Fifth Sunday of Easter

Letter From Sister Rosaline

Dear Parishioners,

Take a moment and think about the Creed which we recite each Sunday. Pay close attention to the wording! In the beginning of the creed we say: "I believe in God, creator of heaven and earth." At the end, we say, "I believe in the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting." So at the beginning and the end, we pray about life. This prayer teaches us that the more we know about creation, the more we know about the creator. We also begin to see ourselves as a part of something which is always expanding and changing. In creation, death is always hand in hand with life. When we look at a flower and admire its beauty, it is probably ready to become seed. We see ourselves, as part of this ever expanding and changing universe where new life is always coming forth. If this is true, then why shouldn't we believe that there is more life after this earthly life. Pray for hope in everlasting life. Do you believe Jesus's words that: "in his father's house there are many mansions." Let's ask ourselves what we are doing to get this mansion ready? How many masses have we really attended? How have we served our parish? How many visits to the Blessed Sacrament have we made? How many times have we prayed for others both living and deceased? Do we really believe the words of the creed?

The people who gave us St. John's gospel lived for at least two generations before it was written. Until the Romans destroyed the temple in 70 A.D., the Jews who followed Jesus and those who followed other rabbis could worship together. After the destruction of the temple, they no longer had a place that brought them together. Tensions began to arise between those who followed the Jewish tradition and the newly formed Christians; thus Israel's ancient religion divided into Judaism and Christianity. And, of course, Jesus' second coming didn't happen as many had hoped it would. Therefore, some began to question just what happens when Christians die. Thus John's community needed to know that there was a home for them with Jesus. The noun which we translate as mansions comes from the verb mevw which means to abide or stay. John is telling us that to be in Jesus is also to be in relationship to the Father, to abide in God, to dwell in God. Shouldn't we be thinking that heaven is a relationship, an abiding with God? Or should we be like some of the followers of Jesus? Eg. Thomas who insists that Jesus' friends neither know where Jesus is going nor the way to follow him. Jesus answers Thomas by stating that he is the way. In other words, the disciples have seen God when they see him.

Of course, there must always be someone who doesn't understand. In this case, it was Philip. Again Jesus answers him by saying: "whoever has seen me has seen the Father." Jesus then questions Philip: "How can you say, 'show us the Father?'" In Jesus' life, he teaches love, healing, and forgiveness as God's way, truth, and life. To believe in Jesus, we must continue his work, here on earth by being com- passionate toward all we meet.

Prayerfully,
Sister Ro

Stewardship

Stewards Encourage Others

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone" 1Peter 2:7b

Everyone is given unique gifts. Good Stewards are able to recognize their talents and abilities, but there are many people who are unsure of their gifts. This may make them feel worthless. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern how they might use their skills. No gift is too small or insignificant.

Electronic or "e-Giving" is available to parishioners and friends of Notre Dame de la Mer Parish. It's easy to set up, and YOU have complete control of how and what you donate to the parish. It's convenient, consistent, secure and insures privacy. To register, and set up your personal account, go to Notre Dame de la Mer Parish Web Page and click on the link on the front page. Please follow the directions. And if you're interested, coupon slips can be printed so you have something to place in the collection baskets. If you have questions, or concerns, there is a FAQ section that should help you in your decision. Be sure to visit Parish Pay. Thank you for your generosity.

A Mass of Remembrance & Healing will be celebrated by Monsignor Michael Mannion on Monday, May 15th – 7:00pm at Church of the Resurrection in Marmora for those who have suffered the loss of a child of any age. We encourage and welcome all members of the family and friends affected by the loss of this beloved child to join in this mass of celebration for the precious life that touched ours briefly, yet stays in our hearts forever! (Please bring a picture or special remembrance of your child. Roses will be available for those who have lost their child before birth.) For more information, please call: Betty at 609-425-3553 or email at elizpearce@comcast.net

Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, May 20, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.
