Stewardship Service

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” - 1 CORINTHIANS 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God’s plan to work, each Steward must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God’s plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life’s everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

From the Desk of Deacon Tom Piro

Dear Parishioners,

After 7 long years of formation, Bishop Sullivan ordained me to the Sacred Order of Deacon last Saturday in Sea Isle City! This is a huge milestone in my journey to the priesthood, and I would like to thank you, the faithful of the Wildwoods, for all your prayers and support. I thank Fr. Mazz for being the celebrant last Sunday at my first Mass as a deacon. I thank Fr. Tom, Deacon Nick, and Deacon Rich for being there to support me as well. Thank you also to all who came to support me at the ordination and the 8:30 am Mass last weekend and those who helped prepare for the Mass and reception following the 8:30 am Mass.

When handing me the Book of the Gospels, Bishop Sullivan declared I am now a herald of the Gospel. As a herald, I have been tasked to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ at every moment of my life in word and deed. Knowing myself, I am very weak and cannot do this on my own. Aware of my weakness, I take great comfort in the solemnity we celebrate today—Pentecost. On this day, we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, which enabled them to go out and proclaim the Good News to all nations. Through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, the faith spread worldwide. The Holy Spirit perpetually inspires the Church today and gives her the gifts needed to touch the hearts of those who hunger for the Prince of Peace.

The Spirit sets in motion every good work we, the Church, do such as feeding the hungry at Lazarus House, comforting those at our “Good Grief” support group, and educating our young men and women at Wildwood Catholic and those enrolled in our parish’s Religious Education Program. These good works allow us all to become heralds of the Gospel and spread the faith in our local community. We must first, however, receive the Holy Spirit; we must allow the Lord to perform our own individual Pentecost. Let us always pray for the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and decisions.

I ask that you please keep me in prayer as I begin my diaconal assignment in South Jersey (I don’t know where I’m going yet...hopefully I’m not too far away from a beach!). Please know, once again, my gratitude for everything the Notre Dame de la Mer Family has done for me. Know that you are all in my daily prayers.

God bless,
Deacon Thomas Piro

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Acts 2:1-11

All were filled with the Holy Spirit.

- In the Acts of the Apostles, the story of Pentecost occurs on the fiftieth day after Passover, the day after seven Sabbaths.
- The strong wind recalls the might wind that swept over the waters at creation and the breath of life that God blew into the human being.
- The tongues of fire at Pentecost symbolize a new call and a new covenant.

Reading II : 1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13

There are different gifts, but the same Spirit.

- In I Corinthians, Paul describes the unity of Christians who are filled with the Holy Spirit.
- They are one body, breathing with the same breath.
- The gifts of each contribute to the life of the whole.

Gospel : John 20:19-23

As the Father sent me, so I send you.

- The Gospel reading portrays the timeless events of Jesus' resurrection and the descent of the Spirit.
- Jesus breathes on the disciples, creating them anew, and proclaims the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- Filled with the Spirit, the disciples continue to spread new life and remedy the separation caused by sin as they forgive sins.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Gather as a family this week to celebrate Pentecost. Explain that with the coming of the Holy Spirit, we celebrate the birthday of Jesus' Church. Prepare and decorate a cake. Have each family member come forward to light a candle on the cake and respond: "As the Father sent me, so I send you."
- Sometimes we need help and guidance to live as Jesus taught us. For your family prayer this week, pray for the gift and guidance of the Holy Spirit. Use this prayer: Come Holy Spirit! Fill our hearts with the power of your love.
- Talk about each of the gifts of the Spirit: wisdom, understanding, right judgment, courage, knowledge, reverence and wonder and awe in God's presence. How do you see these gifts at work in your family?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be May 20
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass
