Letter From AnnaMae Muryasz

Dear Faithful Parishioners,

Today we are reminded of the choices given to us by God. In the first reading we have fire and water set before us and we are left to choose. Through our Baptisms water was chosen for us and we became witnesses of the faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. It is the faith and the beliefs of the faith that we are called to live by the actions of our very lives. And fire also became a part of our lives at the sacrament of Confirmation when the Purifying Fire of the Holy Spirit took hold of our hearts.

The second reading reminds us of a basic teaching of the Catholic Church which calls to mind us we are made in the image and likeness of God. Each of us as children of God possess gifts blessings and talents from God. But do we all possess equal gifts? If we are honest we know that the gifts are different for each of us today as they were for the early Christians. But as they did, then; we, today, must use the gifts we possess for spreading the Kingdom of God.

The Gospel reading shows Jesus repeating that he came to fulfill the law, not to abolish it. As humans we would like to see laws done away with in our lives. But Jesus said that the smallest part of a letter of the law will need to take place. Jesus, then, points out that whoever breaks and teaches others to break laws will be the least in the kingdom of Heaven. Unless you are more righteous than the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. And remember the Scribes were known to be a class of citizens who copied and explained the Laws of Moses. The Pharisees based their lives on the written law and thousands of detailed instructions handed down by verbal tradition. These two groups were so obsessed with the laws that they lost the meaning of the purpose of the law. They no longer thought with flexibility, common sense or even the meaning of mercy in their lives. They did not seek out spiritual maturity in their lives.

We must learn to seek out the will of God in all things in our lives. When we know the will of God: we must then be moved to act upon it and allow the Holy Spirit to direct our lives. We must stop seeing the sufferings and hardships in our lives as punishments from God. Rather, we need to ask ourselves, "What does God want me to learn from this?" "What virtue can I gain?" Can I learn not to be judgmental, or compassionate?

When God's lesson reaches our hearts we will then finally be children of God reflecting Him to all that we meet.

A fellow pilgrim on the journey of life,

AnnaMae Muryasz

Stewardship

True Stewards exceed in Righteousness

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" Matthew 5:20

The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear - True Stewardship is the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner in the parking lot is an example of a modern day Pharisee

Electronic or "e-Giving" is available to parishioners and friends of Notre Dame de la Mer Parish. It's easy to set up, and YOU have complete control of how and what you donate to the parish. It's convenient, consistent, secure and insures privacy. To register, and set up your personal account, go to Notre Dame de la Mer Parish Web Page and click on the link on the front page.

Please follow the directions. And if you're interested, coupon slips can be printed so you have something to place in the collection baskets. If you have questions, or concerns, there is a FAQ section that should help you in your decision. Be sure to visit Parish Pay. Thank you for your generosity.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, March 11, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Saturday of each month, at 12:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Church.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Sabado decada mes a las 12:00 in Santa Ana.

Cuaso plebautismal: el Jueves anterior a la celebracion a las 7:00 PM en Santa Ana
