Stewardship

June 4, 2023

The Most Holy Trinity - Stewardship Given Freely

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..."
JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price that others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for Stewardship with a grateful and generous heart.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Trinity from the catechism of the Roman Catholic Church 261 The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of Christian life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. 262 The Incarnation of God's Son reveals that God is the eternal Father and that the Son is consubstantial with the Father, which means that, in the Father and with the Father the Son is one and the same God. 263 The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son (Jn 14:26) and by the Son "from the Father" (Jn 15:26), reveals that, with them, the Spirit is one and the same God. "With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified" (Nicene Creed). 264 "The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father as the first principle and, by the eternal gift of this to the Son, from the communion of both the Father and the Son" (St. Augustine, De Trin. 15, 26, 47: PL 42, 1095). 265 By the grace of Baptism "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal light (cf. Paul VI, CPG § 9). 266 "Now this is the Catholic faith: We worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity, without either confusing the persons or dividing the substance; for the person of the Father is one, the Son's is another, the Holy Spirit's another; but the Godhead of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is one, their glory equal, their majesty coeternal" (Athanasian Creed: DS 75; ND 16). 267 Inseparable in what they are, the divine persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit. --The Catechism of the Roman Catholic Church

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

A merciful and gracious God.

- The event described in today's reading from Exodus happened just after Israel broke the covenant by making an image of God as the golden calf.
- As the reading opens, God's renewal of the broken covenant is symbolized by new stone tablets containing the Law.
- Then God stood before Moses and pronounced the Divine name. A name that means not only that God is but also that God is actively present.

Reading II: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers and sisters, mend your ways.

- The second reading concludes Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians.
- It is an exhortation on the virtues of the Christian life: conversion, mutual encouragement, harmony, and peace.
- These virtues live in the Christian community through the gift of God's presence.

Gospel: John 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son.

- Today's Gospel passage tells us how deep God's love is.
- The statement about God's love was inserted into the middle of Jesus' conversation with Nicodemus concerning the new birth that leads to eternal life.
- According to John's Gospel, belief in Jesus is salvation.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Remind your family of God's presence as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, by starting a family tradition of blessing family members before they go to bed at night by tracing the Sign of the Cross on their forehead and blessing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
- Invite your family or household members to talk about the characteristics of a household in which people would want to live. What would it be like? How would people behave? How would this household treat strangers, or the poor, or others in need? Remind everyone that such a household is very close to what the Trinity is: a community of love.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be May 15th

La Santísima Trinidad

Dios amó tanto al mundo que dio a su Hijo único ..." JUAN 3:16

¿Es su amor condicional? ¿Hay un precio que otros tienen que pagar para recibir su amor y perdón? ¿Es usted generoso con su tiempo, habilidades, dinero y posesiones? Si le da algo a alguien, ¿espera recibir algo a cambio? ¿Da su tiempo libremente o lo hace cuando es conveniente para usted? ¿Dios desea tanto una relación personal con nosotros que nos dio a su Hijo incondicionalmente! Recibe por un corazón agradecido y generoso.
