Dear Friends,

Your prayers are answered A testimonial April 2024

At Notre Dane de la Mer we have several groups dedicated to prayer alone with intentions and names of those we pray for. Every morning before daily Mass the Rosary and intentions are said. After every morning Mass the Chapel of Divine Mercy is said. Every Wednesday night at 7pm Scripture, Liturgy and Rosary are said. Every other Saturday the Men's group says a Rosary with supplication. In all of these, we prayer for those names who needs God's mercy along with our own intentions, we ask for God's mercy.

What I want to share, and you read with your own eyes, is God's answer. He always answers whether we hear it or accept it. My brother-in-law (my big sister's husband), called us awhile back to share bad news he received. He was diagnosed with kidney cancer. His family and my family were very saddened.

Here is the rest of the story!

“Dear Brothers and Sisters in Prayer:

My name is Tom and I am Chuck Mirarchi's brother-in-law. Chuck asked you to include me in your prayers as I had been recently diagnosed with a malignant growth on one of my kidneys. This diagnosis hit all of us like a pile of bricks. We were not expecting anything like that. Chuck and Beth were the first people we told and Chuck immediately said he would add me to your prayer list. That night, as I lay in bed with a million thoughts going through my head, I began my evening prayers. I had not even got to the part where I was going to ask our Lord to grant me his mercy when I felt as though hands were touching me. No just touching me but internally massaging my kidney! I fell asleep knowing that Christ had graced me with his touch.

At my wife's urging, a few weeks later we met with another urologist who specialized in cancers. He looked at the same CAT Scan and told me point blank that I did not have cancer. We were dumbfounded. He said that an MRI would be more definitive than the CAT Scan and if we wanted, he would order it. The subsequent MRI results showed no cancer!

Prayer works and I am so thankful for all of your prayers. I will forever be grateful to you and you will always be in my prayers.

Vivat Jesus.”

With the testimonial from Tom, I wanted all to know God's hears us and answers us. There are other examples I can share, like the young lady we prayed for who was in kidney failure for 2 years and recently had a donor and is doing well. Then there is the gentleman who has had lymphoma for over a year and his treatments are helping him, and yet another woman with a bacterial infection, near death and now is close to a full recovery, and many more good stories.

Psalm 121 “Our help is in the Lord, who made Heaven and Earth.”

Your faithful brother in Christ,

Chuck Mirarchi.

Reading I : Acts 9:26-31

The church was at peace.

- In the reading for the Acts of the Apostles, the disciples were unwilling to believe in Paul's radical conversion.
- Through the influence of Barnabas, the disciples come to believe in the conversion of a former enemy.
- The early Church begins to learn the strength of God's grace and forgiveness.

Reading II : 1 John 3:18-24

We are called to believe and to love one another.

- The passage from the First Letter of John declares that if we truly live in God, we will love in deed as well as word.
- Our task is to live in the life of Christ.
- We are able to do this through the Spirit given to us.

Gospel : John 15:1-8

I am the vine.

- The image of Jesus as the vine presented in today's Gospel comes from the figure of the vine common in the Old Testament.
- Jesus, the vine, is the source of life for his disciples.
- Life in Christ results in good works in the lives of his followers.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Go on a nature walk with your family and collect tree branches. When you get home, attach string to the branches and create a mobile. Remind each family member how Jesus is the vine, the support in each person's life, and how we serve as branches to spread his word to all.
- Talk about ways we stay in contact with the vine that is Jesus. Do we take time every day to pray? How often do we read the Bible? Is there a quiet place where we can go sometimes to be alone with God? Are we fruitful vines?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Shadow A Student

We have Shadow Days open for prospective students to join us and come visit the school. It is a great opportunity to meet students and faculty, go through a class schedule, and spend a day in the life of a Crusader.

Applications

At this time we are accepting applications for the 2024/2025 school year and also for transfer students for this year. Applications can be completed on our website, or a hard copy can be downloaded and sent to the school. If you would like to schedule an appointment to come in and sit down with an admissions representative, we would be happy to walk you through the process and have your child's application completed and reviewed on the same day.

Reach Out

Please let us know if you would like to schedule a Shadow Day, a family tour, or an admissions appointment. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out.

We are looking forward to welcoming you into the building and sharing more about Wildwood Catholic Academy and all we have to offer.
