Most Holy Trinity Sunday

Letter From Henry Laigaie

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Sunday! I have been blessed to meet many of you already. For those whom I have not meet yet, my name is Henry Laigaie and I am the seminarian assigned to Notre Dame de la Mer Parish this summer. I graduated from Paul VI High School in 2012 and Seton Hall University in 2016. Currently, I am studying at Saint Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, New York. Throughout the summer I am looking forward to getting to know everyone during my stay in the Wildwoods.

This weekend the Church celebrates Trinity Sunday and in light of that I would like to share a story. Many years ago, an elderly Bishop visited a parish of his diocese for Confirmation. Despite the fact that he was losing his hearing, he still continued his custom of quizzing the children on their catechism before the Confirmation. He asked a young girl sitting in the front pew to define the Blessed Trinity. The girl was rather nervous and shy, and she softly stated: "The Blessed Trinity is one God in three distinct persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit." The Bishop could not hear her answer, so he said: "Speak up, I could not understand you." The girl turned to the Bishop, raised her voice and said: "YOU CAN'T UNDERSTAND; IT IS A MYSTERY!" Though this little girl might have thought she was being a comedian, she was half-way there. Yes, the Trinity is a mystery, but we can begin to comprehend the Trinity. One might liken it to a Kindergartener's understanding of Chemistry. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of the Christian life." (CCC, #261) The Church shows that because God is "mystery," meaning that we just cannot pin God down — we are unable to know everything there is to know about God. The Church does teach that, "by sending his only Son and the Spirit of Love in the fullness of time, God has revealed his innermost secret: God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange." (CCC, #261). Just Think – Whom are you invoking before a prayer when making the sign of the Cross? The Holy Trinity!

This week I challenge you to reflect on the working of the Holy Trinity in your life! How do I mirror the Trinity's exchange of love in my everyday life? Who did God the Father create me to be? Why did the Father's Only Begotten Son die on the cross, so that my sins might be forgiven? In what way is the Holy Spirit enlightening me to live out my vocation as a Christian? Have a Great Week!

In Christ,

Henry Laigaie

Stewardship

Grateful Heart Stewardship

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." John 3:16A

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love? Are you generous with your time, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? Stewards pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, July 22, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Community Outreach

South Jersey Catholic School students set to lose critical funding in 2017-18

Are You a Taxpayer?

Students in Catholic schools save New Jersey taxpayers millions of dollars annually. Each child who leaves a Catholic school and moves to public school costs taxpayers an average $19,000 a year. So it's in all our best interest to help keep students in our Catholic schools.

Governor Christie has proposed flat or reduced funding for non-public school students in the 2017-18 school year. In his plan, the per-student allotment for bus transportation will remain $884 – an amount that has not changed in 10 years. Every year, students are forced to leave our schools because of transportation challenges. Also, funding for school nurses and technology will be reduced, and funding for non-public school security will be eliminated altogether.

An Easy Way to Take Action

We are asking for equitable distribution of funds for expenses that affect all students, no matter where they go to school.

Please go to <https://njcatholic.org/faith-in-action> and ask your representatives to reach out to their counterparts who serve on the Budget and Appropriations committees. The text is already prepared for you to sign and send online.

As a taxpayer, your voice matters, regardless of whether you have children in Catholic schools. Thank you for making sure your voice is heard.

Children's Liturgy of the Mass

Each Sunday, at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass at St. Ann Church we have the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Just before the readings during the Liturgy children (ages 3 to 12) are asked to come forward by the celebrant. The children and their catechist are blessed and sent forth to hear the readings of the day in language on their level. This allows the children to have a faith-building experience they are able to relate to in their own lives. Children are welcome to come and be a part of this experience but no one is obligated to attend. The choice to take part or not is always to be made by the parents. If you would like further information or would like to help with this parish ministry please call AnnaMae in the parish office at 609-522-2709 x218.
