April 13, 2025
Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
Faithful Stewards

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (LUKE 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet so not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up in Stewardship and enter into a respectful conversation when the opportunity to talk about our faith arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.

Dear Parishioner,

Today the Church celebrates this Sixth Sunday in Lent as both Palm and Passion Sunday. Jesus went to Jerusalem to join other Jews to celebrate the Passover feast. Palm/Passion Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As recorded in the Gospels, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a donkey with the townspeople waving branches and palms in front of Him as a sign of homage. This was a customary practice for people of great respect. Palm branches are a symbol of peace and victory and the use of a donkey instead of a horse represents the humble arrival of someone in peace. The very people who cheered and applauded Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem, will, shortly be shouting "Crucify Him."

The Holy Week liturgy presents us with the actual events of the dying and rising of Jesus. This liturgy broken into Three Days enables us to experience in our lives here and now what Jesus went through then. Just as Jesus did, we too must lay down our lives freely by actively participating in the Holy Week liturgies. In doing so, we are allowing Jesus to forgive us our sins, heal the wounds in us caused by our sins and the sins of others and transform us more completely into the image and likeness of God.

The Sacred Triduum will be held at The Church of the Assumption and begin on Holy Thursday, Mass will commemorate the Last Supper of Jesus with His disciples. Holy Thursday celebrates the institution of the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Jesus Christ and the institution of the sacrament of the priesthood (be sure and wish your parish priests a Happy Anniversary on this special day!). Twelve parishioners will have their feet washed during the Mass to represent Jesus washing the feet of His disciples, the first priests (if you are willing to take part in this please call me at the Parish Offices).

The commemoration of the crucifixion of Jesus and His death at Calvary will be held at 3PM on Friday. The service is broken into three parts: the Liturgy of the Word, the Adoration of the Cross, and Holy Communion. Good Friday is a day of fasting and abstinence.

The Easter Vigil ("the mother of all vigils") begins on Saturday at 8PM. The Vigil is packed with symbolism and meaning. Our parish is blessed to have 5 Catechumens who will be initiated into the Church by receiving Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation.

Let us remember that Holy Week can only become "holy" for us if we actively and consciously take part in these most sacred Three Days. The very moving spiritual "Were You There" asks the question, "Were you there when they crucified my Lord? Were you there when they nailed Him to a tree?" The answer is yes. Yes, we were there in the crowd on both days, shouting 'Hosanna!' and later 'Crucify Him!' Let us again be with Him this week and as Simon the Cyrene did, help Him carry his Cross as He helps us every day to carry our very own crosses.

May this coming week be the holiest week for you all!

Sincerely,

Jonathan Delgado

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Isaiah 50:4-7

God helps us.

- The first reading from Isaiah is one of four passages that focus on the "servant" of God.
- In all four examples, the servant is faithful, even in the face of suffering.
- The servant in today's passage stands by his belief that with God on his side, he will not be put to shame.

Reading II : Philippians 2:6-11

God's name is holy.

- Scripture scholars believe that today's second reading was a familiar early Christian hymn.
- The purpose of Paul's hymn for the Philippians is to persuade the community to be united in Christ.
- Paul uses the example of Jesus' self emptying obedience to encourage the community to end its divisions.

Gospel : Luke 22:14-23:56

Jesus shows us how to love.

- Similar to the description of the servant of Isaiah, Jesus willingly accepted the suffering and anguish that can be the price of fidelity.
- Throughout the Gospel of Luke, Jesus is depicted as the faithful prophet who speaks God's word even in the midst of his own suffering.
- In today's account of the Passion of Christ, Luke emphasizes the innocence of Jesus.

Saint of the Week:

Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop and Doctor, c. 315-386

Cyril was a great teacher of the early Church. Because of Cyril's teaching skills, the bishop of Jerusalem asked him to prepare catechumens for Baptism. Cyril explained the beliefs of the Church to the catechumens. His lectures on the creed and the sacraments are the best records of the kind of instruction that catechumens were given in the early Church. Even after Cyril himself became the bishop of Jerusalem, he continued to give these lectures because he considered the work so important. In 381, Cyril and Gregory both attended the Council of Constantinople where an amended Nicene Creed was adopted. At this council, many of his contemporaries praised Cyril as a champion of orthodoxy against Arianism.

Fest Day: An optional memorial honors St. Cyril on March 18. In 1882, Pope Leo XIII declared him a Doctor of the Church.

Cyril's message today: Cyril took a strong stand for what he believed in. At the cost of placing ourselves in the middle of controversy, we too must sometimes stand up for what we believe.

- Do you tend to "go along with the crowd" or do you defend those things you strongly believe in?

Our Lady of Fatima Procession

Our Blessed Mother of God, made three appearances to young children in Portugal. She told them beginning On May 13, 1917, there would be six appearances over 6 months. On the final appearance, Our Blessed Virgin Mother Mary would reveal herself to the world. She appeared to three Children, in a small village near Fatima Portugal. They were Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco. Over the next 6 months, The Immaculate Heart of Mary, accurately prophesied that She is from Heaven, the future of the three children, world war(s), peace, concentration of Russia to Mary-otherwise continued to suffering in the world, save souls in hell, Pope's suffering and finally the "Miracle of the Sun", that happened on October 13, 1917, before 30,000 to 100,000 people.

Please join us On May 10, 9:00AM at Assumption Church, as we process from the church to Primrose and Ocean avenue, praying the Rosary. We will pray for the same things The Immaculate Heart asked in 1917, because She warned us if we do not pray these things will continue and we see they have continued. Our Prayers are needed.

Faithful Catholics have taken part in this procession over the last 5 years. The national Rosary Procession 'America Needs Fatima' takes place across the country and is sponsored by Notre Dame de La Mer. The group will sing songs, read scripture and pray the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary, as we march our way to the beach and back. We will end with cake and refreshments in Monsignor Kelly Hall.
