Stewardship

April 21, 2024
4th Sunday of Easter

Stewards Listen

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice."

- JOHN 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants from his Steward? How do you listen for His response? Many times, Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear Friends,

When Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep", the concept He was trying to illustrate through His metaphor was salvation. Throughout this passage, He contrasts a good shepherd with that of a hired hand. The hired hand runs when the flock is in trouble because they do not love the flock as Jesus, the Good Shepherd, does. And in effect, Jesus is saying literally and metaphorically that He is present to save humanity.

A good shepherd guides his sheep to good pastures, leading them to food and water. Jesus does the same for believers. He accomplishes this through His teachings in the Bible, and in His presence within our lives as God. Much as a shepherd looks after his flock, so does God look after us, His children.

A good shepherd provides for his sheep. A herd of animals may survive on their own in the wilderness, but a herd taken care of by a good shepherd is bound to live a more abundant life. The same applies to humanity when we strive to live lives in tandem with God. God provides us with shelter, money, and other resources so we can live abundantly. At times He may allow for moments when we go without, but even in times when we lack specific resources, God is always providing what He knows we need even though it might not be what we think we want.

A good shepherd protects his flock because he cares for his herd who are valuable to him. We are all children of God and therefore are of great value. He will protect us at all costs even with His life. As Jesus said in today's Gospel, a good shepherd will lay "down his life for the sheep." That's exactly what Jesus did for us on the Cross. Think about this... Jesus spoke these words before dying on our behalf. This is all the more reason to cement our faith and believe!

God is present throughout all seasons of life, and thankfully even in those seasons where we don't acknowledge His presence. We do not need to fear because the almighty God will guide us, provide for us, and will protect us. Realizing that God is our good shepherd should calm our doubts, fears, and insecurities. Seeing God as our good shepherd recognizes the deep love and care He has for us, a love unlike any we can find here on earth. God is indeed our good shepherd, and with that truth, we can strive to be His good, loving, and obedient sheep.

God Bless,
Donnamarie Sexton

Reading I: Acts 4:8-12

Jesus has become our cornerstone!

- The reading from the Acts of the Apostles follows the story of the arrest of Peter and John and includes Peter's speech to the authorities who are interrogating them.
- Peter restates the basic truth of the resurrection: Death is conquered and life won through the death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth.
- The authorities release Peter and John, who immediately return to preaching the good news.

Reading II: 1 John 3:1-2

We shall be like him: light!

- The reading from the First Letter of John is another description of the relationship between God and people.
- God has made us children through and with Christ.
- Because we are God's children, then, we must be like God.

Gospel: John 10:11-18

Jesus is our good shepherd.

- In the gospel passage, Jesus describes three traits of an ideal shepherd.
- These traits also characterize Jesus' relationship to his followers.
- Jesus calls his sheep by name, and they follow wherever he leads

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Jesus, the Good Shepherd, shows us the way. Together, compose a prayer that describes how your family follows the way of Jesus. Tell of how Jesus, the Good Shepherd, guides you in your daily lives.
- Look up sheep or goats in the encyclopedia, or find a storybook about them. Read the text or the story together, and discuss how animals depend on us to take care of them. Remind family members that Jesus tells us that he is the Good Shepherd. Talk about how Jesus takes care of us.
- Reflect on how Jesus leads us by means of his Church. How are our leaders like shepherds? What qualities of the Good Shepherd do you bring to the Church?
