Stewardship

February 19, 2023 – Prayerful Stewards

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." MATTHEW 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done. But, remember, the foundation of Stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It changes my heart and actions, allowing for a little more empathy for "my enemy." When we pray for others, even our enemies, it may soften their hearts as well.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

From the Desk of Donnamarie Sexton - Catechetical Leader

Dear Friends,

Recently, I have had the wonderful experience of binge watching the show The Chosen on the Angel app. If you haven't already done so I highly encourage you to watch it. You could make it a family Lenten event. It is a religious show about Jesus and the Apostles. I also have the privilege of facilitating a Bible study on the Gospel of Matthew, which by the way you can still join. Both of which have me reflecting on the word Faith and what it means to be Faithful.

The definition of Faith that I found in the dictionary is: A complete trust or confidence in someone or something. Or a strong belief in God or in the doctrines of a religion, based on spiritual apprehension rather than proof. The definition of Faithful is remaining loyal and steadfast.

Looking back at the lives of the Apostles, while watching The Chosen and diving deep into the Gospel of Matthew, I cannot help but be in awe at their undying Faith. Think about it. The Jewish people were expecting their Messiah to be a mighty warrior and Jesus is the direct opposite. We are quick to judge the Pharisees and other leaders who crucified Jesus but what would we do if we were there. It is easy for us to look back in hind sight and trust that Jesus is the Messiah but would we be so quick to stand up as a follower of Jesus if our life depended on it?

We now have the ability to do bible studies written by scholars and theologians who studied the bible for years to point out why we should have faith that Jesus was the Messiah and God is all powerful and all knowing. But if Jesus stood before us today, would we believe him? Would we drop everything to follow him?

I would like to think, yes! Yes, my Faith would be strong enough to put my trust in God and have confidence that he is fulfilling his promises through Jesus. But in all reality, I just don't really know how I would react. This Lent I challenge you to put yourself in the shoes of the Jewish Pharisees. They were just trying to keep their Jewish laws sacred. Laws that were pasted down for generations. They wanted to keep the Jewish people safe from false prophets. They too had Faith. They had Faith that God would send a mighty warrior to save them. They were blinded by thoughts of what they have been taught and what they thought the Messiah should look like and how he should act.

Doesn't this happen to all of us from time to time. Sometimes we get so caught up in rules and regulations that we forget the bottom line. The bottom line that Jesus came down here and died on the cross for everyone not just the righteous. He is here for the lowly too. And who are we to judge who is the righteous and who is the lowly. We must have Faith and trust in God to be the judge.

God Bless,

Donnamarie

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18

To be like God is to be loving.

- Leviticus 19 is a collection of miscellaneous laws concerning conduct.
- Keeping the Ten Commandments, worshiping God, and living justly were prescribed.
- The reason for all the laws is to be like God.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 3:16-23

To love one another is to live.

- Wisdom had divided the community.
- Worldly wisdom is folly to God.
- Obey God and be like God. To be like God is to love one another.

Gospel : Matthew 5:38-48

Forgive and love to conquer evil.

- The Old Testament "an eye for an eye," was an attempt to limit evil.
- Monetary fines had become more common.
- Jesus advised that evil is conquered by good.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Have each family member share a time that his/her weapon of choice against evil was "good." How was "good" used to conquer evil? How is Jesus' life an example of good conquering evil?
- How is loving one another similar to God's character? Discuss the community found in the Triune God. Father God, Jesus the Son and the Holy Spirit love and live as community. How is that community an example for all relationships? Why might that work so well? Have family members relate how difficult it is to love everyone and why it is still important to do so. How does forgiveness fit into the equation?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be February 20th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass
