Stewardship

May 4, 2025
Third Sunday of Easter
Stewards Love

"...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (JOHN 21:17)

How often in Stewardship do you actually say the words "I love you" to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all were made by love and for love. Tell someone you love them every day.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive.

Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through items like stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts.

Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear Friends,

Let's face the fact: God believes in second chances. Throughout history, the concept of a second chance has captivated hearts and minds, reminding us that redemption is always within reach. That is another "plus" for us who desire it as we live out our days on earth.

The bible tells of several "second chance people" whose lives took unexpected turns, often leading them down paths fraught with mistakes. Samson and David come to mind from the pages of the Old Testament. But for us today the spotlight falls on St. Peter, the man featured in two of our three Readings for today's Mass.

We read of Peter's denial transformed into steadfast leadership of the Church. As we delve deeper into his remarkable tale, I think we can take encouragement and enjoy the Holy Spirit's inspiration that lets us embrace our own imperfections and even seek new beginnings in our own lives. After all, Peter is a saint and our first pope!

We know that Peter was one of Our Lord's closest disciples. Yet he was also a person who experienced a major failure in loyalty to Christ. You remember Holy Thursday night in the High priest's courtyard. "I tell you I do not know the man!" Peter swore to the maid. As Bishop Sheen put it: "Judas got His lips, but Peter got His eyes." With that, Peter wept bitterly. This is the same impetuous man who had confidently declared that he would never deny Jesus, even if it meant facing death. However, when the moment of testing came, Peter denied knowing Jesus three times as Jesus was arrested and taken to trial. That denial was not just a failure of courage, but a deep betrayal of the One he had vowed to follow. Awful! But that is truly you and me when we sin.

But what do we read or hear today? That after Jesus' resurrection, Peter's shame and regret were met grace! In one of the most moving scenes in the New Testament, Jesus asked Peter three times "Do you love Me? –mirroring the three times Peter had denied Him. With each response, Jesus restored Peter and gave him a new mission to "feed His sheep" and continue the work of spreading the Gospel, as he does courageously before the Sanhedrin in today's excerpt from Acts. "I shall obey God rather than men and continue to preach His name!"

So, today's main takeaway is this: Our failures do not define us! Jesus offers forgiveness, restoration and purpose even after our worst moments of betrayal. This is the Gospel. And today He comes to us in Holy Communion. Does God believe in second chances? Count your own number and answer the question, if you will.

God love you and give you His peace.

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

We are all witnesses to all this.

- The trial of the disciples described in Acts was their second trial before the Sanhedrin (the highest court of justice in Jerusalem).
- The disciples were arrested for disobeying the order to never speak in Jesus' name again.
- In today's passage, the order not to speak of Jesus is repeated by the Sanhedrin.

Reading II : Revelation 5:11-14

The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, wealth, glory, and blessing.

- The vision from Revelation presents the heavenly witness to the Risen Christ.
- The hymn of praise begins with the voice of angels, all living creatures, and the elders.
- The response comes from every creature in heaven and on earth, everything in the universe.

Gospel : John 21:1-19

Jesus stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

- After the resurrection, the disciples returned to their homes in Galilee and to their former occupation of fishing.
- Suddenly, the appearance of the Risen Christ transforms all aspects of the disciples' lives.
- In the final chapter of today's Gospel, Peter's three denials of Jesus are matched by Jesus' threefold commission to take care of his flock.

Saint of the Week:

Elizabeth Ann Seton, Religious Mother, 1774-1821

Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton was born in New York City on August 28, 1774, just two years before the Declaration of Independence was signed. She was married to William Seton and they had five children. After he died, she observed Catholicism in action through a compassionate couple with whom she was staying. She became convinced that the Catholic Church led back to the Apostles and to Christ. After her return to the United States in 1805, she became a Catholic and later a nun, co-founding the Sisters of Charity. Elizabeth Ann Seton became the first American-born saint when she was canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1975.

Feast Day: She is honored by a Memorial on January 4th.

Elizabeth's message today: Accepting our faith sometimes leads to rejection by those we love. Remembering that God loves both us and those who have forsaken us can help to ease the pain of rejection. We must learn to pray not just for those who love us and accept us, but also for those who have turned their backs on us.

- Have you prayed for those who have rejected you?
Have you forgiven them?

Our Lady of Fatima Procession

Our Blessed Mother of God, made three appearances to young children in Portugal. She told them beginning On May 13, 1917, there would be six appearances over 6 months. On the final appearance, Our Blessed Virgin Mother Mary would reveal herself to the world. She appeared to three Children, in a small village near Fatima Portugal. They were Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco. Over the next 6 months, The Immaculate Heart of Mary, accurately prophesied that She is from Heaven, the future of the three children, world war(s), peace, concentration of Russia to Mary—otherwise continued to suffering in the world, save souls in hell, Pope's suffering and finally the "Miracle of the Sun", that happened on October 13, 1917, before 30,000 to 100,000 people.

Please join us On May 10, 9:00AM at Assumption Church, as we process from the church to Primrose and Ocean avenue, praying the Rosary. We will pray for the same things The Immaculate Heart asked in 1917, because She warned us if we do not pray these things will continue and we see they have continued. Our Prayers are needed.

Faithful Catholics have taken part in this procession over the last 5 years. The national Rosary Procession 'America Needs Fatima' takes place across the country and is sponsored by Notre Dame de La Mer. The group will sing songs, read scripture and pray the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary, as we march our way to the beach and back. We will end with cake and refreshments in Monsignor Kelly Hall.

WHEN: May 10, 9:00AM at Assumption Church,
