Stewardship

February 23, 2025
7th Sunday of Ordinary Time
Stewards Love

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back...” - LUKE 6:35

Easier said than done, right? But, in Stewardship, we are to imitate Christ. Most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive.

Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through items like stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts.

Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear Friends,

Today's Gospel is a hard one to swallow. In the secular world we are taught to put our own needs first. In a "what's in it for me" society it is difficult to think about others first and even more difficult to think of loving your enemy, doing good to those who hate you, blessing those who curse you, and praying for those who mistreat you. But right now, I would like you to stop for a second and think about the world as it is today. Is this the world you grew up in? Is this the world you envisioned to raise your family in. What has changed? What is different? Do you prefer the world now? Or then? Do you think it would be different if we did the things Jesus is asking us to do?

We live in a Country so divided on what individuals think of as right and wrong that friends and families no longer talk to each other. We live in a world where some people are looked down upon because of their color or nationality. In this world not everyone is treated equal because of where they were born. We live in a world where people think it is okay to end a life because it is unwanted and a mistake. In this world money trumps dignity. Our world is broken and it needs to be fixed.

When Jesus was born the world was also broken. He came to earth, suffered and died for us so we can live free from the chains of sin. While he was here, he taught us lessons to live by to help keep us free from our sins. We need to start listening to his words. In today's Gospel there are major lessons that can help us. I would like to focus on three lines.

"Do to other as you would have them do to you"

What a wonderful world it would be if we actually lived this line. If we actually treated others as we would want to be treated. If we loved everyone as Jesus taught us. Think about it, most people who are mean and do hurtful things do it because it was done to them. What if instead of treating them the same we showed them kindness and respect. We showed them how it feels to be loved so they would want to do the same.

"Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned."

We all have a story. We all have our reasons for our own actions. We need to stop judging and condemning others for their actions and look upon ourselves. Are you living as Jesus taught you? Are you treating others as you want to be treated? Would you want to be judged and condemned because of someone else's actions? Then why do it to others?

If we all lived our lives full of JOY this would be a wonderful world! J- Jesus first, O- others second, Y- yourself last.

God Bless,
Donnamarie

Readings of the Week

Reading I : 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

Though the Lord delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm you.

- Consumed with jealousy, Saul and three thousand men head into the desert searching for David.
- When given the opportunity, David does not harm Saul because he is God's anointed.
- The Lord will reward the just and faithful.

Reading II : 1 Corinthians 15:45-49

Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

- As humans, we resemble Adam, who was made from the earth. We also inherit Adam's weaknesses.
- We are also created in God's image.
- We will share in Jesus' Resurrection.

Gospel : Luke 6:27-38

Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

- Jesus teaches the disciples to love their enemies.
- Treat others as you want to be treated.
- Be kind to the ungrateful and wicked.

40 Hours of Continuous Adoration

Notre Dame de la Mer invites each of you to participate in The Parish's 4th annual 40 continuous Hours of Adoration Devotion. This is a joyful and spiritual start to the 2025 Lenten season. During the 40 Hours we ask for commitments from those Adoring the Most Blessed Sacrament, who will be Guarding Him, that He be not alone. This is a wonderful way to start your Lenten season by giving up One-hour commitment. This is your Lenten season sacrifice. This is the source and summit of our Faith. To be in the presence of the King of the Universe and the Eucharist is the King!

For us to be successful we need two people per hour, from Sunday March 2nd at the 3PM, with the Exposition and Chaplet of Divine Mercy, through Tuesday March 4th at 1PM, concluding with Benediction and Mass. Followed with coffee and donuts in Kelly Hall.

Sign-up sheets, by hour, can be found in Kelly Hall, Assumption Church, and the Lobby at Saint Ann Church. Our success and continuation of 40 Hours Devotion is up to you.

Saint of the Week:

Vincent de Paul, Priest, c. 1580-1660

Vincent was born at Pouy, France in 1581, the third of six children. He was ordained a priest and served in several key positions. He became noted for his work among the poor, and was a chaplain to galley slaves waiting to be shipped abroad. In 1625, with the help of a wealthy friend, Vincent founded the Congregation of the Missions (known today as the Vincentians), an order devoted to work among the peasants. In 1633, along with Saint Louise de Marillac, he founded the Sisters of Charity. In his lifetime, Vincent de Paul established hospitals, orphanages, and seminaries; ransomed slaves in northern Africa; sent his priests abroad to preach missions; and organized far-flung relief among victims of war. It is remarkable that one man could achieve so much.

Even though he was ordained a priest at an early age, it took an awakening event for Vincent to recognize what God was calling him to do. The same is true for many of us, no matter what age we are. God may be asking us to do something as simple as praying for our neighbor. On the other hand, God may be asking us to do much more

This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.
