Stewardship

June 9, 2024

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

United Stewardship

"If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." - MARK 3:24

Within your parish community, do your ministries of Stewardship collaborate with each other or do they compete against each other? Do your parish ministries work for the greater glory of God or do they work for the glory of the people running them? The primary goal of parish ministry is not to increase Mass attendance, increase the number of volunteers or increase offertory. The primary goal is to be one Body of Christ that helps people take one step closer to Jesus. If it's not doing that, it's not worth doing.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

My dear Friends in Christ,

Summer is upon us which means, traffic has picked up, stores are busy, people who forgot to rent a place are frantic calling realtors and so much more. Maybe you feel the difference as stress levels heighten and pressure builds up. I like to remind you that Jesus gave us his peace and wants us to live in peace not just free of arguments but the deep feeling that comes with knowing the Lord is present. This doesn't mean retiring to a quiet spot, and turning the world off, just the opposite. It is in these tense and stressful moments that Jesus asks us to be his peacemakers. One of the Beatitudes is "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." Matthew 5:9. Have you ever found yourself having to take on the role of peacemaker? It's not easy to bring opposing sides together or to agree to disagree especially when it comes to Religion or politics. Perhaps your initiative and courage could help resolve a difficulty among some groups in your parish. You might be called to help reunite two family members who haven't spoken in years. Jesus is the ultimate peacemaker. Through his death and Resurrection, Jesus made, Peace by the blood of his cross (Col. 1:19-22). God has given to all his followers a call to be peacemakers. When we follow Jesus' example and act as peacemakers, we are taking up a call that God has given to all of us. Blessed are we when we do so! Be a channel of God's peace this summer for all those who visit your home. As your family and friends come to visit bless them with the peace that only God can give them. Enjoy your summer!

Please include in your prayers those countries who are currently at war. In all the apparitions of Mary, Our Mother, asks us to pray for peace, especially the rosary.

Blessings and prayers to all,
Sister Anne

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Genesis 3:9-15

God confronts Adam and Eve after they have eaten of the tree.

- This First Reading explains the presence of sin and evil in the world.
- God did not intend for sin and evil to enter the world when he created everything as “good.”
- Humans are so vulnerable to sin that we have consistently used the gift of free will to choose our own will rather than follow God’s will.

Reading II : 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

God has an eternal dwelling place for us in heaven.

- Paul fearlessly proclaimed his faith; even though his physical body was weak, his inner faith was strong.
- Our affliction is temporary.
- Look to the future when we will have eternal life.

Gospel : Mark 3:20-35

Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.

- In this Gospel, Jesus’ family thinks he is out of his mind and the religious leaders accuse him of being possessed by the devil.
- Jesus responds with a parable explaining that a power that battles against itself is bound to collapse.
- Jesus says that doing God’s will is what binds people to Jesus.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- It is one thing to admire Jesus, however acting as Jesus did is a greater risk. Discuss these questions as a family: Do I act and Jesus did? Am I willing to face embarrassment to act as Jesus did?
- Jesus encourages his listeners to follow God’s will, not our own free will. What choices show that you are following your will? What choices show that you are following God’s will? On a sheet of paper, create two columns with the following headings: My Will, God’s Will. Write responses under the appropriate headings. Post the paper in a prominent place in your home.
- Think about how you live together as a family. Talk about a time when you all put aside individual interests for the sake of the common good of your whole family?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be June 17
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass
