Stewardship

March 27, 2022– Stewardship Alive 4th Sunday of Lent

“No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.” (JOSHUA 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land, the manna ceased. Likewise, God’s blessings to us may change over the years, but it is important to trust that God will always provide His Stewards with all that we need.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Laetare Sunday!!! I hope your lent has been going well, and you are all preparing for the Easter season by practicing prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. I'm finally back home! The last time I was back at the parish, it was the Christmas season, and now we are on the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Although I enjoy the seminary, nothing beats being at the parish. Every time I come home from the seminary, I think about what my old rector used to say at the college seminary: "the heart and desire of a priest is in the parish and being with the people."

Lent is a unique season of the Church. It is a time when we look at ourselves in the mirror and ask ourselves, "where do I stand before God? Am I a faithful disciple? Are there things in my life that hold me back from loving the Lord and spreading his gospel?" Nobody is perfect, and this is why the Church invites us to participate in the season of Lent.

During this week, our parish will be having a Lenten retreat. If you are interested in enhancing your Lenten pilgrimage, maybe try to join us for these nights of prayer and reflection. Fr. Mark Crane will be kicking off the week with a reflection on the prodigal son tomorrow, Monday, March 28. Mark Forrest, an Irish tenor, will be leading a night of prayer and meditation through songs on Tuesday, March 29. I've been fortunate enough to hear Mark Forrest play at the Man Up South Jersey Conference two years ago (This is another great event that I encourage all men to look into!). Wrapping up the retreat will be a presentation by Fr. Mazz on spiritual conversion on Wednesday, March 30. If you cannot make it to all the events, that is okay. You are welcome to come to any event that you can. All events will be taken place at Assumption Church at 6:00 pm.

Since I am on spring break this week, I plan on attending these events for my own spiritual wellbeing, and I encourage everyone to come join us as we journey through this Lenten season together. I hope to see you this week. I ask you to please keep me in your prayers and be assured of my daily prayers for you.

God bless,

Tom Piro

St Ann: Intentions of the Parishioners

Assumption: Intentions of the Parishioners

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Joshua 5:9a, 10-12

They ate the produce of the land.

- The first reading recounts Israel's rebirth in the land of promise.
- As the people crossed the Jordan River, they celebrated Passover, just as they had when they crossed the Red Sea.
- The period of wandering in the wilderness was over.

Reading II: 2 Corinthians 5:17-21

We are reconciled with God through Christ.

- The main subject in Paul's second letter to the Church of Corinth is reconciliation.
- Paul stresses reconciliation with God, with himself, and with the Corinthian Community.
- Through Christ, sinners are reconciled to God.

Gospel : Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

The son that was lost came back home.

- In the presence of the Pharisees and Scribes, who are outraged by Jesus' treatment of sinners, Jesus tells the story of the return of the prodigal son.
- Today's parable shows that God's forgiveness is for everyone.
- God's mercy and love is immeasurable and beyond human understanding.

Family Reflection Corner

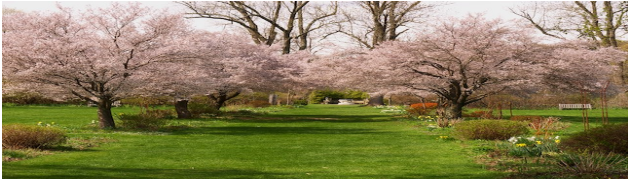

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- The Gospel reading for Sunday is one of the most familiar stories in the Bible. Read with your family the story of the return of the prodigal son, Luke 15:1-3, 11-32. After the reading, list the steps of reconciliation identified in the story.
- Prepare your family's favorite meal. Before the meal, ask family members to share stories about a time when they were grateful for the gift of forgiveness that someone in your family offered them.
- Talk about your experiences of forgiveness and reconciliation in the family. Discuss: What does a falling out between family members do to our home environment? What signs do we use to ask forgiveness? What signs do we use to tell one another that we forgive them?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director.
Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

HOLY THURSDAY Disciples Needed!

Holy Thursday is the day on which Christ celebrates the Last Supper with His disciples, four days after his triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. Christ, during the last supper, reaffirmed a new commandment he gave His church. The Lord, "who came to serve and not to be served," washes the feet of his disciples. During the Mass, we remember this charity & service by having our own foot washing ritual.

We are in need of twelve disciples to get their feet washed.

If you are willing to have your feet washed please contact Jonathan Delgado 609-522-2709 * 219

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

We cordially invite all WCA parents/families and Alumni to this year's Spring Fling. As you may recall, last year's event was a tremendous success, and we hope you will join us again! Seaport Pier creates a spectacular ambiance for a night of meeting other families, enjoying music on the beach, and provides the most incredible sunset imaginable. We have raffle and auction items in the pipeline. We have a Barefoot Country Music VIP package to auction off for a teaser, along with a Florida vacation package and much more! If you would like to sponsor, know of businesses that wish to support, or purchase a ticket, please go to: <https://givebutter.com/SpringFling22>. If you also would like to volunteer or have any raffle/auctions items to donate, please reach out to Shannon Feltwell or Jeanna Kiker at gracie21@gmail.com.

4to. Domingo de Cuaresma

"Ya no hubo más maná para los Israelitas, que ese año comieron del rendimiento de la tierra de Canaán." (Josué 5:12)

En los cuarenta años que los israelitas viajaron por el desierto, Dios les proporcionó el maná para comer. Tan pronto como fueron capaces de disfrutar de los frutos de la Tierra Prometida dejaron de recibir el maná. De la misma manera, las bendiciones de Dios para nosotros pueden cambiar a través de los años, pero es importante confiar que Dios siempre nos proveerá de todo lo que necesitamos.
