Stewardship

January 29, 2023 – Stewards Deny Self
4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” MATTHEW 5:3

The phrase “poor in spirit” can be confusing. Think of it in this sense – poor in spirit means depending on God’s providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthly things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Stewardship is denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year! I hope this New Year brings you all much health and happiness. It is so exciting to begin a New Year, there are many new beginnings and brand new possibilities to look forward to.

Here at Wildwood Catholic Academy and Notre Dame De Le Mer parish we are looking forward to all this new year will be bringing to our school and our parish! We had our Winter Star Assessments, celebrated Martin Luther King Day with our 4th grade students doing "I have A Dream Too" speeches, our school sports teams are under way and excelling, we will be having midterms and finally at the end of this month, we will be Celebrating Catholic Schools Week. What a way to celebrate Catholic Education and being a Catholic.

Catholic Schools Week is a great opportunity to recognize the value, principals and contributions Catholic Schools have relayed to the Church, parishioners and community members for decades. Education has always been a vital part of decision making for every family, therefore with the celebration of Catholic Schools week, families can have a glimpse of the excellent standards, values, programs, and teachings Catholic Schools can offer. The Mission statement at Notre Dame De Le Mer is "The Love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace ALL God's children" Here at Wildwood Catholic Academy I believe we live that every day and we offer the young people of our parish and beyond a high-quality education with a firm religious foundation and a close relationship with God our Father and Jesus Christ. We also offer our students, community members and our parishioners a chance to flourish in their relationship with God in community service, random acts of kindness and specific holy moments.

You might ask, what is a Holy Moment? A Holy Moment is a single moment in which you open yourself up to God. You make yourself available to him. You set aside personal preference and self-interests and for one perfect moment you do what you prayerfully believe God is telling you to do. What a profoundly, simple, astonishingly practical, life-changing concept.

As our Pre K 4 students put it "Gods love warms us". We here at Wildwood Catholic pray that every day for our students, faculty, clergy, community and parishioners. I want to thank all our parishioners for your continued prayers and support as we embark upon this New Year. I also wish all of you many HOLY MOMENTS!

Thank You and God Bless You,

Anna Ruffo-Rygalski

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13

Seek justice. Seek humility.

- In the First Reading, Zephaniah announces that the humble of the earth will find shelter on the Day of the Lord.
- The prophet Zephaniah preached at a time of great turmoil.
- This reading asserts that the humble and lowly are the hope for the future.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31

God chose those whom the world considers absurd.

- In 1 Corinthians, Paul tries to convince the Corinthians that their significance comes from God, and that their power is the power of the cross.
- The Corinthians, who accepted the Gospel eagerly, then began to try to outdo each other in importance, even in their Christian faith.
- Paul challenges the Christian community to rely, not on human power, but on God alone.

Gospel : Matthew 5:1-12a

The Beatitudes

- Today's Gospel begins the Sermon on the Mount, a collection of Jesus' sayings describing the qualities of his followers.
- The way righteousness is described in today's reading is through a traditional Hebrew form called Beatitude. Beatitudes simply declare that someone is happy or blest.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- As a family, read the Beatitudes together. Have each family member reflect on one of the Beatitudes that he or she finds most meaningful. Invite each person to share his or her Beatitude out loud. After one of the Beatitudes is shared, everyone prays, "Blessed are you!"
- Discuss the Beatitudes with your child. Help your child find magazine pictures of things that bring happiness to him or her or to the family. Have your child cut out a picture that represents his or her favorite Beatitude.
- Read the Beatitudes and discuss what they mean with your family. Print a different Beatitude each day on a sheet of paper. Each evening discuss how your family can carry out this Beatitude

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Blaise, Bishop and Martyr, c. early 4th Century

Bishop Blaise (sometimes spelled Blase) was martyred around 316 by order of Governor Agricolaus in Sebastea, Armenia, during Licinius' persecution of Christians. That is the only certain knowledge that we have about this saint.

According to legend, Blaise was born in Armenia to wealthy Christian parents and was made a bishop in his youth. He was known as a good bishop who encouraged the spiritual and physical health of his people. When the persecution of Christians began in Armenia, Blaise was forced to flee. He went to live as a hermit in the back country, where he cured wild animals that were sick or wounded.

One day, while seeking animals for the amphitheater, a group of hunters, came across Blaise kneeling in prayer in a cave surrounded by patiently waiting wolves, lions, and bears. Recognizing him as a Christian, the hunters hauled Blaise off to prison. On the way there, a mother came to him with her young son who was choking to death on a fish bone caught in his throat. Blaise cured the boy; thus, he later became the patron and protector of throats. Many Catholics in this country still have their throats blessed on St. Blaise's feast day, February 3.

Blaise's message today: All of God's creatures, great and small, are entitled to our care and compassion. There are many people, young and old, who may not be able to look after their own needs. It is up to us to help them in whatever way we can.

Are you aware of the needs in your own community? What can you do to alleviate the suffering of others?

Traveling Statues of Mary

Both of our worship sights now have a statue of Mary that we would like our parishioners to take home to pray with.

St. Ann's Church will be featuring Our Lady of Fatima, take her home to pray for peace.
Assumption Church will be featuring Our Lady of Lourdes, take her home to pray for healing.

Please call the office 609-522-2709 and schedule the statue to visit with you in your home. Drop off and pick up will be in the sacristy of each church after the Sunday morning

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be February 20th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

Faith-Filled Events

Has your child completed their 6 Faith-Filled Events?

Check out the Liturgy Corner of our bulletin or some of these websites for ideas:

Familybiblechallenge.org

Bustedhalo.com

Dynamic catholic.com

Lifelongcatechesis.osv.com

You can turn anything you do into a Faith-Filled
Event by inviting God to join you through prayer!

Faith-filled movie night is also a great idea.

God is not dead, Miracles from Heaven,
Heaven is for real, I can only imagine.

The Chosen Series.... Can be all of your events!
