Second Sunday in Lent

Stewards are Called

“Here I am!” he answered.” - GENESIS 22:11

It is easy to say, “Here I am, Lord,” when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say “Here I am, Lord,” when a neighbor needs our help, or when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times Stewards are called when it’s not convenient for us. Discipleship is not easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Dear Parishioner,

As we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent (Transfiguration Sunday), it is a good time to ask ourselves how our Lent is going for us so far. Have we been able to keep our Lenten promises? Are we on the right path so far through this Lenten journey to lead us to a joyful Easter? If not, it is okay as the Season of Lent announces the beginning of the Church's springtime, and while Lent is a penitential season calling us to turn our lives around and bring our hearts back to God, it's not to become a time for guilt or beating our heads against the ground in shame for past sins and present failings. Today is a new day in our Lenten journey, with God we can always begin anew with a fresh start!

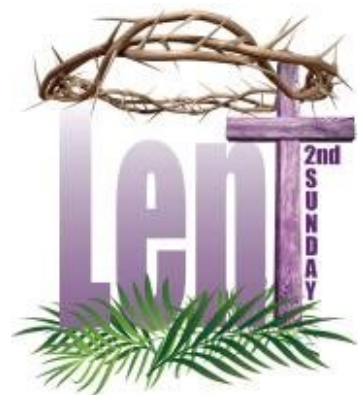

Many Catholics were taught as children to "give up something" for lent. The sacrifices during this Lenten season are really penance. Throughout our history, Christians have found prayer, fasting and alms-giving to be an important part of repentance and renewal. Many Catholics now tend to add something during Lent rather than giving something up, either to address personal habits that need work or to add some outreach to others in need.

If you're Lenten promise has not worked out for you yet or you are still struggling to find the perfect way to make this journey towards the great feast of Easter more meaningful, consider adding in daily Mass, Stations of the Cross or adoration of the Blessed Sacrament into your weekly routine. We can only win both spiritually and physically when we choose to keep Christ, his church and our community close to our hearts and a part of our daily lives!

When we enter into deep communion with Jesus through prayer, alms-giving, fasting and receiving daily Eucharist we enter into a daily transformation of both our minds and hearts. As disciples of Jesus we should be able to see Jesus in our brothers and sisters with whom we come in contact each day.

As we continue on our Lenten journey I pray all of us continue to grow closer to Christ and his community!

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Genesis 22:1-2, 9, 10-13, 15-18

Because you trusted me, I will bless you greatly.

- In the story of the sacrifice of Isaac, the sin of disobedience that brought alienation and death is healed by obedience.
- The Canaanites believed the first born belonged to God.
- Abraham's test of faith emphasizes the fact that God demands obedience, not sacrifice

Reading II: Romans 8:31-34

Who can be against us?

- The reading from Romans presents a parallel to God's demand on Abraham.
- God does not demand the sacrifice of Abraham's son as a price of the covenant relationship.
- God does sacrifice the life of his own Son to preserve the covenant relationship with humankind.

Gospel: Mark 9:2-10

He was transfigured before their eyes!

- The story of Jesus' transfiguration is full of symbolism.
- The images of cloud and mountain suggest God's appearance at the covenant-making on Mount Sinai.
- Moses, the major figure in Exodus and Sinai covenant, represents the law, and Elijah, great ninth-century prophet of Israel, represents the prophets.
- Jesus is the fulfillment of the law and the prophets.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- The transfiguration is a manifestation of God. After reflecting on that statement, share your thoughts on these questions: Can you name a moment in your life when you felt God was present to you?
- Share with your child stories of how your faith in Jesus has helped you. Assure your child of your love for him or her. Let your child know that he or she can always count on your love and on the love of Jesus.
- Go on a treasure hunt. See how many places you can find signs of Jesus' presence.
- Use the responsorial prayer for this week as your family prayer: "I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living."

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be March 18th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

NDDLM has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues we as Catholic men are confronted with. We try to know better what is the Eucharist, why we love Mary, why we confess our sins and who are the apostles and who are the Saints?

"As we enter February, we enter the holiest time of the year. The beginning of Lent. We will be dedicating our 1st meeting, February 3, in prayer and preparation for 40 Hours devotion, which starts February 11. On the 3rd weekend, February 16, we will explore the readings from The "First Sunday in Lent" which includes the Gospel according to Mark 1:12-15, along with the First and Second reading and what ties these scripture readings together.

Shadow A Student

We have Shadow Days open for prospective students to join us and come visit the school. It is a great opportunity to meet students and faculty, go through a class schedule, and spend a day in the life of a Crusader.

Applications

At this time we are accepting applications for the 2024/2025 school year and also for transfer students for this year. Applications can be completed on our website, or a hard copy can be downloaded and sent to the school. If you would like to schedule an appointment to come in and sit down with an admissions representative, we would be happy to walk you through the process and have your child's application completed and reviewed on the same day.

Reach Out

Please let us know if you would like to schedule a Shadow Day, a family tour, or an admissions appointment. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out.

We are looking forward to welcoming you into the building and sharing more about Wildwood Catholic Academy and all we have to offer.
