Stewardship

June 16, 2024
11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Gifts

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.” - 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us in Stewardship, including our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Rev. Leonard Peterson

Dear Friends,

“Now this is how it is.” That is what He said. That is what Jesus the Son of God said. The people at that time listened to Him but did not all hear. We in our time must both listen and hear, for our lives in heaven depend on it.

In this case He was speaking about the kingdom of God. We already know that He was not speaking of landed territory. We heard Him say to Pilate: “My kingdom is not of this world.” What He spoke of here was the beginning of the kingdom being very small, but it would grow and grow until its reach was world-wide.

We also know that the Kingdom of God is not limited to the Roman Catholic Church, but that it subsists there. Just as we see the growth of our Church over more than 20 centuries, so we see the spread of God’s kingdom in multiple places. It really exists in the hearts and minds of all people who honor God by a godly life full of truth and justice.

We do not know what God has in mind for those who outrightly reject the kingdom when they hear of it but that is hardly our judgement to make. What is our duty, beginning with our baptism, it is to live as Jesus taught.

The problem we have in choosing the way of Christ is that it is often very difficult. Difficulty is abhorrent to a soft culture like ours that prefers easy living. In a recent conversation I had with a funeral director, he spoke of occasional family groups who do not gather after the burial for a family meal. They want the whole matter of a loved one’s funeral to be over and done with quickly, presumably so that they can all return to preferred choices of separate lives with little connection.

I grant you that such happenings are rare. Most families come together after the burial to celebrate their loved one’s journey home to God and to experience their common union. But this is just one small example of how the values of God’s kingdom can be so decidedly denied. Our present-day culture makes it easy to forget the kingdom because it denies that God has any place in our lives.

So, we come to the point in any conversation about God’s kingdom where we must not only remind ourselves of our membership in it but also to examine how we have exhibited our acceptance of it. Then we know where we can improve on doing our lifetime task, which is to respond to God’s inimitable love for us. Ours to love Him back with a generous return.

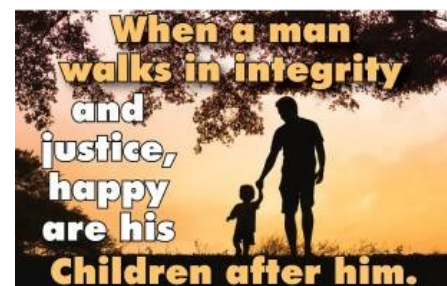

Once upon a time a father went into a toy store to buy his son a birthday present. The salesman showed him a new educational toy. It came unassembled, but no matter how the child put the pieces together, they wouldn’t fit. You see, the toy was designed to teach the child how to deal with life.

Such is the predicament of a person who chooses to live without God. He is never able to really put his life together.

God love you and give you His peace.

Rev. Leonard

8:30 AM Intentions of the Priest

Intentions will only be listed for the current weekend masses and the upcoming weekday masses.

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Ezekiel 17:22-24

I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit.

- Twice we hear the words "I will plant."
- God makes promises and keeps them.
- God will rebuild the Davidic dynasty; then people will know that God can restore a people's destiny.
- What God restores will put forth branches and bear fruit.

Reading II : 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Walk by faith and not by sight.

- The Apostle uses the word "home" to explain how we really belong to Christ instead of the world where we live and work.
- The Lord is the distant homeland, believed in, but unseen.
- At judgment, we will be revealed as we truly are.
- We shall be valued not by our earthly monuments but by our imitation of the Lord who emptied himself and left behind no earthly possessions.

Gospel : Mark 4:26-34

Through Jesus will come the Kingdom of God.

- Only Mark records this parable of the seed's growth.
- Here are two parables about growth from seed to full blooming plant. Sower and harvester are the same.
- The Kingdom of God develops quietly yet powerfully until it is fully bloomed.
- The Kingdom of God was initiated by Jesus.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Plant a seed and watch it grow. Do your part in nurturing that growth. Marvel at how the life force that God gave it controls its destiny. Give it time and patience to come to its fullness. Reflect on how the Kingdom of God is at work in you and the world.
- Make a list of the earthly possessions that mean the most to you. Now make a list of ways that you mimic Jesus and the Apostles to build the Christian that you are. Which list is most important to you?
- Find examples of people in the news or saints you admire who are working with Jesus' teachings to help build the Kingdom of God. What can you say or do to get yourself on your list?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

St Ann: Betty McNamara r/b Gerard McNamara

Assumption: Charlie Pasquale Visalli, Sr. r/b Phyllis Visalli

St. Gabriel Ministry

When an individual is confined to their home, it may be difficult to connect with those who love and care for them. Are you interested in lifting a person's spirits with an occasional phone call? If interested, call Karen at 609-602-6106

Homebound Ministry

Thank you to those who have recently joined our Homebound Ministry. With the increase of homebound parishioners and the limited number of ministers /priests, we welcome extraordinary ministers to join this fulfilling ministry. Your visits to our homebound can be on a weekly, bi-monthly or monthly basis. If the Lord is calling you to this ministry, please contact Karen at 609-602-6106.

COVERED

COVERED is a foundation started by sisters and WCA students, Nola Quinn and Stella Quinn, committed to providing no-cost menstrual health products to women and teens that live in poverty, are low-income, or are homeless. It is a priority to provide safe and healthy options for those that live in "period poverty". It can be extremely detrimental to both the physical and mental well-being of those that do not have access to safe options. Collections received are distributed to community outreach centers and other organizations to be distributed to the individuals that they serve.

RED Donation Bins will be located in the vestibule of each church through the month of June for you to drop in your donated products.

Accepting: Tampons, Liners, Pads, Wipes. The collected products will be distributed to Lazarus House, Branches, and Jersey Shore Women's Center.

WE HAVE YOU....COVERED!

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be June 17
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

GROUP MEETINGS

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and law enforcement.

Shadow A Student

We have Shadow Days open for prospective students to join us and come visit the school. It is a great opportunity to meet students and faculty, go through a class schedule, and spend a day in the life of a Crusader.

Applications

At this time we are accepting applications for the 2024/2025 school year and also for transfer students for this year. Applications can be completed on our website, or a hard copy can be downloaded and sent to the school. If you would like to schedule an appointment to come in and sit down with an admissions representative, we would be happy to walk you through the process and have your child's application completed and reviewed on the same day.

Reach Out

Please let us know if you would like to schedule a Shadow Day, a family tour, or an admissions appointment. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out.

We are looking forward to welcoming you into the building and sharing more about Wildwood Catholic Academy and all we have to offer.
