Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

May 6, 2018
Sixth Sunday of Easter

Dear Friends,

The fifty days of Easter are a time for all the baptized (as well as those who have gone through the RCIA journey) to focus specifically on remembering our initiation into the banquet of the Lamb.

For the newly received into the Catholic Faith (and for all of us) this period is called Mystagogy. It is a time of valuing the mystery of God...noticing and appreciating the positive aspects of life. You see, the mystery of God is something that makes us feel so immensely close to God and at the same time so in awe of the tremendous, incomprehensible wonder of God. Indeed, every time we gather to celebrate the sacraments (mystery), we enter deeply into the mysterious love of God. We experience this divine mystery most fully in the Eucharist.

Mystagogy is simply participating in what all baptized Christians are called to do. That is to say, recognizing that reflecting on the mysteries is first and foremost a liturgical experience that takes place in the midst of the Sunday assembly. Indeed, there, with eyes and ears newly opened by the sacraments we see and hear Christ in a new way. In fact, we are helped to wait in hope...finding God in all things!

My friends, the Mystagogy experience looks for God's presence and at the same time provides opportunity to ask ourselves: What relationships in my life help me wait in hope for my Easter moment to arrive? What activities in my life increase my faith, hope, and love as I wait for a personal resurrection?

The Easter season reminds us that we are not alone. Jesus's resurrection assured for us the gift of companionship in our lives. No matter what we are living in our lives, we do not face it alone. God is with us, and we will never be abandoned. "God sent His only Son into the world so that we might have life through him."

Pope Francis reminds us of this in Lumen Fidei: Faith is not a light which scatters all our darkness, but a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey. To those who suffer, God does not provide arguments which explain everything; rather, his response is that of an accompanying presence of love, a history of goodness which touches every story of suffering and opens up a ray of light.

My friends, we are called to constantly reflect on our experience of God, discern its meaning, renew our commitment to our baptismal promises, and commit ourselves to living those promises in the ordinary events of our daily life.

Let us with hope-filled joy, pray that we will notice and appreciate the mystery of God and the positive aspects of life through His unconditional love for us all.

In HIS Peace!
Deacon Nicholas Danze

Stewardship

Stewardship
a way of life

Stewardship Love

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends"

John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him.. Does your Stewardship seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?
