The Mystery of Salvation

Dear Parishioners,

The chief characteristic that we must grapple with in our faith is the fact - it is a Sacred Mystery.

As we enter into these final days, into those most sacred hours of Christ's Suffering, Death, and Resurrection, may we become ever more aware of the grandeur of its salvific power... This is only possible, when we realize it is beyond the grasp of our intellect, as well as our mysterious involvement in it. This human encounter with the living God, and the love He displays for each one of us... even as our sins drive Christ to the Holy Cross... It is not simply something we can fully understand like a lot of other things in life. We are bewildered at this event - of the Unknowable God, revealing His unfathomable love to all humanity.

I truly believe this is one of the major reasons people leave the faith. They oddly think they understand this mystery, but stray in the torn garments of miscalculation. Fr. Guardini clarifies an important lesson in faith when he writes, "The mind must never allow itself to be misled into seeming "comprehension". Once this occurs, people begin to think our faith is like any other subject, which we can learn and master. The idea of totally comprehending the faith causes many people to err contrary to Church teaching or wield her Church teaching as a weapon. Worst of all, this seeming "comprehension" leads people to think they fully understand Christianity, and often leads some to abandon the Sacraments which are essential for our salvation.

In most human actions we know the end for which we are acting. It is clear in our interior vision before we even act. But in faith in Christ, there is a mystery always eluding and drawing us ever deeper into the love of God. The Triune God lifts us up beyond ourselves in this Sacred Mystery as we are called to partake in the New Eternal Covenant. We can never fully pierce this mystery, or how our sins pierced Him... Knowledge of our incapacity to fully know the faith will always dominate our every thought. But in obedience to our Mother the Church, we journey with Christ the Savior. As He gradually shows us the way, taking our sins and those of the whole world upon Himself, He 'proceeded on His Journey up to Jerusalem.'

A Blessed Palm Sunday,
Paul

ALERT

Friends,

Unfortunately, the Assisted Suicide Bills passed both houses on Monday, March 26. The bill is now on Governor Murphy's desk. Hope is slim but there is one last important thing you can do: Please call the Governor's office at (609) 292-6000, give your name and tell the aide you oppose the assisted suicide bills (A1405/S1072) passed by the legislature and ask that Governor Murphy veto them. Note: You are not asked for your contact information, only your name. Physicians should identify themselves as such.

Stewardship

April 14, 2019

Palm Sunday

Stewards Speak Up

"I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me. " (LUKE 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about Jesus or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, do you remain quiet because you believe people will think negatively about you? Pray for the courage to live Stewardship by speaking up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your support of the 2019 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Would you be interested in memorializing a new Paschal Candle Holder and Altar Candles for St. Ann Church? If so please call Jon Delgado at the parish office 609.522.2709, x. 219

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- During Holy Week we remember and celebrate the depth of God's love for us. Ask each member of the family to share how he or she can spread God's love at home this week.
- Display the new palm branches that each member of the family brings home from church in a prominent place where everyone can see them. The branches are a reminder of what Jesus did for us, his death and resurrection. Focus on welcoming Jesus as king in your home and in your hearts.
- What can you do this Holy Week to help make it special for you and your family? How will you take time out as a family to celebrate the upcoming Triduum?

Sign up books for are at the back of each church and in Msgr. Kelly Hall. If you cannot commit to a specific time for a month or two, please consider signing up to be a sub. AND please remember to sign in when you get to adoration. Thank you so much. God will truly bless you in a special way.

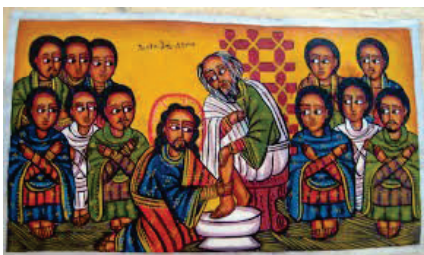

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, April 15, 2019
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Holy Thursday "Washing of the Feet"

Holy Thursday is the day on which Christ celebrated the Last Supper with His disciples, four days after His triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. Christ, during the last supper, reaffirmed a new commandment he gave His church. The Lord, "who came to serve and not to be served," washes the feet of his disciples. During the Mass, we remember this charity and service by having our own foot washing ritual. We are in need of twelve disciples to get their feet washed. If you are willing to have your feet washed please contact Jonathan Delgado at the Parish Office (609) 522-2709 EXT 219 or stop by the welcome center.

Placing of Easter Flowers

Volunteers needed to help beautify our parish for the most Holy Sacred night and season. We will be meeting on April 20th at 10:30am in St. Ann's Church and 1:00pm at the Assumption Church. Bring the whole family! Please call Jude Kelly 609-972-9051 or Jonathan Delgado 609-522-2709 x219 to sign up. Times are subject to change

Still in search of anyone interested in offering their TIME to help us keep our beautiful worship sites clean.

Journey to the Foot of the Cross...10 things to remember for Lent (Part 2: Items 6 –10)

- Don't do too much. It's tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it's best to keep it simple and focused. There's a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don't try to cram it all in one Lent. That's a recipe for failure.
- Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we're all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful, but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God's help with renewed urgency and sincerity.
- Be patient with yourself. When we're confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. "What a bad person I am!" But that's the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.
- Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love.
- Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.
