"The NOW" 2019

Dear Companions on the Journey

In regards to time we look back at yesterday with fond memories or sad regrets and we look forward to tomorrow with great anticipation or fearful expectation. In truth though - at the moment - all we have - all we need- all we can handle - is "The Now"- only "the here and now" really matters. Jesus tells us, "Now is the acceptable time. Now is the time of salvation." Perhaps the question worth considering is "What am I doing with 'the Now' I have?"

In the Our Father we say "Thy kingdom come" Yes, this is true. We are looking forward to God's kingdom in all its completeness, wholeness, and holiness in heaven, but actually, we are living each day in God's kingdom in the here and now in all its struggles for that completeness, wholeness, and holiness. This prayer line in its fullness prays "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done ON EARTH as it is in heaven." So I am back to the question - what am I doing with my "now"? What am I doing to make God's kingdom fully alive in "The Now" of my life and in my part of the world?

Don't let "The Now" times of Lent slip away. Let us meet God face to face each day in the deliberate/unexpected quiet moments of prayer, the listening eyes of conversations, in the alert ears that see the unheard cries of the broken hearted, in the hands and feet that understand a need without a word being spoken, and in the whole "spirit-filled" being that is you - who fully believes the words Jesus is speaking to you: "Whatever you do to the least of these you do unto me". We might not know the Corporal or Spiritual Works of Mercy in order or by memory, but we do remember the Lord's words and want to live them in our families and in our world. "Whatsoever you do to the least of these you do to me." Be alert for "the NOW" and listen with heart eyes, and always remember..... fondly.

Sincerely,
Your Church

Stewardship

March 24, 2019

3rd Sunday of Lent

Stewards Bear Fruit

"He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'" (LUKE 13:7)

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called in Stewardship to develop and nurture our gifts and return with increase.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Would you be interested in memorializing a new Paschal Candle Holder and Altar Candles for St. Ann Church? If so please call Jon Delgado at the parish office 609.522.2709, x. 219

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

3rd Sunday of Lent

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Talk about how God has helped your family grow this past week. Look at the plants in your home or yard. Do they need pruning or replanting or fertilizing to grow stronger? Do this as a family, remembering our own need for conversion and growth.
- Plan to attend your parish Lenten Reconciliation service as a family. (April 10)
- Gather together as a family to examine how the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are coming along. Use this week as a time to turn your hearts back to God. Have each family member name one or two things he or she will do as a sign of wanting to return to God.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, April 15, 2019
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall
