Message From Deacon Nick Danze, Pastoral Associate

My Dear friends,

“Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.”

Yes, today, dear friends. Right here, right now, in your hearing. Jesus is still speaking these same words.

To whom is the Christ sent? Our text tells us: “To the poor.”... “To the captives.”... “To the blind.” ...To “those who are oppressed.”

So now the question becomes: Do you qualify? Do you fit these categories?

Yes, you and I do, whether we realize it or not... Whether we admit it or not. That’s us. My hope and prayer is that we do admit it, that we do realize it, or else we will not be ready to receive the Messiah’s help.

My friends, by nature we are poor. For sure some of us do not have much money to start with, but even if you do, you can’t take it with you. Earthly treasures will do you no good as you lie on your deathbed.

The captives... “Fast bound in Satan’s chains I lay; death brooded darkly o’er me.” Indeed, that is our condition by nature. You see, Man is not able to set himself free from this captivity to sin, no matter how hard we try or how nice of a person we are.

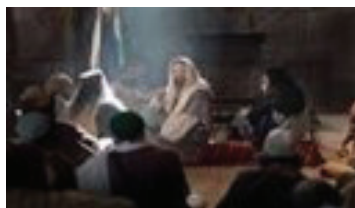

The blind... Without the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit, we are all spiritually blind, groping around in the dark, not knowing who God is or how to reach him, straying off the path that leads to life.

Those who are oppressed. Truth be told, Sin presses hard against us every day. The devil won’t leave us alone. The world whispers its sweet nothings, and its tempting messages, into our ears. Our own sinful flesh rises up, and our selfish desires drown out the sound of God’s voice. This is the battle we are in and it won’t end until we reach the land of rest.

So I’d say we need help. I know I do. How about you? I’ll ask you again: Do you qualify? Are you that sinner in need of help? Do you sense it? Do you feel it? If so, I’ve got good news for you. We are the people for whom Jesus came! This is why he was sent. This is what he was anointed to do. This is why Jesus can take the scroll of Isaiah and read it and say, “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

In HIS Peace!

Deacon Nick

Stewardship

January 27, 2019

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewards are Grateful

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared..." (NEHEMIAH 8:10)

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us as Stewards to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need without expecting anything in return.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Still in search of anyone interested in offering their TIME to help us keep our beautiful worship sites clean.

Can you help?...give the parish office a call. Our devoted teams need your help once a week

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Jesus is present in Sacred Scripture. Make a special place of honor for your family Bible. Let it become a reminder to the family of Jesus' presence. Family members can take turns during the week reading a favorite Scripture passage before the evening meal.
- Gather the family together and light a candle. Allow time for each family member to reflect on a time when he or she felt Jesus' presence in a special way. Have each person tell about the experience.
- Take out pictures from your family photo album and give one picture to each family member. Share the family stories in the pictures. Talk about how Jesus is present in the life and love that you share as a family.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Feb 18 2019

*(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall*
