Stewardship

April 14, 2024
3rd Sunday of Easter

Stewardship Life

“Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ But they were startled and frightened...” - LUKE 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to “see the face of Jesus” in others and to “be the face of Jesus” to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide “peace” to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a “God-centered” life of Stewardship and not a “self-centered” life.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear parishioners,

The readings for the 3rd Sunday in Easter encourage us to truly believe in the resurrection of Jesus Christ and to accept his love. In the gospel the risen Jesus appears to his disciples and helps them understand his death and resurrection.

Knowledge, you see, isn't based simply on the acquisition of facts, information, and data. True knowledge is seeing things based on wisdom and understanding. Religious knowledge is seeing reality based on the gifts of the Holy Spirit, particularly His gifts of wisdom, understanding, and knowledge.

My friends, encountering Jesus is about recognizing God's love living among us. This is a wonderful passage from Luke, because Luke lets us know that Jesus seeks us out when we are troubled with doubts about ourselves, the world in which we live, our painful lives, all of these things. When we don't know what to do, when we feel maybe that even God has abandoned us, it is Jesus who comes to us. And he just appears.

Indeed, He appears in their midst and the first words he says are: "Peace. Peace be with you."

What kind of peace?

Truth be told, the peace that Jesus speaks of is the shalom that we all seek in the depths of our heart, in other words, a harmony between God and man, a harmony that is so deep that there is only caring and mutual forgiving, sharing, and a new world that God really intended gradually comes into being.

My friends, the trouble with the world today is not that it's bad or not that it's good. The trouble with the world today is it's so cluttered. It's so cluttered that people have forgotten how simple life is and this is what Jesus has come to teach us.

Do you want to know what life is?

Love one another. Care for each other. Sacrifice for each other. And then you will know that God is with you and will carry you forth, and you need to be afraid of nothing, not even death, for there is no death in God, there's a transition from life to life.

May you soon have some time to make your own Emmaus time. And may you come to recognize Him not only in the breaking of the bread but in all those other moments where God tries to break in on our time and walk with us as we face all of the remarkable events life hurls at us.

For without His presence with us we certainly will feel depressed and defeated.

Peace be with you. Do not be afraid!

May God our father give you grace and peace!

Reading I: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

God raised Christ from the dead.

- In the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter explains that Jesus is the fulfillment of the ancient messianic promises.
- Jesus, the Messiah, who died and was raised to new life, brought a new life of peace and right relationship with God.
- Through Jesus, God's merciful love is available to all those who seek it.

Reading II: 1 John 2:1-5

Whoever keeps God's word has love made perfect.

- The first part of the second reading reminds believers that sin still exists in the world.
- Believers must walk in light because God is light.
- Christ, who lives in a totally loving relationship with the Father, is also the Advocate who pleads our cause with the Father.

Gospel: Luke 24:35-48

He stood in their midst.

- The author of today's Gospel attempts to tell us that Jesus' resurrection involves the whole person, body and spirit.
- After his resurrection, when Jesus eats with the disciples, they recognize him in the breaking of bread.
- Life in Christ is a life of forgiveness and peace.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Ask each member of your family to discuss one way in which the Resurrection of Jesus makes their relationship with God stronger.
- Discuss how it is sometimes hard to see Jesus' presence in certain situations that occur in our world. Give examples of specific situations. In what way could family members see Jesus' presence in similar situations in the future?
- Make a list of life events that have occurred in the history of your family that were examples of God's mercy. Discuss why that mercy was not deserved. Does God decide that one person (or persons) deserves mercy over another?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Diocesan Holy Year 2025 Pilgrimage Rome & the Shrines of Italy

For more than 700 years, the Roman Catholic Church has celebrated jubilee years. First every 100 years, then in accord with biblical precedent every 50 years, and finally every 25 years to make pilgrimage graces more accessible to the faithful. Next year, 2025, the Church will celebrate an ordinary jubilee with the theme, Pilgrims of Hope.

Join people from across the Diocese of Camden for this Pilgrimage of Hope March 24 through April 2 and visit Rome, Montecasino, the Shrine of Saint Padre Pio, the Cave of Saint Michael, Lanciano, Loreto, Assisi, Bolsena, Orvieto and much more.

For more information visit www.pilgrimages.com/frhughes/italy or contact Father Hughes at Roert.Hughes@camdendiocese.org.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be April 15th at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

New Bible Study Opportunity

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Join us for A Biblical Walk Through the Mass in Msgr. Kelly Hall at Assumption Church beginning at 11:00 am on 4/24, 5/1, 5/8, 5/15, 5/22, 5/29.

The cost of materials is $26.95. This includes a reading book and a workbook. Please RSVP by 4/8 if you want them ordered for you.

On 4/24 there will be a brief introduction and book pick-up. The sessions will begin on 5/1 and last approximately 1:30 minutes.

Contact: Donnamarie Sexton 609-522-2709, ext. 218 or dsexton@notredamedelamer.org

If anyone is interested in running an evening study let me know.

RESPECT LIFE

Building a culture that cherishes and protects every human life.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Respect Life Ministry strives to build a culture that supports and protects every human life through prayer, education and action by working to affirm the sacredness of life from the moment of conception to a natural death while also promoting the importance and sanctity of marriage and family.

Our Respect Life group meets the first Monday of the month.

If you would like to join in the fight to respect life from conception until natural death, please contact:

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and law enforcement.

Wildwood Catholic

Shadow A Student

We have Shadow Days open for prospective students to join us and come visit the school. It is a great opportunity to meet students and faculty, go through a class schedule, and spend a day in the life of a Crusader.

Applications

At this time we are accepting applications for the 2024/2025 school year and also for transfer students for this year. Applications can be completed on our website, or a hard copy can be downloaded and sent to the school. If you would like to schedule an appointment to come in and sit down with an admissions representative, we would be happy to walk you through the process and have your child's application completed and reviewed on the same day.

Reach Out

Please let us know if you would like to schedule a Shadow Day, a family tour, or an admissions appointment. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out.

We are looking forward to welcoming you into the building and sharing more about Wildwood Catholic Academy and all we have to offer.
