Stewardship

April 16, 2023

Divine Mercy Sunday

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." COLOSSIANS 3:2

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Dear Parishioner,

Spring is here, along with the blooming flowers and our risen Lord. It is a special time of refocusing, gaining refreshed mindsets, and appreciating the little things, which have proven to be some of our biggest blessings. We appreciate all our time spent with family and friends. This includes our Notre Dame de la Mer and Wildwood Catholic Academy families. On behalf of Wildwood Catholic Academy, please accept our appreciation for your continued support.

Your support helps us fulfill one of Jesus' commands from the Book of Matthew. "Jesus said, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.'" Matthew 19:14. We see this accomplished every day at Wildwood Catholic Academy. During the Easter season, the students made sandwiches for the needy, participated in Mass as sacristans and sent donations to the Lazarus House. This is just a sampling of their Christian acts throughout the year.

Wildwood Catholic Academy offers young people the possibility of a daily encounter with Jesus Christ within the context of a high-quality education. We are thankful for all of the families that send their children to Catholic schools. To those of you who work or volunteer, thank you for sharing your time, talents and Catholic faith with our community. Without you, the ministry of our Catholic schools would not be possible.

There is much to give thanks for and this is always part of our Catholic school culture in which generosity and gratitude flourishes. Here at Wildwood Catholic Academy, we pray every morning, attend Mass and serve others. I know that God is hearing our prayers and I am hopeful for what the future holds.

May God bless,

Louise Fourney

Readings of the Week

Reading I: : Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to a communal life.

- A picture of the early Christian community is given in today's first reading from Acts of the Apostles.
- The Jerusalem Christians met together with joyful hearts.
- The early Christians lived in the reality of new life in Jesus.

Reading II: 1 Peter 1:3-9

There is cause for rejoicing here.

- The First Letter of Peter is a strong witness to the power of faith.
- The author bursts forth in song, praising God whose gift of faith is our realization of new life, new birth.
- We are delivered from death for life in the Lord.

Gospel : John 20:19-31

Peace be with you, he said.

- In the Gospel reading, we see more than a Resurrection appearance of Jesus to his disciples; we also see their joy and the transformation of their lives.
- Because of the new courage that followed from their faith, the disciples move from a state of fear to joy.
- The second half of the Gospel depicts Thomas' struggle to believe in the Resurrection. The passage challenges Christians to do better, to believe without seeing.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- The gift of new life that we have been given through the Resurrection of Jesus is celebrated in Baptism. Discuss the following questions: What are the promises we made at Baptism. What does Baptism require of us today? How can we continue to grow in faith?
- Plant a tree to help your family continue its celebration of Easter. Let it be a symbol of your family's faith as both grow and mature.
- Recall the example of the early Christian Community found in today's first reading and talk about ways that your family can grow as a strong unit. Tell each member of your family what he or she does to help make this a strong, loving, happy family. Discuss: What do we share in this family? What draws us together and makes us one as a family?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be April 17th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

LITURGY CORNER

The Divine Mercy Message and Devotion

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that all the graces of His mercy can only be received by our trust. The more we open the door of our hearts and lives to Him with trust, the more we can receive.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread.

The message and devotional practices proposed in the Diary of Saint Faustina and set forth are completely in accordance with the teachings of Church and are firmly rooted in the Gospel message of our Merciful Savior. Properly understood and implemented, they will help us grow as genuine followers of Christ.

For additional information go to: [www.thedivine mercy.org](http://www.thedivine mercy.org)

Thank you to those who have donated to our Easter Flowers. The flower donation envelopes as well as the Easter remembrance envelopes will be present on the altar throughout the Easter season.
