1st Sunday of Lent

FILLED WITH AND LED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT

In the Gospel passage today, we see Jesus being both filled and led by the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit, in the previous passage, is notably present in the form of a dove when Jesus is baptized in the Jordan river. And after the passage, Jesus comes to Nazareth and reads from the prophet Isaiah, saying, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me". The Holy Spirit is very alive and well in both the Old and New Testaments and as they merge into each other in the life of Christ.

So the question may arise, "What is the Holy Spirit and what is it to me"?

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Holy Trinity in whom we are baptized, as Christ mandated his Apostles to "baptize all nations in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit". Jesus explains to Nicodemus that we are necessarily to be "born of the Spirit". We must ask for the "Spirit of Truth", which Jesus describes it to be. St. Paul tells us that we ought never to quench or extinguish the Spirit. On the contrary, Jesus says that the Spirit of God is our Advocate and Counselor promised to come upon us after he ascends into Heaven. The Spirit's ultimate arrival at Pentecost imbues all in the room, and as Jesus had told his disciples, the Spirit gave them "the words to say".

Let us then proclaim boldly "Come Holy Spirit!" with one of the Church's most famous hymns, "VENI, CREATOR SPIRITUS":

Come, Holy Spirit, Creator blest, and in our souls take up Thy rest;
come with Thy grace and heavenly aid to fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

O comforter, to Thee we cry,
O heavenly gift of God Most High,
O fount of life and fire of love,
and sweet anointing from above.

Thou in Thy sevenfold gifts are known;
Thou, finger of God's hand we own;
Thou, promise of the Father,
Thou Who dost the tongue with power imbue.

Kindle our sense from above,
and make our hearts o'erflow with love;

with patience firm and virtue high the weakness of our flesh supply.

Far from us drive the foe we dread,
and grant us Thy peace instead;
so shall we not, with Thee for guide,
turn from the path of life aside.

Oh, may Thy grace on us bestow
the Father and the Son to know;
and Thee, through endless times confessed,
of both the eternal Spirit blest.

Now to the Father and the Son,
Who rose from death, be glory given,
with Thou, O Holy Comforter, henceforth by all in earth and heaven.
Amen.

Stewardship

March 10, 2019

1st Sunday of Lent

First Fruit Stewardship

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." (DEUTERONOMY 26:10)

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits", the best that you have to offer, or do you give from what is leftover? Second, do you recognize that everything you have has been given to you by God? Stewards ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Still in search of anyone interested in offering their TIME to help us keep our beautiful worship sites clean. Can you help?...give the parish office a call. Our devoted teams need your help once a week

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

1st Sunday of Lent

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Will your family be open to God's presence during the Lenten season? The traditional Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and giving alms, remind us that we need God. As a family, discuss how you can observe these Lenten practices.
- While there is a tradition of "giving something up" for Lent, this year consider instead "doing something extra" for someone who could use help or assistance. That might include volunteering to take an elderly neighbor shopping or helping him or her with spring chores.
- What Lenten observances does your parish have this year? How can you participate?

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, March 18, 2019
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Prayer for the 2019 Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey

O Holy Spirit, you who first enkindled in our hearts the joy of the Gospel, renew that same joy in those who will gather to attend the Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey. Continue to enflame the hearts of our bishop, priests, and their parish delegations; all clergy, religious, and speakers; all who make this event possible. Move us to welcome the word of life in the depths of our hearts and respond to the call of missionary discipleship. O Holy Spirit; transform our hearts and enable us to enter into the perfect communion that you share with the Father and the Son. Mary Immaculate, who first received the Gospel, pray for us. Amen
