Stewardship

March 13, 2022– Stewardship Gratitude 2nd Sunday of Lent

“I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession.” (GENESIS 15:7)

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show in your Stewardship, gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the desk of Deacon Nick Danze— Pastoral Associate

Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel story of the Transfiguration, that remarkable day when Jesus gave three of his closest friends an experience of a deeper reality, a chance for them to see him in a new way, in a more complete way, in an un-masked kind of way. Jesus wasn't just some guy they knew who said a few insightful things and did a few unexplainable acts. He was more. Much more.

Indeed, there is a parallel here that may or may not be obvious. Think about it. Peter, John, and James saw Jesus in a way they had never seen him before. This was a unique experience for them, something Jesus chose to reveal to them. Yet, the way those three men saw Jesus is precisely the way Jesus sees us all the time. For sure, He sees far beyond our ordinariness, our flaws and weaknesses. He sees far beyond the masks we wear. He even (especially) sees far beyond our sin. Truth be told, all he sees is the "real" us, the authentic us, the beautiful people he created us to be --- and knows we can be.

Actually, in a certain sense, he sees the "transfigured" you and the "transfigured" me --- indeed, sees the deeper reality. You see, the real you and me are so much more than what we often reveal to the world, reveal to others, or at times even reveal to ourselves.

And that means, that what Jesus did for Peter, John, and James, he wants us to do for others. He wants us to peel back the layers, remove the stuff that's in the way, unleash the authentic person he knows each of us can be. Put simply, he wants the person HE sees to be the person others see as well.

My friends, believing that we can be so much more than we are today --- takes faith. Believing that underneath our faults and failings and pettiness and sin is a person capable of great love and compassion and mercy --- takes faith. Believing that the person we see is not the person God sees --- takes faith. And believing that the real you and the real me don't need to remain hidden --- takes faith.

God wants us to be transfigured, wants us to live up to our dignity and calling, wants us to be a shining light on a hill --- radiating love and kindness and every good thing into every corner of the world.

That's who we are. That's how God made us. That's the deeper reality.

May this Lenten season help us discover that truth.

And may God our Father give you Grace and peace!

Deacon Nick

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

God makes a covenant with Abram

- In the reading from Genesis, God promises Abram many descendants.
- God seals the covenant with Abram by appearing as a flaming torch between the carcasses of the sacrificial animals.
- This was symbolic because the ancient way of sealing an agreement was for both parties to walk between the split bodies of sacrificial animals.

Reading II: Philippians 3:17-4:1

Christ will transform us

- In the second reading, Paul encourages the Philippians to trust God and wait.
- Those who lose faith search for immediate gains.
- Those who wait for God's promises will share in Jesus' glory.

Gospel Luke 9:28b-36

As Jesus prayed, He was transformed

- Immediately after Jesus told the disciples that he would suffer, die, and rise again, he takes a select group of them to a mountain to pray.
- While on the mountain, Jesus reveals his divine identity to Peter, John and James.
- Peter, captivated by the transformation of Jesus, wanted the scene to last.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Take a family drive to a place that captivates you. Spend time viewing the beauty of the spot. While there, share the Gospel story of the transfiguration.
- As a family, brainstorm goals that you want God to help you with. List the goals on a sheet of paper. For each goal, discuss: Why is this goal important to the family? What must the family do in order to accomplish this goal? How can each member of the family participate?
- Make a cross for the refrigerator as a reminder that there is no struggle this week that cannot be overcome with the help of Jesus.
- Ask each family member to name one thing that he or she would like God's help with now. Allow time for each person to complete the sentence, "Ten years from now I would like to be..." Ask each person to name one thing he or she is doing now that will help to make that dream come true.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director.
Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Wedding Host Ministry

Wedding hosts and hostesses set up the environment for the wedding celebration in church (placement of the bride and groom chairs, etc.) and greet the wedding party as they arrive for the rehearsal. They assist the Presider in the rehearsal, in some cases lead the rehearsal and answer questions of the bridal party. On the wedding day they greet the bridal party, turn on the lights, prepare the liturgical items, and generally serve as hospitality ministers for the bridal party before and during the wedding celebration. This ministry is an important part of the welcoming mission of Notre Dame de la Mer. Stipends are provided for the wedding host couple.

Time: About 1 1/2 hours for a rehearsal and about 2 hours for the wedding celebration. Wedding hospitality ministers usually serve at about four - five weddings per year.

Contact Deacon Nick at the Parish Office if you are willing to help in this important ministry!

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be March 21st
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

2do. Domingo de Cuaresma

“Yo soy el Señor que te trajo de Ur de los caldeos para darle esta tierra como posesión”.
(Genesis 15: 7)

Así como el Señor le dio a Abraham, Moisés y los Israelitas una tierra para poseerla, Él también le ha dado a cada uno un hogar. Si su casa es grande o humilde, es un regalo de Dios. Abraham preparó un gran sacrificio al Señor en agradecimiento por el hogar que Dios le dio... ¿Cómo le muestra su gratitud a Dios por el hogar que Dios le ha dado? ¿Hace algún sacrificio de cualquier tipo? ... ¿Le regresa algo de sus finanzas a Dios, invirtiendo en su casa eterna de la misma forma que invierte en su casa terrenal?
