Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Dear Friends,

An enemy we cannot even see has won a battle with us, but hopefully not the war. You know its name for sure. In a relatively short time it has managed to change our way of living, our whole society, as well as the whole planet wherever humans live on it. Among its many devastating effects has been the severance, at least on the surface, of our very unity as a race. Thanks be to God and human ingenuity, we have devised an electronic avenue of communication and have at least kept in virtual touch. We have obeyed legitimate authority in keeping what we have learned to call “social distance,” even though our every instinct wants to touch others and to be touched. We miss our handshakes, hugs and kisses, especially with those we love.

Our trio of Scriptures for this weekend’s Masses speaks, however indirectly, of the incomparably mysterious union of the Three Divine Persons in our one God. No wonder we are frustrated by anything like a virus that keeps us from living our usual way. That is because we have been created in the image of a loving triune God.

Our authorities have been most complimentary of our efforts to stay separated by 2 yards from each other. The whole phenomenon has amazed them because, after all, it comes down to being their strong and wise suggestion, not yet being a civil mandate. But we know in our bones that such separation is the opposite of what God has in mind for us His creatures. We remain in the Church as one family under God. In Him we still trust that this pandemic will end. We know that through our intelligence and believe it through our Faith.

In the meantime, we cling to that Faith. What that faith tells us about the nature of God ultimately comes from God’s Son. He was personally present on this planet more than twenty centuries ago, and still is mystically present among us as He promised. Without Christ’s revelation, we might simply ascribe to God such things that the myths of Greece and Rome did, including weaknesses. Because Jesus sent us His Holy Spirit, we can have the confidence that comes from knowing the truth.

For example, we know that Our God is certainly omnipotent. Just looking at creation we find that easy to believe. We also admire God’s creativity and imagination; and even His lighthearted sense of humor. After all, the same God who made the moon also crafted a crab that walks sideways and a bird that pecks hard at tree trunks for his livelihood.

That same God created you and me. We are often referred to as the “apex” of His visible creation, allowing for the angels of a still higher order. We know we are a mixture of strengths and weakness. We can be purposeful but procrastinating; peace-loving but warlike. Despite those possibilities, He still loves us. Just look at the nearest crucifix for proof of that.

So comforting to know that our God has revealed Himself as “big enough” to embrace us all. Perhaps the best psychological and spiritual outcome of the pandemic caused by Covid 19 will be to realize all of this about our God and ourselves with a new perspective. That will inevitably lead to a new and better way to ramp up our authentic Christian living. As always, we will do it best if we do it in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Stewardship

June 7, 2020

Unconditional Stewardship

Most Holy Trinity

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." JOHN 3:16

Is your Stewardship conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

The Most Holy Trinity Sunday

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Remind your family of God's presence as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, by starting a family tradition of blessing family members before they go to bed at night by tracing the Sign of the Cross on their forehead and blessing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
- Invite your family or household members to talk about the characteristics of a household in which people would want to live. What would it be like? How would people behave? How would this household treat strangers, or the poor, or others in need? Remind everyone that such a household is very close to what the Trinity is: a community of love.
- Trinity Sunday is an excellent time to call attention to the use of the Sign of the Cross and the prayer that we say when we make the Sign of the Cross. Teach the very young this sign and prayer. Talk to your family about the need to say the prayer with meaning.
