Message From Rev. Joseph D. Wallace, Pastor

Dear Parishioner,

Last week was bitter—sweet in our farewell to Fr. Yvans as he assumes his new pastoral duties at St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish. Sad that he has to leave us but happy for him as an administrator and for the parish that will enjoy his love and enthusiasm for the Faith. I was surprised when the director of priest personnel informed me that they are unable to replace Fr. Yvans as the priest shortage is truly beginning to hit here in the Diocese of Camden. He told me that there are no ordinations to the priesthood this year and there are no priests available for new assignments as Parochial Vicars. At the same time it is getting more difficult to engage the help of retired priests as all the shore parishes that add Masses in the summer months are vying for their assistance. I will bring my concerns to our Worship Committee next week, so that I can bring their recommendations to the Parish Pastoral Council.

Next month a group of parishioners will be joining me to attend the first “Convocation of Catholic Leaders – The Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey,” in Atlantic City. This convocation has been called by Bishop Sullivan to bring together representatives from every parish in the diocese for an intensive four days that, it is hoped, will have a profound effect both spiritually and practically on the future of the diocese. Like many large scale church events, the convocation will be a celebration of the faith, featuring respected speakers, small group sessions and inspirational music and worship. Our own choir under the direction of Jon Delgado will be featured throughout the four day event. This gathering will be distinguished by an emphatic call to missionary discipleship and an openness to dialogue, creative thinking and envisioning new ways the local church can proclaim the Gospel in the future. Our parish team has met with Donna Ottaviano, director of Missionary Discipleship for the Camden Diocese. Our parish leader, Kevin Brady, has met with the team as we have been preparing ourselves through readings and reflections for the big event. I’ll keep you all informed of our progress.

I would again like to thank all those who have given and pledged to our Catholic Strong Campaign. We are getting close to our campaign goal of $1,330,000. I believe that a letter went out last week to those who have not yet made their pledge. I ask you, that those of you who have not yet pledged for the future stability and spiritual progress of the future generations who will benefit from our present day sacrifices, will consider making their sacrificial pledge. Again, blessings on all those who have so generously given!

Fr. Wallace

Stewardship

February 17, 2019
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Times
Stewardship Test

"Blessed are you when people hate you, ...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name ...on account of the Son of Man." (LUKE 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time, the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to live Stewardship and proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Decide on ways to simplify your family's lifestyle. Ask family members to think about material things they have that they may be attached to. Discuss these items, and what should replace their attachment to those material possessions as you strive to simplify your lives as a family, and put your trust in God.
- Recall stories from your extended family that demonstrate trust and faith in God. Have family members tell about recent times when they stepped out in faith and put their trust in God.
- Discuss ways your family can share what has been given to you. Have all members of the family make a contribution from their allowance, savings account, etc., to provide a meal or donation to a family in need.
- Find ways for the family to relax and have fun without spending money. Some suggestions include: picnics, walks, hiking, biking, yard games, and table games.
