Dear Parishioner,

As we embrace the beauty of spring, with its blooming flowers and the resurrection of our Lord, we are reminded of the renewal that comes with this season. It is a time for fresh perspectives, for appreciating the small blessings that surround us, and for re-centering ourselves in gratitude. We are thankful for the moments we share with loved ones, especially with our Notre Dame de la Mer and Wildwood Catholic Academy families. On behalf of Wildwood Catholic Academy, please accept our heartfelt thanks for your ongoing support.

Your generosity allows us to live out one of Jesus' most powerful teachings. This call to serve and care for the young is fulfilled each day at Wildwood Catholic Academy. During this Easter season, our students have exemplified this by making sandwiches for those in need, assisting in Mass as sacristans, and sending donations to the Lazarus House—just a few examples of their daily Christian service.

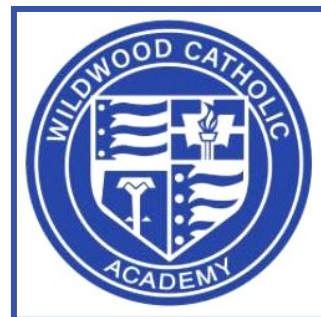

At Wildwood Catholic Academy, we offer young people a unique opportunity for a daily encounter with Jesus Christ within the framework of an excellent education. We are deeply grateful for the families who entrust their children to our school. To those of you who volunteer your time, talents, and faith—thank you. Your dedication is the heartbeat of our community, and without your support, the mission of our Catholic schools would not be possible.

We ask that you continue to be our successful partners as we provide the only PreK-Grade 12 education in one school in the Diocese of Camden. This summer we are again raffling off a beautiful brand new Jeep at Glenwood Ave. & The Boardwalk. Funds from this summer long project are just one way we work hard with you, our parishioners, to make Catholic education available to all of our dedicated families with tickets being sold at our masses and at Glenwood Ave. Pavilion. LAST YEAR ONE OF OUR PARISHIONERS WON! Please stay connected to our Facebook page and our school website as we invite this expanding community of Notre Dame de la Mer to be immersed in our school community as well.

We have much to be thankful for, and that spirit of gratitude and generosity is a cornerstone of our Catholic school culture. Each day at Wildwood Catholic Academy, we begin with prayer, celebrate Mass, and serve others. I am confident that God hears our prayers, and I look forward to all the blessings the future holds.

May God bless you abundantly,

Louise Fourney

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Acts 7:55-60

Jesus, receive my spirit.

- The first reading describes the death of the first martyr.
- Stephen's preaching angered his listeners.
- The description of his death parallels and contrasts Luke's description of the trial and death of Jesus.

Reading II : Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

Come, Lord Jesus!

- The reading from Revelation mirrors the vision from the beginning of the book.
- Again, Jesus says, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End."
- In the final paragraph of the Book of Revelation, a chorus of voices cries out "Come"; and the One who gives witness at the price of his blood answers "Yes, I am coming soon!"

Gospel : John 17:20-26

That they may be one.

- The Gospel of John stresses the importance of believing that God the Father sent Jesus.
- In today's passage, Jesus' prayer for his followers is that they may be one in love, as he and the Father are one.
- Jesus had revealed God to them and now they must bear witness to the world.

Question for Youth: Jesus prayed for his disciples, that others might believe in him through their words. How are you spreading your belief in Jesus through your words and actions? Do others know who Jesus is by knowing you?

Question for Adults: Jesus invites us to be one with God. Name a moment when you were one with God this past week.

June 1, 2025
Seventh Sunday of Easter

Living Stewardship

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (REVELATIONS 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work, or at school. Living Stewardship gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

Saint of the Week:

Brendan, Abbot, c. 484-577

Brendan was born probably near Kerry, Ireland. At six he was sent to a monastic school for his education and was ordained in 512. He founded many monasteries in Ireland. Clonfort was a center of missionary activity, and three thousand monks lived, worked, studied, and prayed there under his direction. He wrote an epic manuscript on his five to seven year voyage to the Land of Promise, a bestseller in Europe in the Middle Ages. It described the first European voyage to North America. Saint Brendan is the patron saint of sailors.

Feast Day: St. Brendan is a patron of sailors. The Irish celebrate his feast on May 16

Brendan's message today: Brendan is one of those saints who, while fully dedicated to God, were also devoted to advancing the state of human knowledge. We often think that living a life for God, means shunning the ways of the world. Brendan proved otherwise by his love of exploration and ability to communicate with others through the tales of his adventures.

- Where do you most often find God in your everyday life? Where do you most see God's presence in the world?

2025 ANNUAL APPEAL "Our Journey United in Hope" Kickoff for NDDLM - June 28 and 29th

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting many programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we shine a light of hope throughout the Catholic community of South Jersey.

This year's theme: "Our Journey United in Hope" connects to the Jubilee Year, themed "Pilgrims of Hope." It reflects our commitment to walk this path together grounded in the hope and love that Christ gives us.

In Spes Non Confudit* it states "During the Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those of our brothers and sisters who experience hardships of any kind."

Our brothers and sisters include the sick, the young, the poor, the elderly, and many others. By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we provide that tangible sign of hope. Every contribution helps us build a stronger Church renewed in hope.

**Spes Non Confudit (Hope Does Not Disappoint)* is the Papal proclamation announcing the Jubilee Theme.
