Stewardship

February 5, 2023 – Good Stewards

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.”

MATTHEW 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. The more we recognize God's gifts, the more we want to share them. Good Stewards recognize that God is working through them and they don't put themselves above the people they have been called to help.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Mary Vey - Administrative Assistant

Dear Parishioners,

It feels like yesterday I was putting away my Christmas decorations. Next week we celebrate Valentine's Day. Ash Wednesday is in 17 days. Are you ready for Lent? Have you decided what you will "give up"? Do you recall the requirements for fasting and abstinence during Lent?

During Lent we are called to follow these three pillars: PRAYER, FASTING and ALMSGIVING.

PRAYER: We can deepen our relationship with God through prayer. There are many opportunities to improve and enhance our prayer life. Try to attend daily Mass at least once a week. Pray the rosary. A communal rosary is recited every morning before daily Mass. Attend Adoration. Adoration is immediately following daily Mass. Spend a little time with the Most Blessed Sacrament. In preparation for the Lenten season, the parish is having 40 Hours of Adoration Devotion beginning Sunday, February 19 and concluding on Tuesday, February 21. See page 7 for details. Stations of the Cross: Spend approximately 30 minutes on Friday nights during Lent at Assumption Church following the footsteps of Jesus. Make it a family event. Take one of our traveling statues of Mary home for a week. Pray as a family. We are blessed to have Our Lady of Fatima and Our Lady of Lourdes. Call the office to reserve your week.

FASTING: Besides the obligatory fasting and abstinence, sacrifice something that is hard for you. Just like New Year's resolutions... be realistic. The sacrifice can be once or twice a week instead of the entire Lenten season. Don't set yourself up for failure.

ALMSGIVING: Lent is the time to help those in need around us. It can be either through service or monetary. Many of us remember receiving the cardboard "Rice Bowl" in school or CCD class during Lent. Make a Rice Bowl for your family. Teach your children through example that there are many people in our community that have far less than we do and need our assistance.

I leave you with some easy prayers to memorize for Lent.

"God, may Your light guide my day, and Your spirit bring me peace. Amen"

"God, may my sacrifice of today (state your Lenten sacrifice) remind me of my dependence on You for all the blessings I enjoy. Amen"

Happy Lent,

Mary Vey

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 58:7-10

True holiness is found in right relationships with one another.

- Isaiah's audience had recently returned from exile.
- They were frustrated that the restoration of Jerusalem was taking so long.
- Isaiah is unsympathetic and tells them to share, regardless of disappointments.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Paul's second illustration of holiness: become transparent to let God's light shine through.

- Paul met rejection in Corinth.
- Paul says he can't rely on human eloquence.
- He wants faith to have a strong foundation.

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

Salt is another image of holiness, and saltiness is given by God.

- Jesus' disciples are to be like salt, constant and self-giving.
- Light symbolizes the goodness of the disciples, their sharing the life of God, who is light.
- Those who see the light in the disciples will praise, not the disciples, but God.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- As a family, explore a dark closet or cabinet with a flashlight. Does the darkness overtake the light or does the light overtake the darkness? Light will always illuminate darkness. Discuss how this relates to the Christian walk. If one lets his/her light shine, how can darkness overtake him/her?
- Pop some popcorn for a family snack. Leave some of the popcorn unsalted and salt the remainder. Then salt a small portion too much. Can the salt be removed from the too salty popcorn? Without salt, how does the popcorn taste? Discuss how this relates to the Christian who maintains his/her salty walk despite what the world thinks. What is a salty Christian? How is one different

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.
