of her neighborhood together on a regular basis for instruction in religion and in the basic skills of running a household. This proved to be so successful that Angela was asked to open a school in Brescia where she gained a reputation for her charity and saintliness.

In 1533, Angela brought together a number of the young women who had been helping in her schools and began an informal novitiate. Two years later, she founded the first teaching order of women in the church, called the Company of St. Ursula, who was the patroness of medieval universities and venerated as a leader among women. This order is today called the Ursuline order.

The sisters met together for classes and for worship. Because the idea of a teaching order of nuns was so novel, this group did not live in a community or seclude themselves as did most other orders of nuns. Though the early rule prescribed poverty, chastity, and obedience, the members continued to live at home, wore no special habit, and took no formal vows.

The Ursuline order was dedicated to re-Christianizing family life by giving future wives and mothers a solid Christian education. Even today, the work of the Ursuline nuns stresses religious education for girls, especially the poor.

Angela's message today: Angela recognized and met a need in the Church of her time—that of educating young girls in their faith as well as in running a household. Today, Catholic schools and parish Faith Formation programs provide an opportunity for all children (as well as their parents) to be educated in the faith. Every parish has a faith formation program for its young people.

How could you contribute your talents to the success of this program?

Traveling Statues of Mary

Both of our worship sights now have a statue of Mary that we would like our parishioners to take home to pray with.

St. Ann's Church will be featuring Our Lady of Fatima, take her home to pray for peace.
Assumption Church will be featuring Our Lady of Lourdes, take her home to pray for healing.

Please call the office 609-522-2709 and schedule the statue to visit with you in your home. Drop off and pick up will be in the sacristy of each church after the Sunday morning mass.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be February 20th at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

Faith-Filled Events

Has your child completed their 6 Faith-Filled Events?

Check out the Liturgy Corner of our bulletin or some of these websites for ideas:

Familybiblechallenge.org

Bustedhalo.com

Dynamic catholic.com

Lifelongcatechesis.osv.com

You can turn anything you do into a Faith-Filled
Event by inviting God to join you through prayer!

Faith-filled movie night is also a great idea.

God is not dead, Miracles from Heaven,
Heaven is for real, I can only imagine.

The Chosen Series.... Can be all of your events!
