Letter From Sister Rosaline Walters

Dear Parishioners,

When we bury those we love, we lose all that they learned in life. We begin to wonder. What lives on? It is at this point that the grave becomes a place where FAITH must begin. We may ask ourselves “exactly what do I believe about God?” Yet, none of us knows what lies beyond death, probably because no one has ever come back to tell us. To the renowned author Henri Nouwen death is the trust that trapeze artists have with one another. One person lets go, trusting that the other will catch her or him.

Christians are very much like this. We hope that the God who created us and sustains us in this world will one day raise us up to be happy with him forever. Thus, we live in promise, not in certainty. We walk with Jesus who lived and died on this earth, but always trusted God, his Father and our Father.

In today’s gospel, Jesus grieves those people he loved. His friends, Martha and Mary, truly believed Jesus could have saved their brother, Lazarus, but he didn’t come in time. Take a minute or two and think about someone you have been with through sickness and death. Think about that experience and think about what you remember about their funeral and why do you remember this or those things. When Jesus learned that Lazarus was sick, he did not drop everything and go to him immediately. Instead, he stayed where he was for two more days and then said to his disciples: “Let us go back to Judea. When Jesus arrived in Bethany, he discovered that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days. This village was not very far from Jerusalem, and many people had come to console Martha and Mary over their brother’s death.

When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha proceeded to tell Jesus that if he had been there, Lazarus would not have died, and then told him that she was sure that God would give him whatever he asked. Jesus then told her: “your brother will rise again.” Martha said to Jesus that she knew her brother would rise in the resurrection on the last day. Jesus assured Martha that he was the resurrection and the life: whoever believes in him, even though he dies, will have life; and whoever is alive and believes in him will never die. Then Jesus concludes this conversation with Martha by saying to her: Do you believe this?” Martha, then gives her great testimony: “I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God; he who is to come into the world.” Martha then went back home to get Mary and told her that the Teacher was there asking for her. Jesus was waiting for her. She was followed by many of the townspeople, who thought she was going to the tomb to weep. Mary then arrived at the place where Jesus was, and fell at his feet saying that “if he had been there, Lazarus would never have died. Jesus then asked Mary: where had they laid her brother? Those who came with Mary began to question why Jesus couldn’t have stopped Lazarus from dying when it was well known that he opened the eyes of the blind man. On hearing this, Jesus went to the tomb and had the stone rolled back. Martha reminded him that there would be a terrible odor, since Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days. Jesus, in turn, reminded Martha That “if she believed she would see the glory of God. Jesus then called Lazarus to come out. This he did, with his hands and feet bound with linen strips and his face wrapped in a cloth.

Like the Samaritan Woman at the well, and the man born blind; Martha and Mary become people of the Christian community that believe and give us John’s gospel. Do I Believe?

This gospel story links Lazarus’s death with Jesus’ dearth, and Lazarus’s new life with the promise of Jesus’ resurrection. Jesus leads Lazarus and his disciples through death to life. Do I expect life everlasting? What am I doing in order to meet this expectation? Today is “Foodfull” Sunday – have we thought about those less fortunate?

Prayerfully,
Sister Ro

Bishop Dennis J. Sullivan will celebrate our Holy Thursday Mass on April 13th at 6:00 PM at Assumption Church.

Holy Thursday

Holy Thursday is the day on which Christ celebrated the Last Supper with His disciples, four days after His triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. Christ, during the last supper, reaffirmed a new commandment he gave His church. The Lord, "who came to serve and not to be served," washes the feet of his disciples. During the Mass, we remember this charity and service by having our own foot washing ritual. We are in need of twelve disciples to get their feet washed. This special Mass of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated by Bishop Dennis Sullivan. If you are willing to have your feet washed please contact Jonathan Delgado at the Parish Office (609) 522-2709 EXT 219.

Lenten Regulations

Weekdays of Lent:

There is no obligation to fast. However, voluntary acts of self-denial are recommended.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday:

These are days of Fast and Abstinence from meat.
There is a limit of one full meal on these days for all between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive.

Days of Abstinence: (All Fridays in lent)

All who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain totally from meat.

Easter Duty Obligation:

After they have received their First Holy Communion, Catholics are bound by the obligation of receiving Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept should be fulfilled during the Easter Season. Catholics are also bound to confess serious (mortal) sins at least once a year, but this is not limited to the Lenten/Easter season.

Stewardship

Stewards Believe

"Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?'"

John 11:40

Many of us say that we believe in God. We go to church on Sunday. We volunteer for events at our parish. But when life gets hard, the pressure is on, things aren't going our way, do we really believe, do we really put our trust in the Lord? When as Christian Stewards we live a life of gratitude, being thankful for the gifts we have been given, we really do see that God is providing all that we need.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, May 20, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Domingo de cada mes a las 7:00 in Santa Ana.

Clases Pre-Bautismales: El jueves anterior a la celebraci3n del bautismo a las 7:00 pm en la iglesia de Santa Ana.

Annual Fish Fry

Our Annual Fish Fry Dinner will take place on Friday April 7th at the Vegas Diner, 14th & New Jersey Avenues, North Wildwood 4:00 to 7:30 PM. Cost is $10 for adults and $5 for children tickets are available at the Parish Office and will be sold at the door.

Electronic or "e-Giving" is available to parishioners and friends of Notre Dame de la Mer Parish. It's easy to set up, and YOU have complete control of how and what you donate to the parish. It's convenient, consistent, secure and insures privacy. To register, and set up your personal account, go to Notre Dame de la Mer Parish Web Page and click on the link on the front page. Please follow the directions. And if you're interested, coupon slips can be printed so you have something to place in the collection baskets. If you have questions, or concerns, there is a FAQ section that should help you in your decision. Be sure to visit Parish Pay. Thank you for your generosity.
