Stewardship

May 14, 2023

6th Sunday of Easter - Stewardship Plans

"For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God's will, than for doing evil." 1 PETER 3:17

The old line says "if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans." Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, we don't get the result we anticipated or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times, we may respond negatively and ask, "Why me? I did everything right!" Here's the thing – adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured, God has a better plan in store for his Stewards.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Friends,

Happy Mother's Day! I love that I get the honor of writing to you on this special day during this very special time of the year, Sacrament time! Last Saturday our youngest members of the church received the Eucharist for the very first time. Today they will do the honor of crowning Mary, our beautiful Blessed Mother. On Thursday of this week, the Bishop will come here to celebrate Confirmation for 51 of our young parishioners. These students have worked hard over the last two years studying our faith so that they can become full-fledged members of our wonderful Catholic Church. Please, keep them all in your prayers.

Since it is Mother's Day, I would like to take this time to share some of the wonderful things we have at this parish for our women. This past Wednesday 5/10/23 marked the end of our second successful year with a new women's group called Walking With Purpose. This Women's Bible Study has changed my life. As you all know I am the Director of Religious Education here at the parish, so I consider myself pretty faith-filled. I had no idea what I was missing and how much deeper I could go. The women I have met in this group are now life-long friends. This group is truly amazing and I hope you will consider joining us when we start again in October.

Tapping into what Mary wrote a few weeks ago about the ripple effect... because of this wonderful group of women we are now going to start another ministry called Millions of Monicas or MOM for short. While sharing faith with these women we have come to realize that many of us are in the same boat and worry about our children who have fallen away from the faith or are floundering in their faith. We had a retreat a few weeks ago where the speaker talked to us about this subject and told us about the fairly new ministry that started in Grand Rapids, MI in June of 2021. This MOM's ministry is a prayer ministry of women whose sole purpose is to pray for the joyful return of our children to full unity with our beautiful Catholic Faith. It is not a support group and no sensitive information is shared. The ministry utilizes multiple forms of prayer; Lectio Divina, Meditation, Devotional, Written, Contemplative and Songs of Worship are all encountered throughout the ministerial hour. Surrendering our loved ones to our Lord helps not only the children being prayed for but also transforms the hearts of the mothers in their sadness. Check out their website for more details <https://millionsofmonicas.com>. If you are interested in this minister at NDDLML reach out to me or keep your eye out for more details in the bulletin.

We don't want to wait to pray for our children while we are working out the details of when and where this prayer ministry will take place. Therefore, please, join us on Wednesday mornings for a prayer to St. Monica before daily mass and a rosary for all our children will be said in Kelly Hall after mass.

Thank you and God Bless,

Donnamarie Sexton

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

They prayed to receive the Holy Spirit.

- In today's first reading, we discover how people come to hear and believe in Jesus.
- The people in Samaria believed in Jesus and were baptized.
- Peter and John came from Jerusalem to pray over the Samaritans and lay their hands on them; a prayerful gesture of intercession and blessing that is still part of the Church's sacramental rituals.

Reading II: 1 Peter 3:15-18

Christ died for sins once for all.

- Today's second reading, from the First Letter of Peter, speaks of how Christians are to live.
- The passage ends with a reference to the Resurrection.
- The risen Christ lives a new and glorious life that we who have been baptized in his name and sealed with the gift of the Spirit will also receive.

Gospel: John 14:15-21

If you love me, obey my commandments.

- Today's Gospel is taken from Jesus' farewell address to his disciples.
- The author of today's Gospel emphasizes the union of Jesus with the Father and with believers.
- In Jesus, believers also stand in relationship with the Father. This relationship is made possible and real through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Take out any symbols or pictures of your Confirmation or the Confirmation of other members of the family. Talk about what you remember about the day. Discuss how the Holy Spirit was present that day and how you continue to experience the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life today.
- Discuss with your family what actions manifest the presence of the Holy Spirit in the world today. Make a list of such actions. Talk with your family about making a conscious effort to manifest the Spirit to others throughout the week.
- Pray together the Prayer of the Holy Spirit. Teach it to those members of the family who do not know it yet:

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you will renew the face of the earth.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be May 15th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

HAPPY ASCENSION THURSDAY SUNDAY!

The Feast of the Ascension of the Lord celebrates the bodily ascension of Jesus into heaven. Two of the evangelists give an account:

"Then he led them [out] as far as Bethany, raised his hands, and blessed them. As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven."-Luke 24:50-51

"So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God."-Mark 16:19

Why Thursday?

Historically, this feast was celebrated on Thursday. How was it reckoned? The Book of Acts tells of Jesus appearing to his followers for forty days after his resurrection:

"After his suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God."-Acts 1:3

The 40th day after Easter Sunday will always be Thursday, therefore the Church, from very early on, celebrated Christ's Ascension on this day.

Why the change?

This is a subject of great debate. Some say that, in recent history, attendance at Ascension Thursday Masses had been steadily declining. Consequently, the U.S. petitioned the Holy See to transfer the day in accord with Canon Law:

"With the prior approval of the Apostolic See, however, the conference of bishops can suppress some of the holy days of obligation or transfer them to a Sunday."-Code of Canon Law #1246 §2

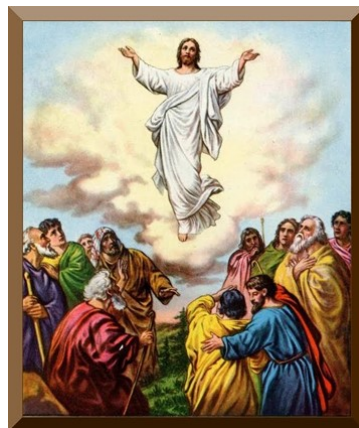

To move or not to move. Who decides?

The decision on when to celebrate the Ascension is up to the ecclesiastical province. What's that? Many Catholics (myself included) have never heard of this entity. An ecclesiastical province is a large archdiocese and other dioceses that are bound to it through geography or history. In the United States, there is typically one ecclesiastical province per state (in the Latin Rite).

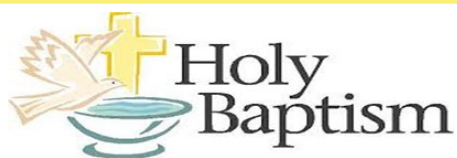

In the U.S., all ecclesiastical provinces have transferred the celebration of the Ascension to Sunday except Boston, Hartford, Philadelphia, and Omaha. Why? Perhaps because these are among the oldest provinces in the country and decided to uphold tradition.

We are not alone.

Several other countries have obtained permission from the Holy See to move the celebration of the Ascension to the following Sunday including Canada, Australia, Ireland, England and Wales.
