Stewardship

March 5, 2023 – Faithful Stewardship
2nd Sunday of Lent

“Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you.” GENESIS 12:1

God calls his Stewards to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet, God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, “God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful.”

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Dear Parishioner,

As we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent (Transfiguration Sunday), it is a good time to ask ourselves how our Lent is going for us so far. Have we been able to keep our Lenten promises? Are we on the right path so far this Lent to lead us to a joyful Easter? If not, it is okay as the Season of Lent announces the beginning of the Church's springtime, and while Lent is a penitential season calling us to turn our lives around and bring our hearts back to God, it's not to become a time for guilt or beating our heads against the ground in shame for past sins and present failings. Today is a new day in our Lenten journey, with God we can always begin a new with a fresh start!

Many Catholics were taught as children to "give up something" for lent. The sacrifices during this Lenten season are really penance. Throughout our history, Christians have found prayer, fasting and almsgiving to be an important part of repentance and renewal. Many Catholics now tend to add something during Lent rather than giving something up, either to address personal habits that need work or to add some outreach to others in need.

If you're Lenten promise has not worked out for you yet or you are still struggling to find the perfect way to make this journey towards the great feast of Easter more meaningful, consider adding in daily Mass, Stations of the Cross or adoration into your weekly routine. We can only win both spiritually and physically when we choose to keep Christ, his church and our community close to our hearts and a part of our daily lives!

When we enter into deep communion with Jesus through prayer, alms-giving, fasting and receiving daily Eucharist we enter into a daily transformation of both our minds and hearts. As disciples of Jesus we should be able to see Jesus in our brothers and sisters with whom we come in contact each day. As we continue on our Lenten journey I pray all of us continue to grow closer to Christ and his community!

Jonathan

Mass Intentions

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Genesis 12:1-4a

I will make of you a great nation.

- In the first reading, Abraham is obedient to God's call.
- Abraham is blessed by God. Ultimately, blessing is a sharing in the life of God, a sharing in God's power to bring life and to sustain it.
- Because of Abraham's obedience, the inexorable progress of sin and separation is reversed and God's blessing begins to fill the world.

Reading II : 2 Timothy 1:8b-10

God has called us to a holy life.

- In 2 Timothy the point is made that through obedience, followers of Jesus will share in the sufferings of Jesus and then come to share forever in his glory.
- Through his death on the cross, Jesus has conquered death.
- The final goal of God's blessing is new life.

Gospel : Matthew 17:1-9

Get up! Do not be afraid!

- In the Gospel story Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, a favorite place in the Gospel of Matthew for revelation.
- There, the presence of God shines through Jesus and he is transformed.
- Moses and Elijah, representatives of the Law and the prophets, appear with Jesus.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- The story of the transfiguration shows that knowing Jesus can change our lives. Discuss the story, including some behaviors that your family needs to change.
- We grow in our knowledge of Jesus through prayer. As a family, share some experiences of prayer. Encourage family members to share their favorite forms of prayer. Remember that prayer can take many forms, such as silent meditations, song, journaling, litanies, the Rosary, Mass, spontaneous conversations with Jesus, and so forth. Arrange for your family to come together for prayer. Also encourage family members to spend some time in prayer on their own.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

LITURGY CORNER

10 ITEMS FOR LENT

1. Remember the formula. The Church does a good job capturing certain truths with easy-to-remember lists and formulas: 10 Commandments, 7 sacraments, 3 persons in the Trinity. For Lent, the Church gives us almost a slogan—Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving—as the three things we need to work on during the season.
2. It's a time of prayer. Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.
3. It's a time to fast. With the fasts of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, meatless Fridays, and our personal disciplines interspersed, Lent is the only time many Catholics these days actually fast. And maybe that's why it gets all the attention. "What are you giving up for Lent? Hotdogs? Beer? Jelly beans?" It's almost a game for some of us, but fasting is actually a form of penance, which helps us turn away from sin and toward Christ.
4. It's a time to work on discipline. The 40 days of Lent are also a good, set time to work on personal discipline in general. Instead of giving something up, it can be doing something positive. "I'm going to exercise more. I'm going to pray more. I'm going to be nicer to my family, friends and coworkers."
5. It's about dying to yourself. The more serious side of Lenten discipline is that it's about more than self-control—it's about finding aspects of yourself that are less than Christ-like and letting them die. The suffering and death of Christ are foremost on our minds during Lent, and we join in these mysteries by suffering, dying with Christ and being resurrected in a purified form.
6. Don't do too much. It's tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it's best to keep it simple and focused. There's a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don't try to cram it all in one Lent. That's a recipe for failure.
7. Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we're all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful, but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God's help with renewed urgency and sincerity.
8. Be patient with yourself. When we're confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. "What a bad person I am!" But that's the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.
9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love.
10. Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.
