Stewardship Listening

4th Sunday of Easter

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice."

John 10:14-16

When we pray, as Stewards, do we only ask Jesus for the things that we want? Do we ever ask Him what He wants from us? How do we listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Your support of the 2021
House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ throughout Southern New Jersey.

We are all Faces of Hope.

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelaMer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Dear Parishioner,

Today is known as Good Shepherd Sunday because, in each year of the liturgical cycle on this 4th Sunday, the Gospel is always taken from the 10th chapter of John where Jesus speaks to himself as the “good shepherd”.

Jesus emphasizes that, in giving his life for his sheep, he is doing so of his own will. It is not just by force of circumstances. His death is to be living proof that “the greatest love a person can show is to give one’s life for one’s friends”. This is the proof that Jesus truly is a Good Shepherd.

How appropriate that today is also “Vocations Sunday” which clearly is intimately linked with Good Shepherd Sunday. On this day we are asked to pray that the church may be provided with the leaders needed to do its work of spreading the Gospel. We know that at the present time there is a critical shortage of such leaders, at least in the traditional sense, priests and religious. Let us remember the wider meaning to the word vocation and not limit that word to a calling to become a priest or a member of a religious institute, as every single one of us has a vocation. For many of us our vocation may be parents, teachers, spouses, doctors etc... We should ask ourselves today is what I am spending my energies on every day my real vocation? Is this what God wants me to be doing with my life? What contribution am I offering to make this world a better place for people to live in? Is God calling me to greater service in my Church and my community? Am I giving something through my life or am I just using society (and even the Church) to get what I want? These are deep questions that I find myself getting lost in thought and prayer about my own callings and vocations.

As we continue to pray for vocations let us also continue to pray for Thomas Piro, our Seminarian who has answered that call and is working, studying and praying towards becoming a shepherd of the church.

I would also like to welcome Daniel Hearn, our newest Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and lector. Welcome and thank you for answering this very important vocation to ministry!

May you continue to have a Blessed Eastertide.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Delgado
Director of Worship and Music

Sunday Readings

Reading I : Acts 4:8-12

Jesus has become our cornerstone!

- The reading from the Acts of the Apostles follows the story of the arrest of Peter and John and includes Peter's speech to the authorities who are interrogating them.
- Peter restates the basic truth of the resurrection: Death is conquered and life won through the death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth.
- The authorities release Peter and John, who immediately return to preaching the good news.

Reading II: 1 John 3:1-2

We shall be like him: light!

- The reading from the First Letter of John is another description of the relationship between God and people.
- God has made us children through and with Christ.
- Because we are God's children, then, we must be like God.

Gospel: John 10:11-18

Jesus is our good shepherd.

- In the gospel passage, Jesus describes three traits of an ideal shepherd.
- These traits also characterize Jesus' relationship to his followers.
- Jesus calls his sheep by name, and they follow wherever he leads.

Family Reflection Corner

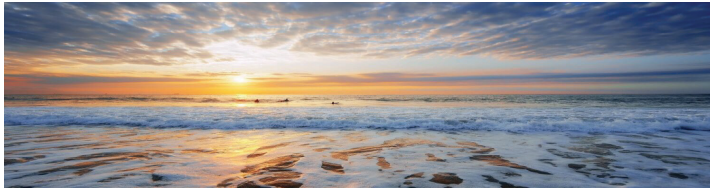

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Jesus, the Good Shepherd, shows us the way. Together, compose a prayer that describes how your family follows the way of Jesus. Tell of how Jesus, the Good Shepherd, guides you in your daily lives.
- Look up sheep or goats in the encyclopedia, or find a storybook about them. Read the text or the story together, and discuss how animals depend on us to take care of them. Remind family members that Jesus tells us that he is the Good Shepherd. Talk about how Jesus takes care of us.
- Reflect on how Jesus leads us by means of his Church. How are our leaders like shepherds? What qualities of the Good Shepherd do you bring to the Church?
- Use Psalm 23 as your family prayer this week.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director.
Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Adoro Te Devote

Hidden God, devoutly I adore thee, truly present underneath these veils: all my heart subdues itself before thee, since it all before thee faints and fails.

This stanza of Adoro Te Devote addresses the true presence of the hidden God. The veil that Aquinas writes about refers to the form of bread and wine. The form is the appearance to us. What we perceive is not what is present. What, or more properly speaking, Who is present is the Lord Jesus Christ, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity. Before this simple appearance, is the Creator of the universe; the Word made flesh. Before him, we bow our heads in humility. We recognize that we are his creatures.

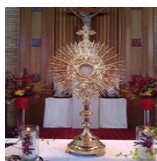

When praying over this verse, the idea of giving my whole heart struck me. Why the heart? Simple, the heart has always been associated with our feelings, particularly love. The Most Blessed Sacrament is the Sacramentum Caritatis (Sacrament of Love/Charity). In this wonderful Sacrament, we experience a glimpse of heaven. We are able to unite ourselves to Christ in a unique way. The heart also encompasses the totality of a person. When we come before the Blessed Sacrament, whether during Mass or outside of Mass, do we present our whole selves? Do we present our joys, our struggles, our true identity? Or do we try to hide certain aspects about ourselves from our Creator?

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date

4to. Domingo de Pascua

"Yo soy el buen pastor... y doy mi vida por mis ovejas... y ellas escucharan mi voz."
- Juan 10:14-16

¿Cuándo usted reza solo le pide a Jesús las cosas que quiere? ¿Alguna vez le ha preguntado lo que Él quiere de usted? ¿Cómo escucha usted Su respuesta? Muchas veces Jesús responde en "tenues susurros" que no son obvios. Así, que tome tiempo cada día, en silencio, para escuchar activamente por su voz.

Probablemente serán vía Zoom, en el siguiente boletín se va a concretizar si es con Zoom o no. Muchas gracias. Por ser pacientes con nosotros. Estas charlas son necesarias para casarse en la Iglesia, después de terminar el ciclo de charlas se les entrega el certificado necesario para registrarse en la parroquia y poner la fecha de su boda. Aunque su matrimonio no está pronto sería bueno hacer las charlas ahora, no se van a dar de nuevo hasta octubre.
