Stewards Pray

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties.” - 1 CORINTHIANS 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word “pray” instead of the word “worry” in the future. Stewards pray for things instead of worrying about them.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden.

Our Parish Goal: $151,786
Total Pledged to Date: $49,473

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Dear Parishioner,

Happy Catholic Schools Week! Every member of Wildwood Catholic Academy is delighted to celebrate its first Catholic Schools Week as a PreK-Grade 12 Academy. We could not have successfully progressed to this point without the prayers and support from the parishioners and leadership of Notre Dame De La Mer. Our teachers, staff, families, and most importantly our students are perpetually grateful.

The theme for this year's Catholic Schools Week is Faith, Excellence, Service. Catholic Schools Week has always been a chance for school to showcase our value. This year is no different even with the given COVID circumstances. Our students' incredible work, both in person and virtual, is a result of receiving a challenging, high-quality academic experience in a supportive environment, with an emphasis on Catholic values at every level and college preparation beginning as early as 9th grade. Our students at Wildwood Catholic Academy are continuing to prove to be self-disciplined life-long learners, enthusiastically accepting responsibility and respecting others.

We are happy to reveal that with the effectiveness, creativity, and flexibility of our staff and the grit of our students, we WILL carry out activities of Catholic Schools Week in a safe manner. Our week will be filled with prayer, service to those who need it in our community, and acknowledgement of the excellence of our students and staff. Our routines and practices have slightly changed but at the core of our educational program our students are achieving academic excellence while making Christ-like decisions in an environment rich in prayer and service.

If there was one word to add to the theme of Catholic Schools Week it must certainly be "Hope." Our students hope to one day return to what they knew as "normal." Until we get there we hope, as a school, to continue to evolve in order to meet and exceed the expectations of our families and our community.

We thank you for your continued support and prayers as we make our first year as a PreK- Grade 12 Academy a truly successful one.

Sincerely,

Joe Cray

Sunday Readings

Reading I : Deuteronomy 18:15-20
I will put my words into your mouth.

- In the Book of Deuteronomy, Moses conveys God's word to the people.
- The promise of God delivered by Moses is that God will raise up another prophet.
- The true prophet will deliver God's word.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35
I want you to be free of all worries.

- Some of the early Christian communities found Paul to be a true prophet.
- The Christians at Corinth apparently wrote to Paul, asking him a series of practical questions about how to live the Christian life.
- The First Letter to the Corinthians is Paul's answer to their questions.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28
He has authority over all creation.

- The Gospels reveal Jesus to be the true prophet, the one who not only brings the word of God but who is the Word of God.
- In the first chapter of the Gospel of Mark, there are several stories illustrating Jesus' authority.
- Today's passage tells of Jesus casting out a demon. The people are amazed because the demon obeys Jesus.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Pour some olive oil, or scented oil in a small bowl. Have family members gather in a circle around the bowl so that they can rub some oil on the hands of the person next to them. As the oil is rubbed on each family member's hand, say: "Whatever is not of Jesus, be healed. May the Spirit of God be with you."
- As a family make a list of people who need Jesus' help. As a family, pray for these people who are in need through the power of Jesus' name and word. List ways your family can take action and bring the healing power of Jesus to others.

Saint of the Week - Agatha, Virgin and Martyr, Third Century

Agatha is another of the early saints about whom most our knowledge is based on legend. She was born in Sicily, either Catania or Palermo, both of which claim her as a patron, and was martyred in Catania, most likely during the persecution of the Roman emperor Decius around the middle of the third century.

Agatha dedicated herself to God and a life of chastity. When she refused the advances of a Roman consul, he denounced her as a Christian and subjected her to torture and indignities to change her mind. But Agatha's continued dedication to God and her calm acceptance of torture only infuriated her captors and they had her tortured and killed.

Sometime after her death, an eruption of Mt. Etna was stilled after the people prayed to St. Agatha for intercession. As a result, people have continued to ask St. Agatha to protect them from fire. She is also a patron of nurses.

Not many of us have to endure torture today, but all of us do bear distressing pain, whether physical, mental, or emotional, from time to time.

Do you accept the sufferings that have come into your life with grace or do you tend to let everyone know that you are suffering?

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date

PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priest in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. AMEN.

Liturgy & Music

Wedding Host Ministry

Wedding hosts and hostesses set up the environment for the wedding celebration in church (placement of the bride and groom chairs, etc.) and greet the wedding party as they arrive for the rehearsal. They assist the Presider in the rehearsal, in some cases lead the rehearsal and answer questions of the bridal party. On the wedding day they greet the bridal party, turn on the lights, prepare the liturgical items, and generally serve as hospitality ministers for the bridal party before and during the wedding celebration. This ministry is an important part of the welcoming mission of Notre Dame de la Mer. Stipends are provided for the wedding host couple.

Time: About 1 1/2 hours for a rehearsal and about 2 hours for the wedding celebration. Wedding hospitality ministers usually serve at about four - five weddings per year.

Contact Jonathan Delgado at the Parish Office if you are willing to help in this important ministry!

Please welcome our new Liturgical Ministers.

May God bless you in your ministry here at Notre Dame de la Mer.
