Stewardship

February 13, 2022– Stewards Proclaim Faith 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Blessed are you when people hate you, ...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man.” (LUKE 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our faithful Stewardship. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Happy Valentine's Day

On February 14, 2014, Pope Francis invited to the Vatican thousands of engaged couples from all over the world to commemorate this special day of love and lovers, even sending a message on Twitter.

As with many holidays, even the most special ones, there is always controversy about their origin. And Valentine's Day is no different. Still, historically speaking as well, the feast day has nevertheless been celebrated for hundreds of years and in various cultures and ethnicities.

And, in truth, should not love itself have a holiday, where the Golden Rule to love thy neighbor as thyself is observed and appreciated? Did not Jesus in referencing the Old Testament say to us and to his Apostles that the greatest commandment is to love God and love your neighbor, and that the greatest love is to lay down one's life for his friends? Did not St. Paul explain in his most famous passage of 1 Corinthians 13 that the greatest of all virtues, including the theological virtues, is love? Love found in friendship is a valuable treasure, as it says in the book of Sirach, "A faithful friend is a sturdy shelter, he who finds one finds a treasure".

"God is Love", as St. John the Apostle explains. The Saints themselves never shied away from speaking or writing about it. St. Augustine, "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us". St. Francis de Sales, "you learn to love by loving". St. John of the Cross, "in the evening of life, we will be judged on love alone". St. Edith Stein, "love is an end in itself, because God is love". St. Faustina, "love, and always love." St. Gregory the Great, "Where love exists, it works great things".

If you allow me some secular quotes. Helen Keller, "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt with the heart." Picasso, "Love is the greatest refreshment in life". Einstein, "You can't blame gravity for falling in love". Pascal, "The heart has its reasons of which reason knows nothing". Plato, "At the touch of love everyone becomes a poet".

In other words, may we enjoy the love that God gives to us and for us. And let us thus celebrate happily St. Valentine's Day, and know that Jesus desires for us to have love for each other. Love is our commandment, and as well our trademark, as he said, "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another".

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Jeremiah 17:5-8

Happy are those who trust in God.

- The reading from Jeremiah draws a clear distinction between the person who trusts God and the one who trusts in human beings.
- Water is a significant aspect of the image.
- The passage presents a straightforward choice; trust God and live; trust flesh and die.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Christ is raised from the dead.

- Paul stresses that Christ's resurrection initiated the resurrection of all those who believe in him.
- Belief in the resurrection of Christ demands belief that we will join him in risen life.
- We are called to abandon trust even in life itself and enter death without despair.

Gospel: Luke 6:17, 20-26

Happy, blessed, are the poor, whose reward is great in heaven.

- Luke's Gospel portrays Jesus' special concern for the poor and vulnerable.
- In today's passage, Jesus pronounces blessing on the poor and woe to the rich.
- The poor know their only hope is in God.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Recall stories from your extended family that demonstrate trust and faith in God. Have family members tell about recent times when they stepped out in faith and put their trust in God.
- Discuss ways your family can share what has been given to you. Have all members of the family make a contribution from their allowance, savings account, etc., to provide a meal or donation to a family in need.
- Find ways for the family to relax and have fun without spending money. Some suggestions include: picnics, walks, hiking, biking, yard games, and table games.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Saint Valentine

The Romans did not want Christians in their city, so Christians served God in secret. Valentine loved God and God's people with his whole heart. He served other Christians by bringing food to those who were hiding from the Roman soldiers. He also cared for those who were sick and brought messages to those in hiding. That is why his name is used for the notes of love given on his feast day, February 14, Valentine's Day.

Valentine's message today: Since we know that "God is love," it seems appropriate that we should associate one of God's saints with love. We should remember, however, that God does not want us just to love those who are near to us. Jesus told us that we must love our enemies as well.

Do you pray for your enemies? Do you make any effort to understand their position? Have you tried to make peace with them?

Forever Young: Meetings the 4th Tuesday of the month in Kelly Hall at 12PM. Next meeting is February 22. The speaker is from CMC Division of Aging . All "seniors" are welcome to join the group. Call Carol 609-523-4246 for more information.
Masks are required to be worn by all.

Important Church Information**

Since we are in the season of colder temperatures, our heat will be turning on when the temperature drops below 68 degrees in our church. We ask that you dress accordingly for Mass as the Church may be on the chilly side. This is part of our effort to keep everyone as safe as possible.

If WCA is closed due to inclement weather, the business office is probably closed as well. Call before coming.

Wedding Host Ministry

Wedding hosts and hostesses set up the environment for the wedding celebration in church (placement of the bride and groom chairs, etc.) and greet the wedding party as they arrive for the rehearsal. They assist the Presider in the rehearsal, in some cases lead the rehearsal and answer questions of the bridal party. On the wedding day they greet the bridal party, turn on the lights, prepare the liturgical items, and generally serve as hospitality ministers for the bridal party before and during the wedding celebration. This ministry is an important part of the welcoming mission of Notre Dame de la Mer. Stipends are provided for the wedding host couple.

Time: About 1 1/2 hours for a rehearsal and about 2 hours for the wedding celebration. Wedding hospitality ministers usually serve at about four - five weddings per year.

Contact Deacon Nick at the Parish Office if you are willing to help in this important ministry!

6o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Bienaventurados si los odian, ...excluyen e insultan, y desprecian su nombre...por causa del Hijo del Hombre". (Lucas 6:22)

Todos ustedes habrán estado en situaciones en las cuales alguien hizo comentarios negativos o se burló de Dios o de su fe Católica. ¿Cómo respondieron? Se quedaron callados o pretendieron seguirle la corriente a la multitud porque no querían causar problemas y entonces, más tarde, ¿se sintieron mal? Sepa que Dios está con usted todo el tiempo; el Espíritu Santo pondrá las palabras correctas en su boca. Rece para tener fortaleza y valor para proclamar su fe a los demás, especialmente durante situaciones incómodas.

hacerse con Amor
