Stewardship

January 30, 2022– Stewardship Humility

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous...” (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for Stewardship with humility. Humility helps us become less “self-centered” and become more “God-centered” for the sake of others

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

From the desk of Louise Fourney - WCA - VP Upper Division

Dear Parishioner,

January is a time to reflect on the past and start a new year of resolutions. After looking back, we appreciate all our time spent with family and friends. This includes our Notre Dame de la Mer and Wildwood Catholic Academy families. It is important that we share old memories and begin new memories to last a lifetime.

As we begin our new school year, we reflect on how grateful Wildwood Catholic Academy is for our Notre Dame de la Mer supporters. Our school mission states; "A premier Pre-K-Grade 12 college preparatory school based on gospel values and the promotion of academic excellence. We challenge all to engage in meaningful learning, and to make Christ-like decisions in an environment rich in prayer and service. With the support of our caring community, we aspire to develop students who will serve, lead, and make a positive difference in the world". We see this mission accomplished every day at Wildwood Catholic Academy. Over the holidays, the students made sandwiches for the needy, participated in Mass as sacristans, donations to Lazarus House and gathered "Toys for Tots". This is just a sampling of their Christian acts throughout the year.

Catholic Schools week kicks off the winter season here at Wildwood Catholic Academy. A Catholic's primary focus in life is to seek heaven and to live their God-given mission on earth. Wildwood Catholic Academy offers young people the possibility of a daily encounter with Jesus Christ with the context of a high-quality education. We are thankful for all of the families that send their children to Catholic schools. To those of you who work or volunteer, thank you for sharing your time, talents and Catholic faith with our community. Without you, the ministry of our Catholic schools would not be possible.

These are difficult and unsettling times, times that we call out for a loving and faithful approach. Here at Wildwood Catholic Academy we pray every morning, attend Mass and serve others. We feel the power of your prayers. We are doing all we can to stay safe and healthy and hope you are as well.

May God bless,

Louise Fourney

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

Before you were born, you were known, consecrated and appointed.

- Jeremiah was commissioned as a prophet to speak out against faithlessness and injustice.
- Although his message was unpopular and his task painful, Jeremiah kept at it.
- God promised to remain with Jeremiah and to deliver him in the end.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13

Love is the greatest gift of God.

- In today's beloved passage from 1 Corinthians, Paul tries to persuade his listeners that love is worth more than all other gifts.
- Love always seeks the good of another.
- Paul stresses that love is the touchstone of the mature Christian.

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Jesus was sent for us.

- In today's passage from the Gospel of Luke, Jesus meets with great opposition from the people of his hometown.
- Jesus cites two examples in which prophets left the covenant people and worked miracles for Gentiles.
- The people from Jesus' hometown can not bear the truth that God's Word moves freely anywhere God chooses.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Together as a family, read the second reading for Sunday, 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13, before the evening meal. During the meal, discuss one way your family will show love this week.
- Talk about the problems of injustice that family members see in your community. Talk about what you can do to bring a Christian response to the problems you see. As a family, decide on one thing you can do this week to show God's love to someone in need.
- Make a tree of love to remind your family of the gift of love. Take a branch from a tree and place it in a container of dirt or sand. Have each member of the family make something that represents one of the qualities of love that Paul spoke about in his letter to the Corinthians. While hanging the ornaments on the tree, talk about ways family members can put the qualities of love into action.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Bienvenidos

4o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“El amor es paciente, el amor es bondadoso... No es celoso , ni jactancioso...” (1 Corintios 13:4)

¿Es usted celoso? ¿Se centra más en las cosas que otras personas tienen que en los dones que Dios le ha dado? ¿Es usted jactancioso? ¿Adquiere más bienes para impresionar a los demás? A veces todos somos culpables de estas cosas. Recépidole humildad a Dios. La humildad nos ayuda a ser menos “egocéntricos” y a “centrarnos más en Dios” por el bien de los demás.
