Stewardship

May 29, 2022– Everlasting Stewardship

Ascension of the Lord

“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.” (REVELATIONS 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we as Christian Stewards should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Deacon Nick - Pastoral Associate

My dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. It is a feast of wonderful images, mystery and imagination. O what great drama!

Imagine the apostles as they saw the Risen Lord “lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.” And God seated Him at his right hand in heaven.

But what does this mean that Jesus was lifted up to heaven and seated at the right hand of the Father? Although God has neither a right nor left hand, there is a deep spiritual meaning for us. With the Ascension, and in Christ, human nature, the humanity we all share, has entered into the inner life of God in a new and previously unheard of way. He now looks at us in eternity with the face of a man. What great cause for hope!

You see, by His Ascension, the Risen Jesus entered fully--with His humanity--into His share of divine glory. Heaven, after all, is not a place beyond the stars. In fact it means that we now have a place in God. Where He has gone before us in glory, we hope to follow.

Truth be told, He has preceded us to our eternal home in order to make sure that where He is, we, members of His living body may also be. What confidence and reassurance this teaching of our Catholic faith should give each of us who call ourselves Christian!

By His Ascension, the Risen One becomes glorious. He now pleads constantly for us at the right hand of the Father forever. No wonder the psalmist proclaims: “God mounts his throne to shouts of joy, a blare of trumpets for the Lord.”

Yes, joy for us. And we continue to say alleluia, alleluia!

My friends, our risen and ascended Lord Jesus Christ is indeed with us always and in no more important way than in His very own Body and Blood--a pledge of His eternal glory.

As we approach the altar of grace at holy Mass, we need not look up. For sure He has ascended. Actually, we simply need to stretch out our hands for He is with us here on earth in a permanent and wonderful way in the Blessed Sacrament. He comes to us and then sends us forth.

Alleluia, Alleluia!

May God our Father give you grace and peace!

Deacon Nick

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Acts 1:1-11

As the apostles were looking on, Jesus was taken up

- The reading from Acts describes the actual ascension of Jesus to heaven.
- We will receive the Holy Spirit, and he will give us the power to tell others about Jesus.
- The two men dressed in white gave hope to the apostles. Jesus will return again! Let us never forget the promise the angels gave us.

Reading II: Ephesians 1:17-23

God seated Jesus at his right hand in the heavens.

- The passage from Ephesians tells us of Jesus' kingship and his supreme rule over and love for all of us.
- We too will be with Jesus in his kingdom, heaven!
- Once we receive the Holy Spirit, we will know God better.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

As he blessed them, he was taken up to heaven

- The Gospel message is simple...The Holy Spirit is coming, and he will do amazing things through us!
- This is the last time the apostles will see Jesus in this world.
- Before Jesus left the apostles, he blesses them showing how he is always with them

Family Reflection Corner

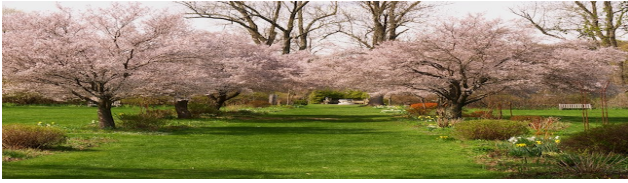

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Imagine if Jesus were to send a postcard from heaven. What would he say to his disciples about what is in store for them?
- If you could go anywhere in the world to proclaim the gospel, where would you go and why?
- Think of a time in your life when you felt as if Jesus had abandoned you. How can Jesus' promise of the Holy Spirit bring you comfort at such a time?
- Exercise your hope today by calling to mind Jesus' death and resurrection and the salvation he won for you on the cross. How can you more fully place your hope and confidence in these truths?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director.
Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Remember Those Who Have Sacrificed This MEMORIAL DAY

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away
our tears,
that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be June 20th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

Adoration

Monday - Thursday

9:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Estamos Contentos de Que Estés Aquí

Tiempo Pascual

En los días entre la Resurrección de Jesús Y la venida del Espíritu Santo en Pentecostés la Iglesia nos invita a reflexionar sobre el Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas. Hemos visto en el Sacramento de la Confirmación la infusión de los dones del Espíritu, estos dones deben producir FRUTOS en nuestros corazones. Los frutos nos identifican como discípulos de Jesús, ¿nuestra personalidad parece la de Jesús?

Los Frutos del Espíritu Santo se encuentran en la Carta de San Pablo a los Gálatas 5:22-23

“ El fruto del Espíritu es caridad, alegría, paz, Comprensión de los demás, generosidad, bondad, fidelidad, mansedumbre y dominio de sí mismo. Estas son cosas que no condena ninguna Ley. Si ahora vivimos según el espíritu, dejémonos guiar por el Espíritu; dejemos de querer ser más que los demás y de ser celosos.”

Nos preguntamos, “¿Somos así?” ¿La gente te puede reconocer como discípulo de Jesús por tu manera de ser?

BAUTISMO

Se pueden inscribir con Sister Anne, Padre Steven o en la oficina de la parroquia.

Los Bautismos se realizan el primer domingo del mes, en la Iglesia de Santa Ana, a las 12 de la tarde. (Los padrinos deben ser Católicos y si son casados, casados en la Iglesia Católica)
