Message From Donnamarie Black, Parish Catechetical Leader

Dear Friends,

While I have been assisting the children of our parish prepare for their First Reconciliation I am reminded of how much has changed since I received mine. I was taught to fear Confession because you had to admit you were bad and you were given a punishment or Penance to redeem yourself. It was an embarrassing situation, to go to a respected priest who did not sin himself and tell him you are not worthy to receive the Body and Blood of Christ because you committed a SIN! I was ashamed to have fallen into the habit of sin. This mentality pushed me, and I'm sure a lot of other Catholics as well, away from the sacrament.

As a matter of fact we interchanged these words when speak about the sacrament. Saying we were going to Confession or Penance. When in fact the Sacrament itself is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Just the changing of the word makes me feel better. Confession is what you do when you go to the sacrament. You confess your sins and mistakes to the priest. The priest doesn't care what you did wrong. Believe it or not HE is not perfect. The reality is he probable committed a few sins himself. The priest is there as a vessel for God. He becomes Christ's hands, ears and mouth. When we confess to a priest, it is Christ we confess to and it is he who hears us and speaks words of forgiveness through the priest.

After you confess your sins, if time allows, the priest might give you some advice on how to avoid the sins in the future. Listen to what he has to say, this is a friendly conversation not a judgmental one. He will then give you a Penance, not punishment, to do. After our sins are forgiven they still leave an effect on our lives. Though Penance we gain strength to overcome temptations and become open to God's grace. Next you promise to do better and ask for forgiveness by saying an Act of Contrition. This act is not saying you will now be perfect and never sin again. You are saying you understand what you did was wrong, you are sorry and you will try your best not to do it again. The priest then says the words of absolution in Jesus' name. Now you are Reconciled with God.

Let's break this down..... Confession and Penance are part of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The sacrament itself is a sacrament of Healing. You are healing a broken relationship. Think about it.... If a friend lied to you your relationship would be damaged until that person; acknowledges they were wrong, ask for forgiveness, and promises not to do it again. Only after these things are done can your relationship begin to be reconciled. So now after teaching this to the children, I realize that the Sacrament of Reconciliation is not the sacrament to be feared like I was taught as a child. I am no longer afraid of Confession or the Penance I will receive. I now know that the Sacrament of Reconciliation was given to us not because God is a Punisher but because he is a Loving and Forgiving Father! I will now make an effort to receive the sacrament more often so my relationship with God can always be strong. I hope after reading this some of you will feel the same. For those of you who do, Confessions are heard every Saturday at 3:30 pm in both churches. Hope to see you there.

God Bless,
Donnamarie

Stewardship

February 3, 2019

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewards Not Jealous

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more Stewardship. Pray to become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered".

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Together as a family, read the second reading for Sunday, 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13, before the evening meal. During the meal, discuss one way your family will show love this week.
- Talk about the problems of injustice that family members see in your community. Talk about what you can do to bring a Christian response to the problems you see. As a family, decide on one thing you can do this week to show God's love to someone in need.
- Prepare a meal from another culture. Have your children help cook the meal. Discuss how the meal is similar to and different from meals that are common in your home. Remind family members of God's love for all people

With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Feb 18 2019

*(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall*
