Stewardship

June 13, 2021- Stewardship Recompense 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil. - 2 Corinthians 5:10

Stewards are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Dear Friends,

“Legalese puts me ill at ease.” That little ditty is my own creation, with the point that the language found in many a legal document that strives to be specific tends rather to be soporific. Reading a statement like “Whereas the party of the first part, herein referred to as ‘X’ can impact the party of the second part, herein referred to as ‘Y’, with intimations of motivation proffered as real which in fact remains dubious, if not false, and also tend to be counterproductive for the manifest purpose of the specified case...” I guarantee that you will begin to nod off. Consequently we are glad to pay our lawyer’s fee just to read such verbiage and translate for us.

In the time of Our Lord, long before pen on paper was available to most people, and speech was the only medium of exchange of ideas, a good teacher had to use a special talent to get and keep the audience’s attention. Our Lord, the Master teacher, made it look easy, St. Mark underscored this when he wrote what we hear today: “With many such parables He (Jesus) spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it.”

Even we, as modern listeners to Jesus, jaded as we may be by being talked at by teleprompter readers of hired actors parroting for yet another product we don’t really need, we can relate to a lesson of what a small seed planted can produce.

Mark augments that parable with the preceding one Jesus told about the power of the land to yield fruit.

The Lord tells His first listeners and us that this is the way it is for God’s kingdom. It is not a physical place, but a community of God’s friends living His way. Church history chronicles how the Catholic Church has grown to embrace billions, even though it sprang from an unremarkable band of Twelve. This growth, fertilized and watered by the Holy Spirit, is only still here by His willing it. What has kept it alive ultimately traces back to God’s design. The proof is in that very history, which could be called at times a record of human folly.

The prophet Ezekiel’s image of a tender shoot planted atop a cedar on a high mountain, and Jesus’ picture of a tiny mustard seed planted in the earth tell us both of God’s power and our own worth in His eyes. Each of us is an integral part of God’s grand design, and Faith in Him helps us to believe it. We make a big mistake placing our faith elsewhere. But our cooperation with God can bring about something truly wonderful.

Sir Donald Malcolm Campbell, the British car and boat-racer and holder of several world speed records, lost his life while racing a fast boat on one of the lakes of Scotland. The boat exploded and rapidly sank. The only thing that ever surfaced was a toy stuffed animal, Campbell’s alleged “good luck charm.” The toy was powerless to help him in the final and fatal crisis of his life.

Very realistically, and in clear easy to understand language, there is no better demonstration of faith than a person planting seed in a field. God love you, and give you His peace.

Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp at St. Ann Church is lit for: Intentions of the Parishioners

The Sanctuary Lamp at Assumption Church is lit for: Michael Callahan r/b Sharon & John Williams

Reading I: Ezekiel 17:22-24

I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit.

- Twice we hear the words "I will plant."
- God makes promises and keeps them.
- God will rebuild the Davidic dynasty; then people will know that God can restore a people's destiny.
- What God restores will put forth branches and bear fruit.

Reading II: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Walk by faith and not by sight.

- The Apostle uses the word "home" to explain how we really belong to Christ instead of the world where we live and work.
- The Lord is the distant homeland, believed in, but unseen.
- At judgment, we will be revealed as we truly are.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Through Jesus will come the Kingdom of God.

- Only Mark records this parable of the seed's growth.
- Here are two parables about growth from seed to full blooming plant. Sower and harvester are the same.
- The Kingdom of God develops quietly yet powerfully until it is fully bloomed.
- The Kingdom of God was initiated by Jesus.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Plant a seed and watch it grow. Do your part in nurturing that growth. Marvel at how the life force that God gave it controls its destiny. Give it time and patience to come to its fullness. Reflect on how the Kingdom of God is at work in you and the world.
- Make a list of the earthly possessions that mean the most to you. Now make a list of ways that you mimic Jesus and the Apostles to build the Christian that you are. Which list is most important to you?
- Find examples of people in the news or saints you admire who are working with Jesus' teachings to help build the Kingdom of God. What can you say or do to get yourself on your list?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer for Year of Saint Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father,
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and
courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen.

“We all have a vocation and we all have a role to play. My formation in the diaconate program has brought me close to the charitable programs of the House of Charity. It puts the resources in our hands to help those who need it the most.”

– Dave Harkins, Newly Ordained Deacon

Your House of Charity gift helps our young men and our seminarians to become “men of prayer”, helps guide them as they discern if they are called and then helps prepare them to stand “in the person of Christ” and serve their bride, the Church, through their preaching and teaching and most of all by celebrating the Sacraments.

We are all Faces of Hope.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Anthony of Padua, Priest and Doctor

Born Ferdinand de Bulhoes in Lisbon, Portugal, Anthony was the son of a knight in King Alphonso's court. He began his studies at the cathedral in Lisbon and joined the Augustinians when he was fifteen. Ordained in about 1219, Anthony transferred to the Franciscans in 1221 at which time he took the name Anthony. He was a great preacher, who was renowned for drawing people to Christ through his words. He worked to abolish debtors' prisons, helped the poor, and worked ceaselessly and untiringly with those whose faith was weak. All of this took its toll on Anthony's health and he died on June 13 at the age of 36.

We can count on the saints to help us, knowing that they, too, experienced many of the difficulties we encounter in our own lives.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date

PREP

Registration is open for the 2021-2022 school year.
Summer Intensive or School Year
program

A late fee of $20 will be charged after June 15 for SI and 9/30 for SY due to books needing to be shipped.

Please register for Summer
Intensive ASAP to assure a spot.
This year there will be a late fee
after 6/15

PREP CLASSES

SCHOOL YEAR: Classes will be held on Sundays
9 -10:10 a.m. With the class being off the last Sunday of the month.

SUMMER INTENSIVE: Classes are held daily from 8:30 a.m. to noon, July 26 to Aug. 6. Classes are held at WCA building.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: Preparation to receive First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and/or Confirmation requires a two-year commitment to PREP classes as well as classes especially designed to strengthen the understanding of the sacraments.
Attendance at Retreats, Service Projects and Parent meetings is also required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STU-DENTS: All students are required to do six (6)
Faith-Filled Events, outside the normal classroom setting, throughout the year. This is to help the child understand that faith happens everyday all around you. Not just in class or mass. Notre Dame de la Mer will host several events that are considered Faith-Filled Events or the family may chose to do events outside our parish. All these experiences are considered part of the curriculum and failure to comply risks not being promoted to the next level the following year. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office and on the Parish website. Students from other parishes must have their pastor's permission to participate in our program. Special form on website.

Domingo 11° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Pues todos tendremos que estar delante de Cristo para que nos juzgue. Cada uno de nosotros recibirá lo que merezca por lo bueno o lo malo que haya hecho mientras estaba en este cuerpo terrenal.” - 2 Corintios 5:10

Todos somos responsables de todos los dones que Dios nos ha dado - nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento y nuestros tesoros; todo lo que tenemos y lo que somos. Cada uno de nosotros es responsable no solo por su propia vida sino también por la vida de los demás. Un día Dios nos preguntará a cada uno de nosotros que hicimos con los dones que recibimos. ¿Como responderá usted?

Padrinos y Madrinas

Para los Sacramentos de Bautismo, Confirmación y Matrimonio los padrinos y madrinas deben ser casados por la Iglesia (si son casados). Católicos solteros, también pueden ser padrinos y madrinas.
